GOLD HILL NUGGETS

J. H. Beeman of this city has been very busy for some time attending to his duties as chairman of the mining exhibit at the Jackson county fair at Medford this week.

Mrs. D. H. Miller, Mrs. E. T. Simmons, Mrs. C. N. Shaver, Mrs. W. H. Gardner, Mrs. P. Langdell, Mrs. R. C. Kelsey. All departed with pleasant memories of the evening but sad regrets at the prospects of losing Mrs. Moore from our midst.

Mrs. F. E. Stewart of Yreka, Cal., arrived Tuesday evening on train No. 16, for a short visit at the Sams valley home of E. B. Day and family.

W. H. Stichel is busy remodeling the interior of Lance & Co.'s store, of which building he is owner. A balcony is being built in the side now occupied by the dry goods department, and this will be used for office and also the overalls, work shirts, etc.

Among those from Gold Hill who attended the circus at Medford Monday were: J. F. Dietrich and family, M. S. Johnson and family, Mrs. P. Langdell and son John, Mrs. H. D. Reed, Mrs. W. H. Miller, Miss Margaret Perry, Sprague Riegel and Sato. J. C. Burch and wife and son, Ben Burch, arrived the first of the week by auto from Portland.

Don Avery and Otis Oleson returned Sunday evening from upper Evans creek district.

Mrs. Brown of Kane's creek left Wednesday for Medford to visit with friends for a couple of days.

Ernest Lyman returned Wednesday afternoon from Portland where he had been on a short business trip.

The program at the church last Sunday evening was a very interesting affair and highly appreciated by those present. They are filling the vacancy caused by the resignation of the pastor in this manner, which is very satisfactory to the community, as attested by the congregations attending.

The miscellaneous programs are well rendered and next Sunday's program promises to be especially attractive as local talent who have not assisted lately are going to participate and the musical numbers are being rehearsed with much vigor.

Grandpa and Grandma Morrison of Rock Point left the first of the week to spend a few days at the G. A. R. encampment at Ashland. They were accompanied by their son Alex, and their granddaughter, Mrs. Childress, of California, who has been visiting the last three months with relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. E. M. McIntyre spent Wednesday with friends in Medford.

Mrs. Bertram E. Adams who has been suffering from an infection of the left hand, was brought to the Gold Hill hospital Wednesday and a slight operation relieved the patient.

Messrs. Barrick of Salem stopped over for a short time with Mr. and Mrs. S. V. McFarren on their return trip from eastern and southern Oregon, Klamath Falls and Crater lake, sight-seeing.

F. Shattuck, a traveling man, is stopping in Gold Hill for a couple of days fishing in the world famed Rogue.

The Misses Cady, Davidson, and Dietrich spent the day Thursday with friends in Medford.

Prof. Milam attended the county fair Thursday.

Mrs. Lynn Smith and Mrs. Hamilton Markland left Wednesday for a few days visit with friends in Grants Pass and Hugo.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Steelman left Wednesday morning for a few days stay at the G. A. R. encampment at Ashland.

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

Medford day at the old soldiers' encampment incorporated a literary and musical program in the afternoon, together with addresses by H. A. Canady of Medford and C. B. Watson of this city. The Relief corps of that city executed some skillful evolutions on the stage of the chautauqua building, forming the symbolic initials "G. A. R." and "W. R. C."

Young Billy Weston, son of E. P. Weston, the noted pedestrian of former days, has been visiting the old soldiers' encampment this week on a hike from St. Paul to San Francisco, five months being the time limit. He belongs to the Sons of Veterans and has seen service in Cuba and the Philippines. He left Portland last Monday. His hike from Minnesota has taken him over the red, yellow and black and white trails, as officially marked.

The prohibition special is expected to reach Ashland on Saturday evening of this week, remaining over until Sunday noon. Among the party are Frank Hanly and Ira Landrith, candidates on the ticket for president and vice-president, respectively. O. W. Stewart of Illinois, campaign manager. Mr. Hanly, it is reported, will speak in the chautauqua auditorium on Saturday evening.

