SUBMARINE USED TO PLANT MINES IN TRADE CHANNELS

LONDON, July 21.—The German submarine mine layer which is one of the U-35 class, one of the latest prizes of the British navy, was visited by an Associated Press representative today prior to its being placed on public exhibition in the Thames. The prize, flying the German naval ensign, unmounted by the British ensign, lay in a naval dockyard on the east coast. The vessel is destined purely for mine laying. The entire forward part is composed of wells, six in number, each containing two powerful mines, which can be released by levers. The ship has no torpedo tubes or other armament except small arms for the crew and is only 100 feet in length.

Thirteen blue jackets and five officers comprise the crew of the submarine. According to one of the seamen, she made, prior to her capture, 19 trips from her base in Germany to the British coast and laid over 200 mines in routes frequented by merchant vessels. She was on her twentieth trip when she was captured by the British patrol boat. The sailors said that when the submarine was sighted and chased by a patrol boat the crew tried to get rid of her remaining mines but had not sufficient time. Seeing that capture was inevitable, the officers ordered the abandonment of the ship, destroyed the log and other records and virtually demolished the six cylindrical Diesel engine of approximately 250 horse power. All of the crew and officers were taken prisoner.

The hull of the submarine is in good condition but shows a number of dents where it struck obstacles in its underwater voyages. The craft shows signs of rapid construction, but appeared well fitted for short trips across the North Sea. British naval officers pointed out that the mines carried no apparatus for rendering them harmless if they broke loose from their moorings, as required by the Hague convention.

RUSSIA TO SINK HOSPITAL SHIPS

LONDON, July 21.—A Reuter's Petrograd correspondent says that the Russian minister of foreign affairs has informed the Turkish government, through the ambassadors of the United States and Spain that Russia will henceforth disregard the principles of the Hague convention as far as Turkish hospital ships are concerned.

The Russian hospital ship Portugal was sunk by a submarine in the Black sea last March. There were a large number of wounded on board at the time and 145 lives were lost. It first was stated that the ship had been sink by a German submarine, but later Turkey accepted the responsibility, declaring that the ship did not fly the Red Cross flag, and was mistaken for a transport.

On July 9 the Yperide, which took the place of the Portugal, was torpedoed and sent to the bottom while on her way to Batum to embark wounded soldiers. The official report of the disaster made no mention of loss of lives or of the nationality of the submarine.

CHOLERA REPORTED RAGING IN TURKEY ALONG WITH FAMINE

NEW YORK, July 21.—A cryptic message by which an American missionary nurse in Turkey got information of famine and pestilence past the Turkish censor is described in a bulletin issued today by the American board of commissioners for foreign missions. The message, written on the postcard, follows: "We shall very soon have to test the first part of the 20th verse of the fifth chapter of Job, and still soundly even now, of the last 31st Psalm, 113. What a blessing to have a God who is true and able. Lots of love to you all. Dr. Hamlin's famous mixture in demand here."

The first part of the 20th verse of the fifth chapter of Job reads: "In famine he shall redeem thee from death." The last part of the third verse of the 91st Psalm contains the expression: "For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler," and it is added, "and from the noisome pestilence."

The mixture referred to is a medicine used in cholera cases. The board of commissioners interpret the reference to the mixture to mean that cholera is raging in that part of Turkey.

The board refers to the message as "one of veiled allusions, veiled to the censors, but clear to us."
