

WOMEN INVADE ALL OCCUPATIONS IN LABOR FIELD

London Amazed by Great Parade of Feminine Workers in Trousers—Do Work as Well as Men for Less Money—Serious Trouble Ahead When War Is Over Says Russell.

By Charles Edward Russell. LONDON, Aug. 5.—(Special Correspondence)—Before the war, when woman suffragists spoke to street meetings in London they were received with spoiled vegetables, choice egg antiquies, brick ends and roars of "Wimmens' pleye is the 'ome!"

If they were to speak at street meetings now they might get the brick ends, the vegetables and the other relics, but even a London mob couldn't repeat that old fake about women's place.

It isn't the home any more. It's the machine shop, the plow handle and the railroad yard.

Women Workers Parade. Last week, through these streets there was a parade of women war workers, and the best informed man that looked upon it was astounded.

In strictly industrial occupations, aside from the munition plants, 292,000 women have taken jobs usually regarded as exclusively for men.

Up to July 1, outside of the munition shops, 628,000 women had entered industrial pursuits. In the same time the munition shops had taken on 519,000 women.

For what kind of wages? That is the first great point. Well, as wages distinctly less than men's.

When the government began to employ women in the munition shops, it announced a minimum wage for them of $5.25 a week.

Generally speaking, women are getting about 72 per cent of the wages formerly paid to men (not the wages men get now).

How do women pan out as workers? That's the next great point. We have official testimony about it—the report of the chief factory inspector, no less—and it says:

"Revelation of their own hitherto unsuspected and undeveloped capacity has undoubtedly come as a surprise to many women engaged in unfamiliar war work. They have learned they are capable of better things."

So has the rest of the nation. Brethren, all this means big changes, as sure as you live. These women are rocking the boat.

For instance, women workers do not restrict output. Trouble Seems Ahead. British trade unions have made restriction of output their long-asserted, unchangeable policy.

SENATE DEBATES IMMIGRATION BILL: SURE OF PASSAGE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—By 27 to 24 the senate today voted to take up the immigration bill, which the democratic caucus had determined to postpone until next session.

When debate on the provisions relating to Asiatics was begun, galleries were cleared and consideration of those features proceeded in secret.

Passage of the bill seemed assured by today's action, and it was predicted debate would be brief. President Wilson vetoed the bill last year because of the literacy test.

Some democratic senators believe the president will not veto the bill again, although it retains the literacy test provision to which he then objected.

The motion to take up the bill was made by Senator Smith of Carolina, chairman of the immigration committee.

The committee has amended the house bill in an effort to meet objections of Japan to the sections relating to Asiatic exclusion.

PORTERVILLE, Aug. 21.—Dan Della, a dairyman near here, struggled manfully to keep the jimson weed out of his cornfield until a few days ago, when he began to encourage it to grow, even if it choked out the entire corn crop.

Following Della's sale, made in San Francisco, a number of other ranchers have begun to search for jimson weeds, and it is even proposed to plant and cultivate it. The weed is in great demand just now, because of the hemp of the sea traffic caused by the war.

Properly the weed is Jamestown weed, and it has also the formal name of Datura stramonium. It is used in the treatment of asthma, and in India and China is a staple household remedy.

DR. BUTLER PRAISES CRATER LAKE AND MEDFORD

Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university of New York, famed publicist and international figure, gave the following impressions of Crater Lake and Medford in the Portland Journal:

"But Crater Lake—I shall never get over it. I rank it with the Grand Canyon of the Colorado as a unique and awe inspiring phenomenon of nature. I realize that it's no use to say anything about either, for the biggest words are puny things when we come to talk about such marvels.

"If the man who has the inn there can get $25,000 or $50,000 to make some improvement—if the entertainment is provided on the same scale as the Santa Fe does in the Grand Canyon or the Great Northern does at Glacier park, then you will see year by year a stream of the best tourists in the world going to Crater Lake—I was surprised at the number that are going there now."

Dr. Butler likes Medford. He spent several hours there. "It is a civilized man's town," he averred. "Medford has shaded, well paved streets, it has attractive homes, many of the bungalow type. It has well built banks and business houses and an attractive railway station."

"I spent two or three hours in the library which is small but well equipped and I observed that it was much visited by the town's people."

WIDOWS AND ORPHANS IN CASE THAT MAY CAUSE A "WAR AFTER THE WAR" IN EUROPE

The picture shows the widow and seven orphaned children of Captain Fryatt, in exile, commander of the British merchant liner Brussels, who was shot at the hands of the German government, has aroused England to the extent that the claim is being made the British will not resume diplomatic relations with Germany even after the war.

ASHLAND CONCERT OF BAND SUCCESS

Excepting the Fourth of July celebration, the largest crowd of the year attended the concert of the Medford band at Ashland Lithia Park on Sunday afternoon. The crowd was estimated at 3,000.

The selection of music program and the delightful encores given in response to the spontaneous applause, was all that could be desired.

DEADLINE PUT 1700 FEET ABOVE MOUTH OF ROGUE

GRANTS PASS, Oc. Aug. 21.—(Special to Mail Tribune).—Have just returned from Gold Beach, where I have established a dead line across the Rogue river, beginning at Doyle's rock and running parallel with the township line across the river.

I consider this the most important piece of work the fish and game commission has directed me to do. Steelheads and salmon will have no difficulty in coming up stream, and I believe that the line will also stop most of the warfairs among fishermen and cannerymen.

HAYS GROUP OF CINNABAR MINES, SAMS CREEK, SOLD

GOLD HILL, Aug. 21.—A few days ago J. Willis Hays of Gold Hill sold to Robert Spencer and associates of Boston his holdings at the head of Sams creek. The claims run a very good assay of cinnabar and were traced very definitely by Mr. Hays.

The new owners are now on the ground and a full force of men will be put on in the near future, as soon as sufficient development can be done.

GIRL COULD NOT WORK

How She Was Relieved from Pain by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Taunton, Mass.—"I had pains in both sides and when my periods came I had to stay at home from work and suffer a long time. One day a woman came to our house and asked my mother why I was suffering. Mother told her that I suffered every month and she said, 'Why don't you buy a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?'"

Thousands of girls suffer in silence every month rather than consult a physician. If girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a safe and pure remedy made from roots and herbs, much suffering might be avoided.
