EM-TEES

Verse and Verse
Mr. Carranza still defies.
The days continue cool.
The boys now wear light green neck ties.
Short skirts are still the rule.

H. Ford still runs his big peace ad.
The allies still drive on.
Counting sunspots is a fad.
We think it's mostly con.

Huan Shi-Kai has gone for good.
Stocks continue strong.
We're short of paper made from wood.

Likes 'Em Experienced C. M. Owen was on the creek Sunday to see the widows.—Conway (Ark.) Log Cabin Democrat.

Romance and Utility To the Editor: I am known as a widow twice of Virginia, have four children, two small, and two of school age, am looking for a husband. I can live on the place and take care of things alone. Would like to hear from men who are not over forty years of age, single men that have no children, that have farmed and would be willing to live on a farm and take interest in the place and help as a life companion.
Call and see me before cropping time.
One with horses preferred, as I have none. I have all except horses and a true husband.—Downey (Idaho) Idahoan.

How They Do It
Two married women were having a hat, and, as usual, the conversation drifted around to expense of living.
"It's really awful how the rise in prices has affected us!" said one suddenly. "Why, do you know that my bills for clothing this year are exactly double what they were last year?"
"Goodness!" gasped the other. "I don't see how your husband can afford it!"
"He can't," replied the first calmly. "But, then, he couldn't afford it last year, so what's the difference."

government of Mexico, sent a telegram tonight to the secretary of state

A BUSINESS PROPOSITION

THE first real business-like proposition the Commercial club has received for the establishment of a sugar beet factory is that of the Utah-Idaho company.

The company asks a forty-acre site, free water and sewerage connections, 5000 acres of beets contracted for the first year and 6000 acres for the second. It agrees to deposit a bond to carry out its agreements.

The Utah-Idaho company should not be confused with the Oregon-Utah company, which was largely a promotion scheme, and which has been taken over by the former. It is a successful operating concern and makes a sound business proposition.

Medford is so accustomed to chasing will-o'-the-wisps and running after rainbow ends that a bonafide chance to secure the investment of a million dollars, a permanent industry and payroll will probably be microscopically criticized and efforts be made to find some way to avoid complying with the reasonable demands of the company.

These demands should be met, if it is necessary to take a public subscription to secure the site. Any time that a large industry can be secured, it is worth community cooperation and some sacrifice to secure it. Because we have wasted our energies in wild-goose chases is no reason for not pulling together in behalf of a tangible asset.

If we can secure a large lumber manufacturing plant under similar conditions, we should go after it also.

PRIMARY LAW
OF 1915 UPHOLD

SALEM, Or., July 14.—The Oregon supreme court today pronounced constitutional the 1915 primary law, "enfranchising" electors to become candidates for office by filing their declarations of candidacy with the secretary of state and paying filing fees. At the same time the court refused to issue a writ of mandamus to compel Governor James Withycombe to issue a certificate of nomination to H. M. Patton, as state senatorial nominee from Multnomah county.

Patton was defeated at the recent primary elections for state senatorial nominations and Gus C. Moser, A.
W. Olson, Conrad P. Olson, S. B.
Hudson and Robert S. Farrell were nominated. The latter five became candidates for nomination under the 1915 primary law, while Patton became a candidate under an older law which requires the circulating and filing of a petition. Patton claimed that the 1915 primary law was unconstitutional, but the court overruled his contentions.

COMMUNICATION.

To the Editor:
May I impose upon you for a little space in your paper for the purpose of informing the people of the city that owing to the fact that no steps had been taken by the attorneys appointed by the city council for the purpose of bringing to a head the matter of the paving assessments in the city, and that said matter still stands as it stood at the time of the holding of the meeting of the citizens of this city some years or more ago, that several meetings have been held during the past few weeks by the people representing each side of this paving controversy in an effort to bring the matter to some satisfactory conclusion, to the end that property values, and property titles, may once more assume a settled condition in our city.

At a meeting held some ten days ago the following named persons were chosen to serve on a committee to submit to the council and the people some definite plan for the adjustment of this perplexing question, and that it is the intention of these men to meet in the near future and appoint as many more men representing each side of the controversy, and for the committee thus appointed to formulate and present to the council and the people a solution of this problem, and we will be pleased to hear any suggestion which any property owner may wish to make as to who should be appointed on this committee, and as to any proposition to be submitted, as it is the desire of the committee already appointed to formulate a plan that will be fair, equitable, legal, and satisfactory to everybody, if possible. The date for the holding of the meeting of the committee will be announced in the near future.

The committee so far appointed is as follows: Porter J. Neff, Chas. M.
English, Atty. W. E. Phillips, Atty.
T. W. Miles, Geo. Trechler, Atty. E.
J. Newman, T. K. Deuel, (probably), E. V. Medinski (probably).
EARL H. FEHL, Secy.

Harry Beauchamp, former proprietor of the Good Eats restaurant, will leave the first of the week for Seaside, to spend the summer.

TREVINO LOYAL
TO CARRANZA

CHIHUAHUA CITY, July 14.—A declaration that he and all other members of the Carranza government are mutually united with the firm determination of establishing order in Mexico was made today by General Jacinto Trevino, military commander of the northeast, in a statement given to the Associated Press.

General Trevino said he made the statement because he had received information that part of the American press was declaring that he had revolted from General Carranza and was even planning to ally himself with the Villistas.

on the left bank. General von Roth-mer, having received reinforcements, has succeeded in holding the Russians in Galicia, but with Delatin in the hands of the Russians they possess an advantage from which further success is expected.

The operations in the Caucasus are becoming more and more important. After suffering heavy losses in their counter-offensive the Turks are now being pressed back towards Baidar and Erzincan, while in Persia the Russians have brought up reinforcements to meet the Turks who drove them from Kermanshah.

on their right moved their lines further forward.

The reported capture of Longuevale and Bazentine le-Grande indicates the British in today's assault advanced eastward or northward from Contalmison or Montauban and that they apparently have brought their right wing on a par with the French left and are thrusting a salient between Peronne, the immediate French objective, and Bapaume, the point at which the British movement is reported to be directed.

Longuevale is about three and a half miles east of Contalmison and Bazentine le-Grande is midway between these towns.

PRESIDENT SAYS
MOST PROGRESSIVES
IN DEMOCRACY

WASHINGTON, July 14.—In reply to a letter from J. C. Parker, a Philadelphia magazine editor, asking if he would accept the leadership of progressives of all parties, President Wilson today wrote Mr. Parker that he had no jealousy of independent political organizations, but believed that the democratic party represented a larger part of the progressive power and thought of the country than any other party.

The letter says:
"I have read your letter of July 10 with a great deal of attention and very serious interest and realize as keenly as you do the anomalous condition by which many of the progressive voters of the country are being confused, and misled, as well as the old inveterate attractions which seem to control the choice of many of them in matters political. In answer to the questions contained in your letter I will say that for my part, I have no jealousy whatever of independent organizations intended to keep the independent voters of the country reminded of their obligations and fully informed as to parties and of the conditions under which their votes are being solicited.

"For myself, I sincerely desired and have tried to deserve the support of all progressives, forward-looking men. I believe and think that recent experience has confirmed the belief that the democratic party represents a larger part of the progressive power and thought of the country than any other party and that it can be made the instrument, and is being made the instrument of leadership in the direction which all men who love justice and progress must wish to take.

"It is for this reason that I am proud to be its nominee and have the opportunity to lead it."
