

WHOLESALE CASES OF TREASON IN NORTHERN MEXICO

CHIHUAHUA CITY, Mexico, Aug. 16.—Preparations are under way here for the greatest series of court martials ever held in Mexico, in an effort to stamp out disloyalty in northern Mexico. One hundred prominent figures in Mexican politics are held awaiting trial here in connection with the discovery of recent revolutionary plots and hundreds of witnesses have been summoned from over the republic. In the first of the court martials, J. Arrolla, a priest, was found not guilty. General Jacinto Trevino has received reports from Colonel Saizna at St. Andres, Durango, 150 miles southwest of Parral, saying that a band of four men under one of the Murgia brothers and another of 29 under Martin Lopez had fled before his command into the hills and scattered. He had learned from a ranchman, he said, that five of the fugitives, who are making their way toward Rincon de Chaviscar, are wounded. A detachment has been sent in pursuit, it was reported. Reports from Saltillo said that a conference of railroad superintendents of the lines in northern Mexico is being held there. Means of improving the rail service in this section are being discussed.

BAND CONCERT PROVES BEST OF THE SEASON

With an ideal evening and a splendidly arranged program, Tuesday evening's concert given by the Medford band at the City park, was easily in advance of the preceding entertainments, which have won so much popularity for our energetic band and bandmaster. The selections which were well chosen proved most popular with the large audience. Encores were quite the order of the evening. Suppe's overture to "La Burlesque" was perhaps the masterpiece of the program, and it is hoped that our band will give this great work equally as good a rendition next Sunday afternoon at Ashland. The always popular medley of operas as it was played on Tuesday evening, was undoubtedly the best effort of the band this season, music of such class will bring the band the whole-hearted support of our music-loving citizens. A special program is in preparation for next Sunday's concert at Ashland. Ashland people are looking forward to one of the musical treats of the season, and are preparing to welcome one of the largest crowds that Lithia park has yet experienced. March, "United Emblem".....Brown Popular, "The Shamrock Grows Green".....Osborne Overture, "La Burlesque".....Suppe Humorous, "The Dream of a Rarebit Fiend".....Thurban Potpourri of popular operas.....Beyer Intermezzo, "Southern Pines".....Kelly Concert Waltz, "The Blue Danube".....Strauss March, "Manhattan Beach".....Souza The Star Spangled Banner.

MESABA STRIKE DUE TO AGITATION BY I. W. W. CLANS

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 16.—Industrial dissatisfaction, found to have been partially justified, though fanned to its maximum proportions by I. W. W. activity, was responsible for the present miners' strike on the Mesaba iron range, according to a report of investigation submitted today to Governor J. A. Burnquist by William F. Houck, state labor commissioner. "The investigators declare that if the private mine guards had been compelled to remain on the company property we do not believe there would have been any bloodshed on the range." The report notes charges of bribery and exploitation, "which if substantiated will demonstrate abuses sufficient to have justified a strike."
