The most noted event of the week was the reception for Mrs. Chas. P. Chamberlain of Portland, given by Mrs. E. B. Hanley at her charming home near Ross Lane. Mrs. Chamberlain is the house guest of Mrs. Hanley's, is daughter-in-law of Senator George E. Chamberlain and is popular in Portland society. Quantities of ferns, evergreens and flowers in their pastel shades were used artistically throughout the different rooms. There were about seventy-five guests in attendance. During the afternoon the striking portrait of Mrs. Ed Hanley painted by Mrs. Dorland Robinson of Jacksonville, was displayed for the first time, bringing high praise from the guests. Mrs. Frederick Hopkins and Mrs. Lewis Salade poured tea.

William M. Blackford, a well and favorably known attorney and counselor at Montana, and daughter Miss Cicely Blackford will arrive in Medford the coming week, and will be the guests of his sister, Miss Alice Blackford. After spending a few days in the Rogue River valley, Mr. Blackford will then accompany his daughter to Palo Alto where she will enter the freshman class of the Leland Stanford university. Miss Cicely graduated with honors from the Oregon county high school in June, and is given admission into the university with an advanced standing of nineteen credits, and the distinction of being one of the eight undergraduates admitted on the preferred list.

Invitations are out for the Alumni Prosperity Prom, the first dance to be given by that organization, since that huge success, the Alumni Hawaiian party.
