The beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Lydiard, near Table Rock, was the scene of a most enjoyable affair Friday night, September 8, the event being an old-fashioned corn roast given by their daughter, Miss Helen Lydiard. The vines and trees surrounding the house were bedecked with Japanese lanterns, lending to the lawn a very charming effect. After some time spent in playing charades and other games, the party assembled around a large bonfire to roast corn, "wienies" and bacon, pumpkin pie and whipped cream completed the old-fashioned feast, which everyone thoroughly enjoyed. Stanley Lydiard then took the party for a hay ride, which added greatly to the evening's entertainment. Conversation, music and fudge completed one of the most unique and novel social affairs of the season. At a late hour all departed for their homes, thanking the Lydiards for a very delightful evening. Those present besides the immediate family were: Angie Halley, Louise Daddysman, Bernice Balcom, Helen Lydiard, Marion Palmer, Mildred Heine, Eva Osborne, Georgia Whitlock, Marie Seely, Dwight Phipps, Miles Power, Bernard Roberts, Leon Lawton, Robert Lindley, Nolo Lindley, Howard Grover, Bryan Pierce and Ralph Balcom.

Mrs. Herbert B. Clark entertained nineteen "fisher-folk" and their wives last Monday evening as a surprise for Mr. Clark's birthday. It was in the nature of a poverty party and carried out in every detail, even the guests coming in costume. The most laughable stunt of the evening was the telling of fish stories by the gentlemen with secret voting by the ladies as to who told the biggest. Mr. Edging was awarded the honor, with Judge Kelly a close second. Appropriate refreshments were served early in the evening, with later things more to everybody's taste.

There was a jolly family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Soliss of North Okladale avenue last week, when their daughters, Mrs. J. W. McCoy, husband and son, of Klamath Falls, Mrs. R. L. Cooper and daughter of Crescent City, Mrs. M. E. Griffin and daughter of Berkeley, Cal., and J. E. Soliss and wife of Medford, all met at the Soliss home and after a grand visit together had a picture taken of the family group.

Miss Joy Folger was hostess at a prettily appointed luncheon given at the Medford hotel Friday. The guests were: Mrs. Ralph Bardwell, Mrs. W. F. Biddle, Mrs. George Roberts, Mrs. H. A. Thierolf, Mrs. I. J. Dodge, Mrs. C. W. Abernethy, Miss Edna Warner, Miss Folger, Miss Kentner, Miss Hutchinson, Mrs. Perritt, Mrs. Homer Rothermel, Miss Bullis and Miss Helen Ballis.

Mrs. John F. Reddy, Paul Reddy, Miss Bowling, Miss McCabe and M. M. Cowley, who have spent the summer at Taklima, Or., have been visiting in Medford the past week, left on Thursday for their homes in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Walther have returned from a very pleasant motor trip to Seattle and other points of interest in Washington and Oregon. Miss Leah Walthers remained in Seattle, where she will enter the state university.

Leonard Woodford of Medford and Mrs. Jon Wells Peters were married at Ashland Thursday morning. After an automobile trip Mr. and Mrs. Woodford will be at home at 817 W. Tenth street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Guthrie left on Thursday for a motor and camping trip. They will return the first of the week.

As a farewell to Duane Goodman, who left Friday for Marshfield, the Epworth league gave him a pleasant surprise Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Stine on Beatty street. The evening was spent with games and music, after which light refreshments were served. The following were present: Misses Georgia Whitlock, Mary Tinker, Annie Bateman, Mary Gore, Edna Gore, Lucretia Bateman, Julia Wiley, Mary Hess, Stella Anderson, Hazel Wiley, May Lindley, Agnes Daniels, Kate Stine and Bernice Balcom; Messrs. Nolo Lindley, Dwight Phipps, Dean Carder, Duane Goodman, Curtis Darby, Harold Wiley, Miles Power, Robert Lindley, Bernard Roberts, Walter Wilson, Arthur Hess and Mr. and Mrs. William Stine.

