PHOENIX PARAGRAPHS

Miss Fay Carver left for Corvallis Sunday morning, where she will attend college the coming year. Miss Carver plans to specialize in home economics. W. V. Barnum and son loaded two cars of pears at Phoenix last week from their ranch north of Phoenix. The fruit was excellent in quality and size. The Furry Bros., Jim Rader, Elmer Coleman and E. Reames are all in the hills rounding up their beef cattle, which they have sold to Lux & Miller of California. The cattle will be shipped from Ashland September 28. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Frame entertained Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Elmer and daughter Mildred with a dinner party on Tuesday evening. Mr. Lockwood and wife are moving to their new home on Pacific highway. The beautiful knollcrest orchard, owned by W. Critzer of Detroit, Mich., has been sold. The superintendent, W. J. Elmer, has not as yet decided as to where he will locate in the future. The new owner expects to be here by October 1 to take possession. Mr. Ward and family of Fern Valley will move to Phoenix October 1. They will occupy the bungalow on Pacific highway formerly owned by R. B. Orr. Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Sheets are the proud parents of a baby boy, born last Thursday. Miss Elva Walters left last week for North Yakima, Wash., where she will spend a few weeks with her brother, Jim Walters. O. F. Calloun of Buhl, Idaho, who has been visiting relatives here for the past month, returned to his home Tuesday evening. ASTORIA, Ore., Sept. 22.—Jens Jensen, a fisherman residing at Blind Slough was burned probably fatally by the explosion of coal oil at his home last evening. With his clothes in flames, Jensen rushed from the house and jumped into a well from which he was later rescued by neighbors, frightfully burned about his head and body. The residence was completely destroyed.

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

Dr. J. V. Milligan, of Portland, who died suddenly at Marshfield a few days ago, was pastor of the Presbyterian church here about the years 1887-8. He was 66 years of age, and leaves a wife and three sons. His son, William, is in the navy, and Harold is a noted musician in New York. For a number of years past Dr. Milligan has been connected with the state Sunday school work under Presbyterian auspices. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Root have returned from a visit to Ohio which extended over several months. The trip was made in the family car most of the way, the exception being that the auto was shipped by rail on the final laps of the homestretch. Mr. and Mrs. John Holmes and daughter Violet, Mr. and Mrs. James Holmes and the Misses Kittie and Sadie Holmes, all of Henderson, Illinois, are visiting relatives in the family of J. W. Bruner, residing on the Woolen street unit of the Scenic drive. California's total mineral product for the past year was $32,500,000 in round figures, of which Siskiyou county produced $445,000, according to official schedules. Siskiyou placers yielded $390,000 and deep mines $38,000, the latter sum an amount which fell far short of actual production according to Ashland investors who are heavily interested in quartz mining throughout that section. Aside from gold the output of Siskiyou mines was negligible. Amador county led in gold and Shasta in copper. Irrigation matters as affecting this section are receiving a direct impetus which bids fair to assume more than a phase on paper. Especially are talented people alive to the merits of the enterprise, the Bude plan being that most feasible. This would utilize the surplus waters of Ashland, Neil and Emigrant creeks. A rousing meeting of leaders in the project was held in the Commercial club rooms on Wednesday evening of this week. J. W. Millner, who lives out near the normal is represented on the official board which is boosting the undertaking. Nearly 4000 bushels of wheat as this season's crop reads like the production of older days in this vicinity. This was the yield the present season on G. W. Dunn's ranch east of Ashland. The grain went 50 bushels to the acre. The major portion of the crop was marketed with local dealers. Emanuel Erickson, of South Auburn, Rhode Island, is a new arrival here and is domiciled in the Allen block pending the arrival of a brother. He is looking for land, preferably a purchase from the railroad grant domain. The defunct Bank of Shasta, at Redding, the failure of which several years ago caused disquietude in financial circles in territory reaching as far as Ashland, has declared a final dividend of 2 1/2 per cent. The institution closed its doors March 24, 1911, and in all has declared dividends aggregating $9 1/2 cents on the dollar. At the time of its failure liabilities were $795,000. In connection with a visit here recently from President Sproule of the Southern Pacific, who also went over to Klamath county investigating the merits of the proposed Modoc & Northern railroad from Klamath Falls to the California line, residents of the Merrill and Maline sections are clamoring for the new road and promise to give its