EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett Last Sunday evening H. G. Roberts and C. E. Anderson, two traveling men representing the Chicago Portrait company, spent the night with us. They are traveling from house to house aiming to visit each family as they go. They were headed for the up-river country when they left here.

Miss Urtle Gippert of Butte Falls is visiting Miss Estelle Betts and her step sister, Miss Kay Perry. Sunday was rather a quiet day in Eagle Point, as the majority of the pleasure lovers went out to the different places of amusement, and there were but five or six outside of our regular boarders, here for dinner, but in the evening a company composed of W. W. Bellon and wife, Miss Dorothy Bellon, Muster Walter Bellon, Louis and Virginia Bellon and Felix Dielschneider of the Oregon Paper Box factory, Portland, and Mr. Bellon is a member of the Dryer-Bellon company of Portland.

Rev. L. L. Simmons, pastor of the First Baptist church of Eagle Point, announced last Sunday that he would preach his last sermons here next Sunday, morning and evening, as he expects to start for Valley Forge the first of the week.

Saturday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pool and son William, Frank Arnes and Mr. and Mrs. Dorris Coy started for Happy Camp for an outing.

D. E. Clay and Clay Gray came out from the soda springs, where they had been hunting for the last few days with Herman Meyer, Sr., the mail carrier, last Monday, and reported that they saw but few deer, except does and fawns, and that the woods was so full of hunters that it was dangerous for one to be outside of a good, solid house.

John Minter and William Winkle were among the transient callers on Monday. Mr. Winkle expected to start for Crook county to bring his mother home with him to care for his small children. Mr. W. is the man who lost his wife a few months ago and greatly needs a housekeeper to care for his five small children. He goes overland with a team and will camp out along the route.

William Paekard of Talent has been here taking steps to organize a lodge of the Modern Woodmen. He seems to be very sanguine of his success and tells me that he expects to send up a million members next month. He took a room at the Sunnyside hotel.

Since my last report on the wool question Irvin Daley has brought in a small lot for George Brown & Sons. J. Clinton Haworth of Lake Creek and J. L. Zimmerly of Trail have brought in two crates of young chicks for our depot agent. I see almost every day people hauling lumber from our lumber yard here, and the agent, Mr. Newport, tells me that it is hard for him to keep sufficient lumber on hand to supply the demand.

There seems to be considerable travel now on the P. & E. railway, as Tuesday as I went through the car I counted twelve passengers on their way up the country, all strangers, and from the amount of goods there is unloaded here our merchants must be doing a good business, and we have a great many strangers here almost every day. John Tyrrell of Lake Creek and Lee Bradshaw and family of Brownsboro were business callers Tuesday.

Last Saturday there were three very much disappointed young folks in and around here. There was a certain young man had engaged to go out into the country and bring in two young ladies so that they could enjoy the Saturday evening show and dance, and after he had everything ready to start, feeling somewhat tired, he concluded that he would lie down and rest a little while, as it was only 6 o'clock, so he laid down, not thinking of going to sleep, and the first thing he knew he woke up at 5 o'clock in the morning, and there stood his Ford, and all this time the two young ladies were looking for the lights of the Ford and imagining all kinds of trouble had befallen him. The next time he is going to start before time, and then if he goes to sleep the girls can wake him up.

In my last I spoke of Chauncey Flory and his family and William von der Helien going to the hills for an outing and hunt, and omitted to add that William had his family along also, and they altogether had a fine time. Tuesday we had quite a noted company here for dinner. Among them were Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Hill, Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Rollins and son Robert of Medford, and Mrs. H. M. Snyder of Corvallis; Miss Mabel Curtis, Miss Mollie Curtis, Mrs. Plum, G. A. Webb and E. C. Connerford, all of Crescent City, Cal. The first two named from Crescent City are sisters-in-law of W. Hart Hamilton, one of our regular boarders, and owner of the Hamilton ranch, joining Eagle Point. They had motored from Crescent City and were on their way to Crater Lake. Mr. Hamilton went from here with them to see the ninth wonder of the world. The ladies complained very much on account of the heat, although the thermometer only registered 92 at that time, but they had been used to the climate along the coast, where one always needs good heavy clothing.

S. H. Harnish, our lively stable man, reported to me Wednesday morning that he had sent a team up to F. J. Ayers' Tuesday morning for a load of hogs that Mr. Ayres had sold to Mr. Hamilton, and again today for a load from the same man for A. W. Bradshaw, and his son Baxter was here this morning to take them to the Bradshaw ranch on Dry creek.

W. E. Hensley, the man who bought the Frank Nichols orchard in the country, and residence property in town, was in town Wednesday, and while here gave me his subscription to the Weekly Mail Tribune.

Miss Ethel Dean is ill at the Dow hospital in Central Point, having been operated on for appendicitis. Miss Dean is secretary of the Willow Springs Grange, an accomplished pianist and extremely popular in the community. We all hope she will soon leave her bed of pain and again be among us with her wonted cheerfulness.

Mrs. Fred Straub and children returned last Thursday from their sojourn in Colburg, Ore., where Mrs. Straub's parents reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Riley and Mr. Ackerman of Central Point were deer hunting in the hills west of Frank Tompkins' ranch last week. No deer showed up, and consequently venison was left off the bill of fare. We hope they will fare with better success in their next venture.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nichols and Miss Lola Gresham, sister to Mrs. Nichols, motored to Crescent City last week and enjoyed three days on the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Cardwell spent a week in Ashland visiting with Mrs. Cardwell's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Dodge of Medford and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Thompson of Willow Springs motored to Crater Lake on Saturday and expect to be gone three or four days.

Mrs. Roy Nichols and her sister, Miss Lola Gresham, left for Sweet Home, in the Willamette valley, on Sunday. Mrs. Nichols will visit with her folks for several weeks.

Mr. De Ford and son Bennie started Saturday for a few days' hunt in the mountains.

Mrs. Will Hanson, who is staying with her sister, Mrs. Jessie Glass, has been very sick for the past week.

Mrs. Chapman and daughter Lillian were Medford visitors Saturday. Mr. Snyder and family and Mr. and Mrs. Clark of Central Point motored over in the Applegate precinct last Sunday.

Mrs. Hay, who has been in Medford for some time, has returned to her home in Antioch.

Margie Gordon and family, Earl Case and family and Mrs. Case, all left Thursday for a pleasure trip down to the coast in their autos.

Mrs. Stacy and son George motored to town Saturday. Ella Chapman is spending a week with her brother Percy and family of lower Sams Valley.

Mr. Hill of Beagle passed through the valley with a load of baled hay and returned with a load of grain last Monday. Otto Gresham and family motored over to the Gresham threshing machine Saturday and Sunday.

Oscar Rodgers hauled a wagon load of pears to Medford Monday.

Messrs. Nye and Phipps are making a fine road from their homes down to the main road.

Mrs. Norwood, who has been working for Mrs. Mansfield, went home Saturday and Mrs. Avery now has her place.

Mr. and Mrs. Kincaid and son, Howard, returned Monday after a year or more of absence at Roseburg. During the last month they have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Kerby at Odessa.

Tuesday we had quite a noted company here for dinner. Among them were Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Hill, Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Rollins and son Robert of Medford, and Mrs. H. M. Snyder of Corvallis; Miss Mabel Curtis, Miss Mollie Curtis, Mrs. Plum, G. A. Webb and E. C. Connerford, all of Crescent City, Cal.