J. W. Woods, 81 years old, and for the past eleven years a resident of Medford and vicinity, left Tuesday for Portland, Tacoma, Seattle and Haverdine, Ia., to visit relatives and to make his home at Haverdine, where he spent many years before living here. He has six sons, one in Applegate valley, D. S., who lives here, and four sons in the cities just named. As Grandpa Woods returned to his son's at 8 o'clock Monday evening the lights were suddenly turned on and he was surprised by a gathering of twenty-seven friends to say goodbye. Refreshments were served of the fruits of the season. The evening passed pleasantly with music, singing and prayer.

A delightful affair of this week was the dinner-dance given by Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Emmens at Brown's Tuesday evening. The tables were prettily decorated with pink and white roses and clematis. Following the dinner, the party went to the home of Dr. and Mrs. Emmens, where cards were enjoyed the remainder of the evening. The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Abernethy, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Biddle, Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts, Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Conroy, Miss Edna Warner and O. Warner.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Wright entertained at their home, 9 East Jackson, on the eve of September 13 in honor of Miss Mary Phillips, who leaves soon for Bend, Or., where she will make her future home. The rooms were decorated with flowers and evergreens. Games and music were enjoyed the fore part of the evening. Later dancing was enjoyed, after which light refreshments were served. The invited list included the Misses Mary Phillips, Faye and Millicent Slinger, Mazie Turpin and Mrs. M. C. Wright; Messrs. Rollie Rinaburger, Roy Wright, Carlton Martin, Lewis Jenkins and M. C. Wright.

Tuesday afternoon fifty members and friends of the missionary society of the Presbyterian church enjoyed a most interesting meeting at the country home of Mrs. W. H. Gore. The program was as follows: Devotionals, Mrs. E. S. Palmer; "Our Tools," Mrs. W. W. Glasgow; reading, "A Valid Reason," Miss Mary Gore; "The Outlook for the Year," Mrs. T. N. Warner; reading, "What Have You Done Today?" Mrs. J. A. Torney. Following the program, a delicious luncheon was served on the lawn, during which time Miss Hoover of Long Beach, Cal., entertained with several readings, after which all went to view Mrs. Gore's flower garden, which covers several acres and is one of the most attractive flower gardens in the valley, especially at this season of the year, as it is aglow with a varied assortment of dahlias.

The Parent-Teacher circle of the Lincoln school met at the school building Monday afternoon, at which time the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. John Perl, president; Mrs. West, vice-president; Mrs. Elmer T. Wilson, secretary and treasurer.

The circle decided to work this year toward the improvement of the school grounds, and it is hoped every father and mother interested in this work will be present at the first regular meeting, which will be held at the school building, September 22, at 3 o'clock. At this time the president will name the committees and outline plans for the coming year. NBR:HU:LM. M. affiant. Del.

The Arts and Crafts league met at the home of Mrs. G. N. Birkland on East Main street Friday afternoon. After a short business session the afternoon was devoted to social chat, fancy work and music, delicious refreshments were served before the guests departed. All expressed themselves as having had a delightful afternoon, voting Mrs. Birkland a most entertaining hostess. Next Friday evening the league will be at home to their friends at the home of Mrs. Heine, 16 Rose avenue.

Mrs. A. B. Williams served dinner Thursday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hoekens, who have been visiting relatives and friends here for several weeks past. Mrs. Hoekens leaves Sunday for Seattle. Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Hamill entertained at a dancing party Thursday night at their attractive home in the Burrill orchard district, for the pleasure of Miss Marjorie Harvey of Chicago, who is a cousin of Mrs. Hamill's and who will be their guest for a few weeks. The original feature of the evening was the opening of a restaurant at midnight, the guests ordering their refreshments from a large bill of fare and placards on the wall. Regulation high stools and a lunch room, bench-table, steaming coffee urn and piles of sandwiches and doughnuts made the scene a very realistic one. The diners were served by Japanese waiters. The dancing was concluded by a Virginia Reel and Cotillon led by a Conro Fiero and E. G. Burgess, Jr. Good music on the piano, drum and banjo helped the gaiety of the evening along. Guests included: Mr. and Mrs. George B. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. Conro Fiero, Mr. and Mrs. David Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. Corning Kenly, Mr. and Mrs. S.
