He received the decoration of the Legion of Honor December 21, for prowess in the air and devotion to his

The proclamation thrown on Berlin is described by French authorities as consisting of an "Impartial statement on the causes of the war and the principal reasons why the entente allies are bound to win," and concluding with these words; "By the wholesale massacre of innocent women and children and by her brutal methods of warfare Germany has alienated the sympathies of neutrals and the number of her enemies grows daily.

The allies are firmly resolved to go on until the utmost limit. You are fighting for your steel kings, your squirearchy, your land grabbers. We are fighting for the liberty of all against the tyranny of military caste.

"We desire to punish the guilty. We wish to make a repetition of the present carpage impossible, and that object will be attained if in Germany the people possess the right to decide questions of war and peace for themselves."

GERMANS HERD PRISONERS IN STABLE

LONDON, July 25-A dark picture of the treatment of British prisoners at the Ruhleben camp in Germany, where civilians are interned, is given in a report by Dr. Alonzo Taylor, attache of the American embassy at Berlin. The report reached Viscount Grey, the British foreign secretary, ambassador to Germany. through Wolter Hines Page, the ambassador to Great Britain.

"The barracks at Rubleben," says Dr. Taylor, "are overcrowded.
