The mob came to Olathe in motor cars supposedly from near Stillwell, where Muller had lived. Sheriff Lon Carroll refused to give up Dudley and the mob overpowered him. They then battered down three jail doors. Several shots were fired but none was injured.

FIRST PARADE OF INFANTRY DIVISION HELD AT EL PASO

EL PASO, Tex., Sept. 21.—National guardsmen and regulars, 26,000 of them, in dust-stained khaki, swung through the streets of El Paso and past a reviewing stand at Fort Bliss today in the first parade and review of an infantry division at full war strength ever held in the United States. Military men said also that a larger number of troops were in line than at any other time in the history of the country, with the exception of the grand review in Washington at the close of the civil war, May 23 and 24, 1865.

Tanned by service on the border, the brown-clad legions, cavalry, infantry, field artillery and auxiliary troops marched in an unbroken column, nearly twenty miles long, and which took about five hours to file past the stand in which Major General Charles M. Clement, commanding the Pennsylvania division, and Brigadier General George Bell, Jr., commanding the El Paso military district, reviewed them.

Participating in the review were troops from the regular army, from Massachusetts, Michigan, Kentucky, Ohio, South Carolina, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island and New Mexico, in all 799 officers and 25,941 men. Eight thousand animals and 1000 vehicles, including ambulances, gun carriages and supply wagons, helped make up the pageant.

Spectators who thronged the streets remarked about the apparent warlike efficiency of the procession. Smoothly and compactly, in files of four, came the infantry—18,000 of them—their black thickets of rifles being crowned by the fluttering Stars and Stripes. A brigade of artillery, a regiment each of cavalry and engineers, with detachments from the signal and medical corps, from the quartermaster, pack train and sanitary departments made up the rest of the column. Apparently not a hat cord or a gun sling was missing.

MILITIAMEN REQUEST TO STAY ON BORDER

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 21.—The request of 300 members of the second New York infantry to remain on border duty after they had been ordered home resulted today in an announcement by General Funston that guardsmen who wished to stay could transfer to other regiments, releasing men who wanted to return to their homes.

CHINESE REQUEST FOREIGN LOAN OF FIFTY MILLIONS

PEKING, Sept. 21.—Chen Ching-Tao, the Chinese minister of finance, today formally asked the quintuple group of bankers for a $50,000,000 reorganization loan on the security of the salt monopoly surplus. The quintuple group is composed of representatives of American, British, Russian, French and Japanese financiers.

The bankers talked in a favorable manner regarding the loan and referred the question to the headquarters of their respective houses. The tentative representatives explained to the Chinese minister of finance that they could not co-operate with Germany.

At the Japanese legation here today it was denied that the Japanese government will support the 50,000,000 yen loan recently negotiated by Japanese bankers on the security of the Yangtze valley mines.

INDUSTRIAL FAIR AT TALENT BEST IN TOWN'S HISTORY

The Talent school industrial fair was a bigger and better success this year than ever before in every particular. Children from Wagner Creek, Anderson Creek, Valley View and Talent met in competition with each other along the various lines of endeavor.

Several ranch exhibits, particularly those of Ellis Beeson, Byron Seaman and Lewis Beeson, were quite complete and well arranged. The children's departments were well represented, in fact the big gymnasium was hardly large enough to display the material in a satisfactory way.

Each school room, especially from the Talent school, was represented by material prepared last year to be placed in competition at the fair this fall. Every chap in the primary department had a sample of his best work in paper cutting. The third, fourth, fifth and sixth grades competed in writing, the object being to see which class could make the greatest progress during the year. Every child had on display a sample of his best work which had been saved at different times during the year as new work was taken up. Competition was carried on through the upper grades, where students competed in drawings, blueprints of various projects, work in copper and brass, also in articles made of wood. The domestic science department had canned fruit and vegetables; the domestic art classes had patches, darned stockings, dresses and aprons which they had made. All these, with the individual exhibits, made an assortment worthy of display in the finest palace to be owned by the Jackson County Fair association.

The success of the fair is largely due to the close co-operation of parents and teachers. The officers in charge are deserving of much credit for time and energy spent in carrying the work to completion.

About $24 were netted by the Talent Study club from sale of coffee, sandwiches, popcorn, ice cream and cake. This will be used to secure new books for the library. School Supervisor E. R. Peterson gave an interesting and instructive talk in connection with lantern slides of our national forests and their care. The program of the day closed with a few competent stunts pulled off on the lawn, at which time Carlton Morse met all-comers in the pillow fight; Wayne Holdridge and Marjorie Adanson took the dashes; Wagner Creek, in league with Valley View, took the croquet relay race, and the Talent heavyweights, composed of Messrs. Soren, J. Robison, Twidwell, Scott and Badgeon, defeated their opponents, Messrs. Welborn Beeson, R. E. Robison, Wardrip, Lynch and Purves in a tug of war.

REVOLUTION IN ISLAND OF CRETE AGAINST GREECE

PARIS, Sept. 21.—A revolution in the Greek island of Crete is reported in a Havas dispatch from Athens. The revolutionists are said to have proclaimed a provisional government.

Several revolutionary outbreaks in Greece have been reported since the entrance of Rumania into the war and the occupation by Bulgarians of the eastern portion of Greek Macedonia, which resulted in an agitation in favor of participation by Greece in the war. Last month revolutionists obtained control of parts of Greek Macedonia near Saloniki and proclaimed a provisional government. The movement was said to be extending, but further news was withheld by the censor. The island of Crete 150 miles long, with a population of something more than 300,000, is in the eastern Mediterranean sixty miles from the southern extremity of Greece. It is the former home of ex-Premier Venizelos. Under the treaty of peace between Greece and Turkey in 1913 the island was annexed by Greece.
