TROOPS REALIGNED FOR PROTECTION OF BORDER COUNTRY BOQUILLAS, Tex., via army field telephone to Marathon, Tex., July 15.—Re-alignment of troops for protection of the border against bandit raids in the Big Bend country began today with the arrival here on a motor truck train from Marathon of one company of the third battalion Pennsylvania national guard, and the dispatch from here of a troop of the sixth cavalry to reinforce B-troop at Glenn Springs. The remainder of the Pennsylvania battalion at Marathon will be transported to border points as rapidly as possible. Troops also are being rushed from Alpine and Marfa to the border as a result of repeated warnings that bandits are advancing to the Rio Grande to raid this exposed part of Texas. With a strong national guard force at this point, A and B troops of the sixth cavalry at Glenn Springs fear that bandits will attempt surprise attacks on these places has been removed. Patrols from Glenn Springs have been covering from fifty to eighty miles daily in attempts to discover bandit movements. J. W. Judson left here today after closing down the Boquillas mine. Fear that the company's motor trucks would be held up was given as the reason. VICE PRESIDENT'S WIFE VISITS SUBMARINE BALTIMORE, Md., July 15.—Mrs. Thomas R. WONDERFUL ARTILLERY DUELS, in which real shells, costing $80 apiece, were used. Miles of trenches, thousands of fighters—"War as it Actually Is." H. W. H. will make you love. It will make you hate; it will charm and thrill you beyond your belief to be either charmed or thrilled. It will stir your fire, patriotism and blood, and make you yell and cry and groan. It will force you to grasp the back of the seat in front of you until your fingers ache and then relax them as some touching tender scene appears. You will be taken out of yourself and become frantic and hoarse from your shouts of enthusiasm and dismay—but no one will notice your actions, for they are all doing the same, as eyes and ears and feeling are being borne along by the sight and sound before you. There are a few of the never-to-be-forgotten sensations you will receive for your money when the "Birth of a Nation," with its accompanying symphony orchestra of thirty settings, plays at the Page Theater.
