ASHLAND AND VICINITY

The Old Fellows have purchased the Barnsbury block on North Main street from Mr. and Mrs. Barney Nichols, residents of Los Angeles. The building is now occupied by A. R. Brown as the Plaza market. Consideration $3000. The order now owns several adjacent properties leased at a fair rental, in addition to lodge rooms proper which are rented to the Woodmen of the World, Pythian Sisters, Maccabees and Fraternal Brotherhood. Ashland Lodge, No. 45, has funded its indebtedness in a new issue of $6000 in bonds which were sold almost before they were off the printing press. The denominations are $100 each, interest at 6 per cent, one bond redeemable each year obligatory, with privilege of redeeming as many more as the order sees fit. Lewis Dyrud, 36 years of age, died in Salem recently, and his body was brought here for burial on Tuesday, interment being in Mountain View cemetery. He was a brother of A. M. Dyrud, 120 Southern Pacific employe, residing at 120 Fourth street. Yreka has a roundup on October 6, 7 and 8, with Doc Helms of Medford as manager. A trio of railroad representatives, including Traveling Passenger Agent Bryant of the Big Four lines, and James Mason of the Sunset Route, both of San Francisco, also C. G. Pattison of the Southern Pacific city ticket office in Portland, were here on Monday. Their stay was for several hours and in the meantime George Kramer, local representative of the Harriman lines, hitched up his Ford and took the visitors all over the parks and drives, greatly to their edification. Manager Hirsch of the Seattle demurrage bureau, was a caller on railroad officials at this terminal Monday of this week. C. F. Hammit, proprietor of the Ashland garage, has sold out to W. J. Albert. The premises are located on Second street near Swedenburg block. Winifred Caldwell, whose residence is credited to Ashland, was one of twelve girls who escaped from the State Industrial school at Salem last Saturday, and whose whereabouts are still unaccounted for. S. P. Moss of Lakeview and Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Moss of Paisley, arrived in their car recently for a visit with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Moore. Troy Phipps, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Phipps, is a new employe at the Citizens' bank, succeeding Sam Peters, who goes to Portland, October 1, to enter the Canadian Bank of Commerce, a merited promotion. Both young men are grads of the local high school—Phipps in 1915 and Peters in 1914. Prince Hohenloe, consul of Austria-Hungary at San Diego, went north through here early in the week, not bound for fatherland to enter the trenches, but on a hunting trip in the vicinity of Grants Pass, and also to visit the caves in Josephine county. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vining of Los Angeles are expected here this week for a visit with relatives. At the same time Ralph and his brother, Irving, will indulge in a hunting trip into territory where game is big and plentiful and where "safety first" rules prevail. M. J. Guerin of Salida, Col., is in Ashland for a visit of a week or ten days, mingling pleasure with business. The winning of the relay races by Ray Murphy at the county fair at Medford last week involved a purse of $180. As winner, his success was a foregone conclusion from the start. He is one of a trio of brothers, the others being Carl and Murray, all being expert horsemen. Pastor Russell of Brooklyn, N. Y., on the occasion of passing through here a few days since, was greeted at the station by a number of local members of the International Bible Students' association. It is planned to have the noted speaker deliver an address here in the not distant future. Emerson Howell and party leave this week on a hunting trip into Rogue river territory in the vicinity of Prospect. Among invitations to old soldiers, an individual one was registered by E. A. Hildreth of Butte Falls to have the organization of veterans meet in that town for the annual reunion in 1917. Mr. Hildreth was a former resident of Ashland and is now secretary-treasurer of the fire relief association of the eastern Jackson county district. Mrs. Emerson Howell, Mrs. J. B. Casebeer and others constituted a party of ladies who have been camping near Buckhorn Lodge, in the Tolman Springs locality, east of Ashland. They were their own hewers of wood and carriers of water, not a messpeline camp follower being allowed around the premises. Chester Stevenson of Studio Ashland is having the hide of the cinnamon bear which he recently killed made into a handsome rug that will adorn the bare surroundings in the parlors of his Wimer Heights residence. Brain weighed over 300 pounds in his bear feet, and it took considerable pumping from a magazine rifle before the fierce animal gave up the ghost, and even then the beast yielded supremacy to the hunter reluctantly. The account of the shooting affray which occurred amid the jungles of the Lake of the Woods region, reads like a chapter from Roosevelt's harrowing experiences in Central Africa. Dr. Landrith, candidate of prohibition for vice-president, and who was here last Saturday with the teetotal special, in response to a fear expressed by a Redding audience that the prohibition would ruin the viticultural interests of California, retorted with the following paraphrase on a familiar poetical sentiment: "Hush, little vineyard, don't you cry; you'll make grape juice by and by." D. M. Love leaves for the state fair at Salem Thursday of this week, having in charge Jackson county's exhibit at the big show. J. R. Pittenger of Ashland and County Pathologist Cafe and Sid Brown, secretary of the County Fair association, both of Medford, will accompany him. Love is in charge of a full carload of Jackson county's best products. From Salem he will go to the Grand show at Seattle in behalf of the local Northern railroad. Pursuant to call from F. W. Moore, president, the First Spiritualist society of Ashland will meet in the Temple of Truth, Wednesday, September 27. George Ogg is secretary. Rev. Myron Haines of McMinnville will occupy the pulpit of the Baptist church next Sunday morning and evening. Advance copies of Ex-Governor Frank Hanly's book, "A Day in Ashland," have been received here, having made their appearance coincident with the visit of the national prohibition candidates last Saturday. The work is a de luxe volume gotten out in the highest style of the printing and engraving art. Many of the illustrations are of familiar scenic beauties hereabouts reinforced by descriptive text interspersed with poetic quotations which lend timely sentiment. The barn on the B. L. Powell premises, Nutley street, was destroyed by fire early Tuesday morning. Hay and other contents, including a number of chickens, constitutes the loss, aside from the building. Insured. Leslie G. Johnson of Red Bluff and Miss Anna Lee Johnson of Ashland, were recently married at Hornbrook by Rev. H. O. Edson. Charley S. Johnson and family contemplate going to Arizona this week. The trip will be taken with the view of trying a change of climate in behalf of the husband and father's health. The local Hughes alliance will effect a permanent organization on Friday evening of this week at the Chautauque tabernacle. There will be music and speeches. A special committee consisting of E. V. Carter, E. D. Briggs and O. E. Carson are attending to details of the event, which will assume proportions of a rally. The Ashland band will give the closing concert of the series in Lithia park on Wednesday evening of this week. Dr. Lance Briscoe and bride of Rogue River visited the doctor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Briscoe, early in the week. The bride was formerly Miss Capitola Willis of Roseburg. Portraits of the newlyweds appeared in last Sunday's Oregonian.