construction and patronage a liberal support. Miss Ruth Turner left recently for San Jose, to enter the normal school there taking a special course in teacher's training. Mrs. Mary Whitney and daughter Ruth have gone to Portland for a visit of several weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Charley S. Johnson and son Glenn started for Arizona on Thursday. For the time being they will locate at Kingman, Mohave county, in the western part of the state. County and district exhibits will be available after the state fair for display in local headquarters, and the Commercial club has under advisement a plan for reinforcing its permanent assortment along these lines in the event of removing into fine new rooms in city hall quarters which will be in readiness on or about Oct. 1. Local druggists are on the move hither and thither incident to the vacation season. Hal McNair and T. K. Bolton are home from the far east. Sam McNair has just returned from Lake of the Woods. Jim McNair and Wilbur Peley are still at large. In the meantime Orlando Dilda is a temporary substitute at Peley's pharmacy. All the professions take a vacation except the doctors of medicine. In the dental line Drs. Johnson, Blake, Tilton and Hall have resumed active operations in their respective offices after hunting and fishing trips extending over state and interstate practice. Local Elks are anticipating a big time at the carnival which is to be staged by the Medford lodge in that city Oct. 5, 6 and 7. Friday, Oct. 6 is to be Ashland night; Thursday, Grants Pass; Saturday's finale, Medford. It would be well worth a rate of three fares and a half to witness the fun and frolic. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cooper and Mrs. James Cooper, of Oakland, Cal., returned home on Wednesday, after a visit here with their old friends, Mrs. Ellen McLeod and her daughter, Mrs. Jessie Rondeau, residing on Fairview street. On Saturday afternoon this week at 2:30 the newly organized Political Science class will hold its initial meeting in the Auxiliary club rooms. This class is for women and was organized by Miss Marian Towne of Phoenix. In lieu of regular dues, members may contribute a nickel each meeting for incidentals. Sessions will be held weekly until either Charles, Woodrow or Frank is elected. Miss Maede Putnam, trained nurse of San Francisco, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Putnam. Her sister Madge also fills a like responsible position in that city. Both young ladies pursue their vocation under the Christian Science code of ethics. Two food sales will be held on Saturday this week. One by ladies of the Baptist church, at the Ashland Trading Co., another by ladies of the Congregational church, at Dickerson's store on north Main street. The Congregational team go to bat with "punkin" pie as an extra item on the food counters. The Pioneer reunion will meet at Jacksonville, Oct. 8, having been postponed from the previous call on Sept. 28. The Women's Civic Improvement club will give a picnic dinner in the parks, Tuesday, Sept. 26. A brief business meeting at 2 o'clock will be followed by a program relating to posse gardens and household helps. The ladies will husband the men by inviting them to the feed, also the stranger and newcomer within our gates. The family of Road Foreman of Engines Cuvellier, of Dansmair, are occupying the residence of Archie Miller, S. P. engineer, now working on one of the branches. Mrs. Fanny Blalock, wife of Conductor Walter Blalock, returned to Dansmair this week, after a fortnight's visit here. The engagement of Harvey Ling and Miss Vivian Greer has been formally announced, the wedding ceremony to take place Oct. 11. Harvey is the son of J. W. Ling of Medford, and Miss Vivian is the daughter of Bert R. Greer of the Tidings. Andrew Moran, of Mansfield, Mass. was in Ashland on Thursday, touring the Pacific northwest. EAGLE POINT EAGLETS By A. C. Howlett At the school fair held September 11 here, in addition to the report already made in the Eaglelets, I have the satisfaction of reporting that Miss Joyce von der Hellen had the honor of winning the first prize on baking bread and cake, and Aden Hazelton the first on corn, not only at the school fair, but also at the county fair, and Master Hazelton took the first prize on corn at the county fair, which entitles him to a trip to the state fair, where he will compete for the first prize on corn. When it comes to raising corn, the Little Butte creek country will compare favorably with any other county in the state. We will watch with interest the result at the coming state fair. I am authorized to announce that the state president of the W. C. T. U. will be here next Sunday, September 24, and speak just at the close of the Sunday school about 11 a. m. Last Sunday was another busy day at the Sunnyside. Among the guests were J. P. Hughes and Mr. Cross of Butte Falls, Alex. Vestal, John Foster of Reese creek; Mrs. L. A. Delbey of Copeco, Cal.; Mrs. E. D. Briggs, Mrs. M. E. Briggs, G. C. Crawford, M. E. Briggs of Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Wilson and son, Robert, of Central