EM-TEES

By CHARLES DRISCOLI. Within his cell I heard him yell, 'Look out for poison ivy! Boy, here's your tip! I'll take a dip; I'm feelin' kinda divey!'

'Well, anyway, I'm here to say Vacation wasn't rotten! Why, lookie man, at all the tan And freckles I have gotten!'

'Yes, I suppose my sunburned nose Will make folks think I'm tipsy; The boss will roar, 'In this here store We cannot keep a gipsy!'

'If I get fired—well, I'm so tired I'll welcome relaxation; My poor old head feels just like lead; I crave some dissipation!'

My next paycheck is now a wreck; It went for salves and lotions, A dinner bell, a padded cell, And sundry other notions.

'They say I'm broke. I hope I shoke Before another summer! I've had enough vacation staff; It's put me on the hummer!'

HADN'T HARMED THEM. Visitor—"My good man, you keep your pigs too near the house." Cottager—"That's just what the doctor said, mum. But I don't see how it's goin' to hurt 'em."

"Johnson needn't be so mad because the teacher criticized his boy's composition. The boy will improve." "You don't appear to understand, Johnson wrote the composition himself!"

If a man's business runs down the sheriff comes along and winds it up.

GIFTED. Miss Lawrence possesses a rare soprano of wondrous sweetness and power. Her selection were all beautifully and artistically rendered. She fully sustained her reputation as a coloratura soprano, when she sang in Italian the lovely aria by Mozart. We predict for her a successful operatic career.—The Martinsville (W. Va.) Bulletin.

Teacher—"Tommy, next time you are late, bring an excuse from your father." Tommy—"Who? Pa? Why, he ain't any good at excuses; ma finds him out every time."

Always give the devil his due, but it is better to keep out of his debt.

FOR COURTING. Johnny Gronewald has purchased a new driver now. She has been trained to pay no attention when you smack your lips.—The Filley (Neb.) Spotlight.

WHAT DID SHE MEAN? She—"Is Princeton in New York?" Student (truthfully reflective)—"Yes, a great part of the time."

CONDUCTING COUNTY FAIR NO SMALL JOB

Few men realize what it takes to get up and hold a fair. To decide on the premiums and get exhibits, attractions and the people, to pay the expenses and awards, costs much money and labor. And, frequently, if anything goes wrong, the officers get the curses—just the same as praise comes when anything comes right. But the officers never count these costs when their constituents stand by them. They not deserve your support. Let it be given to the fair this year.

Remember the time and place, Medford, Sept. 13 to 16.

EQUAL TO EMERGENCIES

PRESIDENT WILSON has again proved equal to the emergency, and by prompt and decisive action averted the great railroad strike which would have precipitated nation-wide industrial calamity.

Woodrow Wilson has grown with his office. No president since Lincoln has faced so many difficult problems. Every crisis has found satisfactory solution. He has proved himself a skillful pilot of the ship of state, keeping the nation peaceful and prosperous in a time of world-wide turmoil and strife, with no loss of national honor or prestige.

It is due largely to the president that the democratic party has been transformed from a party of negation into one of construction—with progressive tendencies. No recent administration has enacted into law so many great constructive measures for human and national welfare—and none done more to upbuild the nation.

President Wilson's strength is national, rather than partisan. He has won by his statesmanship and his humanitarianism the confidence of the people—a confidence which no campaign of criticism and negation can shake. Not because he is a democrat, but because he represents national progress and because of his wonderful grasp of fundamentals are the common people for him.

The president has the rare faculty of correctly interpreting public opinion. His leadership is not as radical as many desire, not conservative enough to please reactionaries, but as progressive as the people themselves. He is for those measures the public desire, and courageous enough to change his mind when he finds himself wrong.

The Hughes campaign has not developed any strength since it was launched, and partisan enthusiasm is not developing to aid him. No vital issue has yet been presented the nation by the jurist that appeals to the people as sufficient for retiring an executive of proven capacity and skill for one whose measure is unknown.

THE MEADOWS

R. J. Rowen and William Cottrell were in Gold Hill and Grants Pass on Wednesday on business.

Captain E. A. Slover of the Portland police department, who for a number of years was chief of police in that city, conducted religious services in the Meadows schoolhouse on Wednesday evening. He was accompanied by William Mayfield, Jr., from Central Point. They returned to Medford on Thursday.

Dave Cottrell and family motored to the valley Thursday.

Lightning struck a couple of trees near the Mayfields place on Tuesday night, starting fires which did not get beyond control, however, owing to our efficient fire warden, W. W. Scott, getting on the job almost immediately.

Miss Lela Stevens of Phoenix is spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. W. W. Cottrell, on the Olson ranch.

Ellsworth Drake is helping Ralph Russell with his grain crop.

Cliff Hazlewood is now at Deep River, Wash. John Drake is with him.

Lane Wyland has loaded his family into the new Saxon Six and gone to the valley for a few days' visit in Medford before moving to the new ranch on Butte creek way.

Dad Drake and Dad Russell, two fine old men of these parts, have gone up Elk creek, where the huckleberries are thick and also the deer. They expect to return this week after having the time of their lives.