rey; baking, Joyce von der Hellen first, Judge Florey second; garden collection, Cyril Haak. It was not generally known that the fair was to be held at that time, and the consequence was that there was not the attendance or perhaps the display that might otherwise have been. Since S. H. Harnish was burned out of the livery business I see that he has rented the barn joining the Farmers' hotel and is doing business there. Thursday morning we—that is, Professor C. E. Johnson and myself, hitched Babe to the buggy and started to take in the county fair and hear ex-Governor West speak at night. Reaching the fair grounds after dinner, I did not like the idea of eating dinner in the sun, and we concluded to eat at the Montgomery house, so, reaching the grounds, about the first thing that attracted my attention was the immense crowd that had collected, and especially to see so many from this section, especially from Butte creek. There are others more capable of writing up the fair than myself, and so I will simply say that the exhibit of grain and fruit was up to date and there was a good display of stock of different kinds. But I wish to call the attention of the management, especially to the one who has charge of the grand stand, to an ugly place in the floor a short distance from the entrance, where a short piece of board has been laid over a hole in a board. I noticed a lady leading one child and carrying another stumble over it and came near falling down. It should be removed. At a little before 8 p. m. we strolled around to the Presbyterian church to hear ex-Governor West and Mr. Cox speak, and at 8:05 the speakers arrived and Dr. Rollins introduced the speaker. I am sorry that there was not more present for the church was not "packed," but there was a fair audience, but the most of them seemed to be heads of families and their wives. The governor began by relating a portion of his experience while he was governor in his dealings with the convicts, telling of the vast number there who were sent there on account of their intemperate habits. He then read the amendment that is being placed on the ballot for our consideration and to be voted on November 7. There was in his talk one of the most impressive lessons on the necessity of proper punctuation that I ever heard. He showed us how, by the insertion of a comma after the words "for medicinal purposes," and before the words "upon prescription of a licensed physician," it makes it possible for druggists to sell for medicinal purposes without prescription, and for physicians to prescribe for other than medicinal purposes. He then showed us how, by the adoption of the brewers' amendment, the brewer could open up a beer saloon anywhere, close to our schools, churches, and sell to anyone, old or young, not only the moderate drinker, but the habitual drunkard. He also urged on us the importance of registering and voting against the beer amendment and voting for the amendment to make the state absolutely dry. He spent a few minutes on the subject of taxes and also on the state banking law, showing how the farmers, by that means, could borrow money at a low rate of interest. He was followed by Professor Cox with a short talk on the prospect of universal prohibition, and Mr. Smith gave a short talk on the tax bill. After taking in the fair, two square meals and the three speeches, we started home at 9:45, had a very pleasant ride and by twelve midnight were ready to go to bed. I just learned today, Saturday, that there was a picnic party on Rogue river near Eugene Bellows'.

last Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Graham and Miss Delious Minter, who are both leaving the neighborhood. Miss Minter, I understand, expects to go east to attend school. M. D. Bowles, who has a farm up Lake Creek way, brought in two crates of chickens for our railroad agent, Amos Ayres, Friday. Mike Sidley passed through town Saturday morning with a small lot of finishing lumber. Norman Hawk and wife and E. A. Hildreth and wife, H. D. Mills, all of Butte Falls, were on the P. & E. Saturday on the east-bound trip. Wednesday morning the Eagle Point-Trail-Perist stage auto had four passengers, two strangers, John Simon and Mrs. Trusty. Since my last report Frank Abbott, T. D. Singleton and P. W. Haley, all of Eagle Point, have paid their subscriptions to the W. M. T., and C. Hoogerhyde has paid up on his subscription to the D. M. T. Phillip McCabe has paid up his subscription to the W. M. T.

Eagle Point Eaglets

By A. C. Howlett

John Greb, his two daughters, Frances and Myrtle, and J. H. Smith, a Chicago manufacturer, returned from their trip to Crater lake Wednesday, perfectly delighted with the trip. They rode as far around the lake as the road is completed, four miles, and Mr. Greb declared that the scenery is beyond description.

Our school opened Tuesday morning and as a commencing exercise they had a school fair, consisting of tests in writing, spelling and arithmetic, and an exhibition of the products of the garden and the culinary art. There were prizes offered to the ones who proved to be the best in the various lines, the first prize to the one who proved to be the most proficient and another to the second best.

In the primary room, Roscoe Roberts received the first and Donald von der Hellen the second in writing. In arithmetic, Roscoe Roberts first and Durrell Gorman second; in spelling, Roscoe Roberts first, Donald von der Hellen second.

Intermediate—Writing, Ethel Winkle first, Fern Lewis second; arithmetic, there was a tie between Ethel Winkle and Esther Shaw; spelling, Fern Lewis first, Lyle Van Scoy second.

High school room—Writing, Nellie Coy first, Miss Freda Leabo second; spelling, Theo Florey first, Verte Grover second. For some reason to be explained, there was no test in arithmetic in the high school room, but I am not able to assign a reason. The copy before me was handed to me by the principal, W. O. Wheeler.

Antioch Items

Theo Glass and family returned home from a pleasure trip down to the coast last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapman attended the funeral of J. G. Martin of Medford last Saturday.

Otto Gresham and family, Mrs. De Ford and son Byron, started for the huckleberry patch one day last week.

Died—Thursday night, September 14, at the family residence, 624 North Central, Medford, J. G. Martin, aged 70 years. Mr. Martin was a pioneer rancher of the Antioch district and was a correspondent for the Medford Mail for a number of years. His friends are legion in this valley, who are sorry to hear of his death, as it takes away from us one of our trusted friends, and one who would always extend a helping hand and a kind word to those who needed it.

W. C. Chapman and family, son Bert and Percy and family, enjoyed a picnic dinner on the river last Sunday.

Most of the people of this neighborhood visited the fair at Medford last week.

Rosee Doty and wife of Medford visited home folks last Sunday.

Jim Vincent and family, who have been gone since June, returned home from Fort Klamath last Sunday.

Mr. Abbott made a business trip to Ashland last Saturday.

Mr. De Ford was shearing at the Chapman ranch last Monday.

Lillian Chapman is working for Mrs. Perl of Medford.

Jesse Glass and family, Elbert Glass and family, Arthur Jones and wife returned home Saturday from a trip to Crater lake.

Mr. Dodge passed through Antioch last Wednesday.

Twice Proven

If you suffer backache, sleepless nights, tired, dull days and distressing urinary disorders, don't experiment. Read this twice-told testimony. It's Medford evidence—doubly proven.

Mrs. Wm. Charley, 305 N. Grape St. Medford, says: "The kidney action was too frequent and the kidney secretions were unnatural. Besides this, I had much pain in my back and sometimes, I could hardly bend or straighten up. At night, it bothered me, too, and often I couldn't sleep. I tried plasters and liniments for my back and medicines for my kidneys, but none of them helped me any, it was while I was feeling ill and discouraged that I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and began taking them. In less than two weeks, I felt better. I took in all four boxes when I felt well." (Statement given September 14, 1907.)

On March 16, 1916, Mrs. Charley said: "I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills just as highly today as I did several years ago. I still consider them a medicine of merit and whenever it is necessary for me to take a kidney remedy I use them, for I know they are most reliable."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Charley has twice publicly recommended. Foster-McBarn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

Why?

NOW TIME TO TRADE.
I have a 160-acre stock ranch; good location; 100 acres in grain, some alfalfa. This place recently sold for $12,000; no incumbrance. Will trade for good orchard, prefer pears, or would take city property. Would trade even or assume some incumbrance on orchard proposition.