Point; L. D. Corbit of Chicago; Mrs. M. E. Schmit, N. E. Huley and wife, Miss Catherine Deed, Mrs. A. J. Vance, Miss Lenore Vance, of Medford; Henry Trusty and two nephews, sons of Henry Childreth, recently from Eastern Oregon. Henry Childreth lived here for some years, and about two years ago sold out his blacksmith shop to his brother and went to northeastern Oregon to try to better his condition and improve his wife's health, but he, like most everybody else, has come back to try again to make another stake. Mrs. Tillie Ball and daughter, Miss Ina, of Crescent City, has been here for the past few days visiting her mother, Mrs. Heckathorn (grandmother), her sister, Mrs. Frank Lewis, and family. Monday we had a regular lawsuit here in Judge F. M. Stewart's court between W. S. Hoagland and Messrs. Lenox and Hanscom. The suit was over the possession of two horses that Mr. Hoagland had let the two men have to put in and harvest a crop on his (Hoagland's) farm near Brownsboro. They had a jury trial, and P. J. Neff represented Mr. Hoagland's interest and R. R. McCabe the two young men. After hearing the evidence and the case was submitted to the jury, four of the six decided at once that Mr. H. ought to have his horses (he had reclaimed them), and one thought that he ought to have them, but that the two young men should have about $50 damages, and the other thought that the two men should have the horses and $50 damages, and thus they stood and argued for between two and three hours, and finally the one who wanted to give the horses to Mr. H. and the $50 to the young men gave way and they decided to let Mr. H. have his horses and let the two men pay the costs, about $30. By the time the two attorneys got their fees and the $30 costs is paid it will take more than the horses are worth to settle the bill. When the contest between Ethel Winkle and Esther Shaw in arithmetic was settled in the school, Esther Shaw received the first prize and Ethel Winkle the second. Miss Mabel Cobleigh of Butte Falls, the young lady who had such a time with her knee in the G. S. hospital last spring, spent the night with us Monday on her way home. She is so badly crippled that she has to carry her foot in a sling attached to her neck, so that she can raise her foot from the floor to walk. She went on up to her home Tuesday morning. Mrs. J. E. Graham, whose husband owns the old Fred Pedegre place on the free ferry road, was here Tuesday for dinner on her way to San Francisco, Cal. P. W. McCabe brought her to the Sunnyside. Miss Dollie Stowell of Medford came out Tuesday evening to visit her sister, Mrs. John W. Smith. Fred Dutton has moved his family from the old James Matney farm to Eagle Point into one of the houses owned by James Owens. Miss Sarah Kerslaw, who, with her brother, owns a fine farm and stock ranch on Antelope creek, Walden postoffice; Mrs. Rachel Gardener of Lake Creek, Henry Tom of Lake Creek and a stranger were here for dinner Wednesday, and so was L. E. Legarie, a grocery salesman from Portland. While Henry Tom was here he renewed his subscription to the W. M. T. Tuesday I went over to the Ed Phipps orchard, and while there the subject of county roads came up in conversation, and he suggested that a neat cut could be made from here to Ft. Klamath by opening up the road up Little Butte creek via Fish lake, to Pelican bay. He said that he had driven with a buck from Pelican bay to Four-Mile lake and that a good roadway could be made from the bay to Fish lake, a distance, according to Jack Lewis, who has just returned from Pelican bay, of only about fourteen or fifteen miles. They claim that it is only four miles from Fish lake to Four-Mile lake and seven miles to Lake of the Woods and four or five to Pelican bay. By that means, tourists going to Crater lake could come via Fort Klamath out by Pelican bay, Lake of the Woods and several smaller lakes, Four-Mile and Fish lake down Little Butte creek, and have no heavy grades and have fine scenery all the way. Rev. Phillip Deschner, the Texas cowboy, will address the citizens of Eagle Point and vicinity on Monday, October 2, 7:30 p. m., in the Baptist church, Eagle Point, on the subject of the two amendments, wet and dry, to be voted on November 7.

The Applegate school won the large cup at the field meet held in Medford Thursday. Some of the pupils won medals in the different events also. Frenz and wife of Portland are visiting his sister, Mrs. Worth, this week. Warren Mee was a business visitor in Grants Pass Saturday. A fire broke out on Thompson creek Sunday and a crew of men were called out to fight it. They had it under control by Monday night. E. J. Brown and family and Mrs. Benedict were visitors at the Grants Pass fair Wednesday. Mr. Ober and wife of Seattle, who have been touring in California, stopped for a few days' visit with Mrs. Ober's brother, Mr. Shattuck, before returning to Seattle. Mr. Worth was a business visitor in Grants Pass Saturday. John O'Brien left for Medford on Monday, where he will attend high school this year. Mrs. W. F. Wright went to Grants Pass Friday to stay with her daughter, Josie, who is attending high school there.
