GOLD HILL NUGGETS

Kathryn Foley returned Tuesday afternoon from an extended trip and visit with friends in the northern part of the state since attending summer school and teachers' training. Miss Foley will have charge of the primary department of our local schools. Edgar Pfeiffer returned to his home in Ashland after visiting for some time at the home of his brother Lloyd in this city. Mrs. Westlander of Glendale came Wednesday morning to spend a couple of days with her friend, Mrs. P. Langdell. Misses Ella Jameson and Hazel Knotts of Galls creek were visiting friends in Gold Hill Wednesday. R. H. Moore and a Portland party were investigating the timber prospects in the upper Sardine creek district. Mr. and Mrs. F. Fione of Sardine creek were in town Wednesday in company with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Furnham, who are visiting them from Nevada. Last week they made a trip to Portland to visit Mrs. Fione's mother, whom she had not seen for ten years. The young people expect to return soon to their home in Nevada, taking possibly two weeks for the return trip. They are enjoying very much this beautiful country, and especially the highways, which are to be commended. Great emphasis was put into the description of the Columbia highway, which they made a tour of while in the neighborhood of Portland. Mrs. J. H. Bowman has gone to Grants Pass to spend a few days with friends at that place. William Puhl and John Hayes of the Hayes ranch, west of town, were in Gold Hill trading Wednesday. Mrs. Laura E. Tiffin and daughter, Rita, were transacting business and visiting friends in Medford Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Mrs. Lanham's brother, who has been visiting her for some time past, returned to his mining interests near Jacksonville the first of the week. J. Camm and William Stroeve returned Wednesday morning from a tour of inspection of their mining interests up the valley. Merton E. Thompson left Thursday morning for Montana, where he has a position awaiting him. Mrs. Thompson will follow in a short while. Mrs. Frank Turner of Klamath Falls is spending a few days at the home of her father-in-law, G. B. Turner, in this city, and will continue her trip to Grants Pass to visit her parents at that place. Mrs. John Cook of Sams Valley was shopping in Gold Hill Friday. Mrs. Grace Sears of the Caldwell ranch, east of town, was in Gold Hill shopping Friday. Miss Claire Tucker left Friday afternoon to resume her studies at Berkeley, Calif. R. H. Moore was a Rogue River business visitor Thursday. Miss Ina Austin, who has been at the Lathrop home, across the river, returned to her home in Central Point Friday afternoon. John Newton and family of West Plains, Mo., arrived Friday morning to make a visit at the ranch home of W. W. Eddington in Sams Valley. Mr. Newton is a brother of Mrs. Eddington and the two had not seen each other for several years. They spent the day at the home of John Eddington in Gold Hill before going to the ranch with W. W. Eddington. Fred Wallace Sears was a business caller at our city, bearing large, Rogue River, Thursday. J. C. Burell, president of the Beaver cement plant of this city, visited the works Friday, accompanied by a dozen or more interested business men from Medford and elsewhere. Professor B. G. Harding, formerly of our local schools, but now principal of the Rogue River schools, visited friends and transacted business in this burg Friday. Mrs. J. W. Merritt of Central Point came over to Gold Hill Friday to attend to business matters at this place. Sprague Reagle was in Gold Hill Friday. Mrs. C. H. Price, until recently the proprietor and manager of the Home dining hall, left Friday evening for a visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. N. Bostwick, at Bladgett, Or. After a stay of a couple of weeks she will go to Corvallis, where she expects to spend the winter. Quite an enthusiastic gathering of representative republicans of our community hastened down the track to meet the rear car of the afternoon train from the north to be enabled to shake hands with the future president and wife. Even the Ladies' Aid adjourned till after train time. The depot platform also was crowded as the train pulled past. Ernest Scott and family are enjoying a vacation of two weeks at Dead Indian Springs. Mrs. W. D. Lewis and small granddaughter, Miss Roberta Kellerman, of Sacramento, Cal., are among relatives and numerous friends here at present. Mrs. Lewis was for many years a resident of Central Point and was one of this city's most loved characters. Her visit to her old home is the cause of much joy to her host of friends. Miss Edythe Canode has returned from a week's enjoyable stay at Butte Falls. The beautiful home of Mrs. W. E. Kahler was the scene of much pleasure Tuesday evening when the Missionary society held their regular monthly meeting there. There was a record crowd of young people at the meeting and the program, consisting of papers by Mrs. Nibert and Miss Esther Pankey, two selections by the young people's quartet; solo, Mrs. Ernest; piano solo by little Miss Mildred Nibert, and solo by Ed Kahler, was much appreciated, as shown by the applause at the end of each number. The refreshments of punch and cake were excellent. Watt Beebe and family of Agate, accompanied by Miss Fern Beebe of this city, are among the campers at Dead Indian Springs this week. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ager and young son, Walter, and Mrs. David Grim went to Crescent City Friday and returned home Tuesday evening. They went to see the ocean and they saw all that there was to see, so came back satisfied. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Faber and small sons, Master Everett and Donald Faber, arrived here from Merrill, Or., the first of the week. Mr. Faber and family have spent the past year in Merrill, but come back to Central Point to remain and take charge of Mr. Faber's business here. There will be an ice cream social given by the ladies of the Ladies' Aid at the Whiteside building Saturday evening. If you want a dish of good old-fashioned ice cream or sherbet just like mother used to make, there will be a good place to get it. Mrs. Guy Tex is at Prospect, the guest of her sister, Mrs. James Grievy, for a few days. Many Central Point sportsmen have answered the call of the wild and have taken themselves to the woods to enjoy chasing the deer and the game. Among this number are John E. Ross, Frank Ross, James Ross, Clifford Hatfield, Jack Cowley, Postmaster Guy Tex and Councilman D. C. Grinn. The many friends of Ruthie Hawk, who has been seriously ill for the past week, will be pleased to learn that Ruthie is much better now and will soon be able to smile them a welcome again. One of the most joyfully anticipated affairs of the season will be the Epworth league party at the home of Miss Jessie Chaney Saturday evening. The Jacksonville league will be the guests of honor of the evening. Many jolly and lively games are being planned and the big attraction of the evening, the eats, won't be lacking. Every member of the league and all young people of this city are cordially invited to share the merriment and joy of the evening.

CENTRAL POINT

TABLE ROCK TABLETS

F. H. Hauptman left Friday for San Francisco, where he was called on business that will keep him in the city for some time. Victor Beonien killed a rattle snake on the Conner ranch last week, which carried 10 rattles and a button and measured four feet and ten inches in length. The Seabrook and Byram families are planning a trip to the hills on a fishing and hunting tour. Roland Flarity of Agate is employed at the Modoc orchard. F. L. Caton purchased a fine milk cow from W. R. Byrum one day last week. Mrs. O. Penland of Talent visited relatives here the first of the week. Harry Hays, who is camped on the river is keeping the neighborhood supplied with salmon, which is proving a great convenience to those of us who do not take the time to fish. G. P. Hall, who is thinning apples at the Table Rock orchard, claims that the trees are carrying the finest crop of fruit he has ever seen. A. L. Vincent, who is running a threshing outfit near Medford, announces that the price of threshing this year is 7 cents a bushel for oats and barley and 8 cents for wheat. J. W. Myers, with his wife, who has just returned from Long Beach, Cal., where they have spent several months for the benefit of Mrs. Myers' health, tells us that this valley is as well off as any place in California