Bill Cottrell has again traded for the old Childers ranch, where he built the bungalow a few years ago. This is considered one of the choice ranches in this section, and Bill is preparing to move onto the place early next week. He traded Messrs. Pickett and Maxwell the old Cottrell ranch of 120 acres, about six miles east of Medford, for this place in the Meadows.

Mr. Maxwell returned to his home, some seventy miles north of Seattle, Wash., on Wednesday evening's train.

William C. Pomeroy has been appointed fire warden for this district, effective the first of the month. Former Warden Scott resigned to go to Coos county and Supervisor Eberly was up Thursday and put Bill in charge. The new warden is a popular one and is insured the full cooperation of everyone in the district, which means efficiency. As a female to Warden Scott's reign, some careless hunter on Mount Spigot let a fire get away from him and it took all of Thursday night to get it under control. Scott has been a splendid officer.

Cal Dusenberry, the Gold Hill tinny man, brought Mr. Merritt from Gold Hill Thursday to the Pomeroy blacksmith shop, where he was met by J. B. Walsh with the team. Mr. Merritt spent the day until 6:30 looking over the old sawmill and other properties in which he and Mr. Welch are interested, while Cal camped along the creek.

A prospecting party headed by Geo. L. McLellan of Medford, drove out Friday in a Dodge touring car and

ANTIOCH ITEMS

The Antioch and Chapparel schools started this week with a good number of pupils in attendance. Mrs. Arthur Jones is the Antioch teacher and Miss Simpson the Chapparel. They are excellent teachers and the pupils ought to advance in their studies this term.

Miss Myrtle Chapman is visiting with her sister, Viola in Medford for a few days. The Glass Brothers threshing machine is finishing up the crops in this section. The grain crop is light in this valley, as most of the crop was cut for hay.

William Cottrell of the Meadows was looking after his business interests in Antioch this week. The coyotes have killed several head of sheep in this section of the county this summer. Jim Vincent has lost a number by the varmints.

Miss Blanche Rodgers and Mr. Roscoe Doty of Beagle were united in marriage Wednesday, August 20. The young couple will make their future home in Medford.

Dave Cottrell drove a nice bunch of beef cattle to the valley Monday.

Frank De Ford drove a fine bunch of fat sheep to the Medford markets Friday.

We are sorry that the land option in Sams valley was a failure as the promoters seemed to be earnest in their work and did their best to put it through. We believe that if they raised the money in the next few months that the farmers would be willing to stand by them and sell at the option price. With the water on the land in this valley, it would be the garden spot of Rogue river valley, as the soil is good for irrigation.

Jim Dinkins, with his Ford, team and wagon, has gone over to Union creek, that country of big bucks, to hunt, guide and pack during the season. Jim is a very capable man and has a large following of customers.

Our bridges are getting into dangerous condition and need the attention of the road supervisor badly. Several auto parties have narrowly escaped serious accident the past few days and traffic has been very heavy.

Fred Moore and W. W. Cottrell went to Medford in Moore's Ford Monday. Bill traded himself out of a car on his land deal and it seems to go hard with him to fall back on the old horse again.

IDAHO NOMINATES STATE CANDIDATES IN TUESDAY'S VOTE

BOISE, Idaho, Sept. 6.—Returns received up to 9 o'clock today from the statewide primary of yesterday indicate the nomination of the following republicans for the November election:

For congress—Burton L. French of Moscow and Addison T. Smith of Twin Falls.

For governor—D. W. Davidson of American Falls.

For lieutenant-governor—B. M. Holt of Caldwell.

For secretary of state—George B. Barket of Sand Point.

For state auditor—George W. Lewis of Boise.

For state treasurer—John W. Eagleson.

For attorney-general—Marlin J. Sweeley of Twin Falls.

For superintendent of instruction—Ethel E. Redfield of Lewiston.

For inspector of mines—Robert N. Bell, who had no opposition.

There were only two contests in the democratic nominations and indications are that E. L. Parker was nominated by the democrats for lieutenant governor and W. T. Dougherty for secretary of state.

DOMINICANS AIDED WRECKED CRUISER

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—How the secretary of war of the Dominican government named one of the lifelines thrown out to save the officers and crew of the armored cruiser Memphis when the vessel was pounding to pieces against a rocky bluff inside Santo Domingo harbor is told in a message from Rear Admiral Pond.

Another cabinet officer offered his residence as a hospital for the rescued and the Dominican officials and citizens generally did everything possible to aid the shipwrecked Americans.

A message of condolence from the Haitian president also was reported by Admiral Pond.

Everyone Should Drink Hot Water in the Morning

Wash away all the stomach, liver, and bowel poisons before breakfast.

To feel your best day in and day out, to feel clean inside; no sour bile to coat your tongue and sicken your breath or dull your head; no constipation, bilious attacks, sick headache, colds, rheumatism or gassy, acid stomach, you must bathe on the inside like you bathe outside. This is vastly more important, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do, says a well-known physician.

To keep these poisons and toxins well flushed from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, drink before breakfast each day, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from your pharmacist. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant. Drink phosphated hot water every morning to rid your system of those vile poisons and toxins; also to prevent their formation.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became saturated with an accumulation of body poisons, begin this treatment and above all, keep it up! As soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and purifying, so limestone phosphate and hot water before breakfast, act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.