Sidney Hazelton has returned to study and research work in connection with the experiment station of ville, major; Mrs. A. C. Spencer, Ashland, chaplain. Minor officials will be appointed by the general staff; also date and place of holding the next annual encampment. Weather conditions have been perfect, which, together with ideal surroundings have made "tenting on the old camp ground" a period of comfort and delight to the invading army on the honored retired list of civil war veterans. In addition to other courtesies extended the old soldiers while here, the Vining theater threw its doors wide open to them free of charge on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Neil and K. Loosley arrived early this week from Fort Klamath over the Dead Indian road, in the latter's Chevrolet car. The distance is a trifle over seventy miles. They started at noon and arrived in Ashland at 5:55 p. m., via Pelican bay and Lake of the Woods, pronouncing the roads good, owing to recent extensive improvements made thereon in both Jackson and Klamath counties.

Mrs. L. A. Harvey left this week for a month's visit with her son, Harry, and daughter, Mrs. Nate Oitforben, of Klamath Falls.

Mrs. J. D. Perrine of this city is teaching in Kings county, California.

Professor C. E. Dana left early in the week on a business trip to his former home at Delta, Colo.

Superintendent of Telegraph Ord and Electrician Finn, both of San Francisco, accompanied by their wives, have been in Ashland recently.

Samuel Peniston, park commissioner, and a florist of more than amateur ability, has set the pace for notable embellishment in the park area, notably in the way of dahlia and canna, the display being the finest ever seen in these parts.

Ed Koester is having a nice time with a bud in his nose.

Died—At his home in Rogue River, P. A. Strahan, Sunday, September 3, aged 68 years. Born in Warren, Ill., July 9, 1848, married in 1873 to Frances A. Enalls, joined the M. E. church in 1873; leaves four children, Pearl J., Earl M. of Rogue River, Carl E. of Okanoke, Okla., Reid M. of Ft. Collins, Colo., a brother and sister. Interment September 5 at Rogue River, Rev. J. M. Spencer in charge.

Millard Hull of Grants Pass, accompanied by two friends, were on this creek in search of iron Monday.

Mrs. Dupee of this place is now visiting at the home of her sister in Gold Hill.

Miss Jessie Martin of Rogue River was a caller in Grants Pass Saturday.

Among the exhibitors in the county fair are Miss Emma Guanzav and Miss Amy Keester of this place.

George Lance was a business caller in Jacksonville Thursday.

Clarence Stumbo and family left this week on a trip to Cow Creek, hunting and on business.

F. M. Gilmore and family were callers in Grants Pass Thursday.

FOOTS CREEK ITEMS

Rumors are current that late Friday evening the house belonging to John Hultz, marshal of Rogue River, was destroyed by fire.

V. W. Birdseye reports a yield of seventeen and one-half bushels of wheat per acre.

George Lance is improving the value of his place by adding a new hen house and sheep pen.

Ed Koester is having a nice time with a bud in his nose.

George Lance was a business caller in Jacksonville Thursday.

Clarence Stumbo and family left this week on a trip to Cow Creek, hunting and on business.

F. M. Gilmore and family were callers in Grants Pass Thursday.

C. S. Sergeant, an old-time resident of Jackson county, is in town visiting friends. He has spent the past four years in San Diego, Cal., but became anxious to see old-time friends once more.

George McClain arrived here Monday evening from Klamath Falls, having been called here by the illness of his wife.

Orin Cornish returned from Ashland this week, where he has been working the past few months.

The school fair was held Saturday at the school house. The exhibits were very good, but not nearly as large an exhibit as in previous years.

Mrs. Charlie Roberts and daughters visited friends in Ashland last Saturday.

Lester Fry and wife have moved from the Schenely ranch to the house on the Rose farm on Pacific highway.

The Phoenix band held its first yearly meeting Tuesday evening and elected officers for the coming season as follows: Robert Farry, president; H. H. Matthews, manager, and Chester Bourne, secretary. The date for the first concert and entertainment was set for Friday, October 7, and it was planned to give regular concerts throughout the year.

