FAIRBANKS DRY ABROAD, WET AT HOME SAYS HANLY CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—Charles Warren Fairbanks, republican nominee for vice president, recently has proved himself a "dry" advocate in Canada and a "wet" candidate at home. J. Frank Hanly, the prohibition presidential candidate declared in an address here today just prior to the departure of the prohibition campaign special on a month's western tour. Besides Mr. Hanly, Dr. Ira Landrith, the prohibition vice presidential candidate and about a dozen other party workers were aboard. A cheering throng sent them away from the Northwestern station on today's journey through northern Illinois and Wisconsin. Mr. Hanly quoted Mr. Fairbanks as inveighing against strong drink while speaking in Toronto. "And yet Mr. Fairbanks, in absolute control of a great state convention, refused to permit it to say a word of condemnation of that thing. And the national convention that nominated him for vice president refused to say a word against it. "God pity a man, who, in his heart, believes the liquor traffic to be such a thing as Mr. Fairbanks himself, has described, and then permit himself to be counted for it in his own ward. This is the man whom the republicans are asking the people of the United States to make vice-president."

COOS BAY GIVEN EUGENE RATES EAST PORTLAND, Or., Sept. 9.—Through freight rates from Coos Bay to eastern transcontinental territory are to be made the same as from Eugene and other main line points, according to announcement today by H. A. Hinshaw, general freight agent here of the Southern Pacific railroad. The rates will go into effect as soon as the tariffs can be published.

VILLA ADDRESSES PEOPLE OF SATEVO EL PASO, Tex., Sept. 9.—From the seat of a wagon, Francisco Villa addressed the populace of Satevo, Chihuahua, when his forces captured the town about two weeks ago according to an American arriving here today. The American brought with him notes on the speech obtained from a Mexican, in which Villa was quoted as saying: "You see before you 'Panchito' Villa—Villa, the handit. But you see also that I am paying my soldiers in silver and I promise you it will not be long until I have a large army. I now have plenty of machine guns and ammunition. You saw that neither the 'gringos' nor the Carranzistas could catch me even when I was ill. The 'gringos' are harder fighters than the Carranzistas, but I beat them no animosity. All I am interested in is in punishing traitors and putting an end to Carranza."

DIED HERRIN—At Ashland, September 8, 1916, John S. Herrin, aged 89 years.