School opened Monday morning with an enrollment of 135 pupils. Of this number, forty-one have registered in high school. There are twenty-one pupils in the freshmen class.

The high school student body will hold its regular yearly nomination of officers, including the editor and business manager of the "Blue and White," Wednesday, September 20.

Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Malmgren and niece, Mrs. Goeman, and Mrs. Rebecca Moore attended the speech of ex-Governor West in Medford Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Milo Farry and son are visiting friends at Mistletoe.

Miss Etta Goeman will leave Saturday morning for Corvallis, where she will resume her studies for the coming year.

Miss Bertha Wadverton of Gold Hill is here attending high school.

WILLOW SPRINGS

The J. W. Elden family and Miss Rose Jones left last Friday for an extended visit in the east.

J. Brown and Miss Brown were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Tompkins last Sunday.

Mrs. Calhoun visited with Mrs. Fred Straub last Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Anderson and family attended the circus in Medford on Monday.

J. W. Birkholz was in Medford last Saturday on business.

close Thursday on account of the county fair. Plans are under way for a roaring good time at the Willow Springs grange on September 23.

Notice of Sale of Real Property

Notice is hereby given that under and by virtue of an interlocutory Decree duly entered and given by the circuit court of the state of Oregon, for the county of Jackson, on the 17th day of August, 1916, in a suit therein duly pending wherein Almee Chipley Dann is plaintiff, and Wilbur W. Dann is defendant, directing the sale of the premises hereinafter described and appointing the undersigned as referee for the purpose of making the same to sell on Saturday the 30th day of September, 1916, at the hour of ten o'clock a. m., at the front door of the court house in Jacksonville, Jackson county, Oregon, offer for sale and will sell to the highest bidder for cash the following described real property situated in Jackson county, Oregon, to-wit:

Beginning at the northwest corner of the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section 6, in township 39 south of range 1 east of Willamette Meridian, Oregon; south 15 chains; thence east 20 chains; thence north 15 chains; thence west 20 chains to the place of beginning, containing 20 acres of land.

Also the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section 6, in township 39 south of range 1 east of the W. M., Oregon, containing 10 acres of land, more or less.

Also, the northeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section 6 township 39 south of range 1 east of the W. M., excepting and reserving therefrom the two following described tracts, to-wit:

First: Commencing at the northeast corner of the northeast quarter of the southeast quarter of said section 6; thence south 73 degrees 25 minutes west 29.84 chains; thence north 10 chains to the northwest corner of the said northeast quarter of the southeast quarter of said section 6; thence east 20 chains to the place of beginning, containing 15 acres, more or less.

Second: Commencing at the southeast corner of the southeast quarter of said section 6; thence east until it intersects the mining ditch at a big black oak stump; thence easterly along the south bank of said mining ditch until it intersects the section line between sections 5 and 6; thence south on section line to the southeast corner of the northeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section 6; thence east on the south line of the above described 40 acres to the place of beginning, containing 10 acres, more or less.

Subject to two certain mortgages thereon, the first of which was made, executed and delivered by said W. W. Dann and Almee Chipley Dann to William Degner and Nellie Degner, his wife, on the 24th day of July, 1908, which mortgage is now held and owned by John W. Moxley, of Chippewa county, Michigan, and on which there is now due the sum of $2800 and interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum from the 24th day of July 1910; and the second of which mortgages was made, executed and delivered by said W. W. Dann and Almee Chipley Dann, his wife, to Charles E. Chipley of Chippewa county, Michigan, on which mortgage there is now due the sum of $500 and interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum from October 1, 1913.

Said premises will be sold at said time and place in the manner provided by law for sale of real property under execution, and the same will be subject to the confirmation of the above named court. Upon confirmation of said sale by said court, I will convey to the purchaser of said premises absolute title to the same in fee simple, subject only to the mortgages above set forth.

ALAN BLACKENREED, Referee.
