

SELLS FLOTO CIRCUS IS DUE TOMORROW WITH JESS WILLARD

The Sells-Floto circus will arrive at an early hour tomorrow morning in two large sections of 42 cars and will give two performances, one in the afternoon at 2 and the other at 8 o'clock.

There are several hundred people and 400 horses with the circus. Its main tent will seat 10,000 people and contains three rings, an elevated stage and a large steel arena for the wild animals, etc.

It is claimed for the Sells-Floto show that it is one of the very best, and after visiting the grounds, no one will be disposed to dispute the claim.

Head" and "coral" growths, extra fine as regards size, and moreover are pronounced edible.

Mrs. Mary Dunn and daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Van Sant, will leave this week for an indefinite stay in Portland. Mrs. Eugenia Atkinson will accompany them for a visit of several weeks with friends in the Rose City.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Helmuth and two children, from Kokomo, Ind., arrived on Tuesday for a visit with Dr. and Mrs. D. M. Brower. Mrs. Helmuth is a sister of Mrs. Brower and visited Ashland previously about 20 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Wagner and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Whited returned on Monday from Lake of the Woods, where they went to test the merits for auto traffic of the road leading from Ashland to the lake, via the Dead Indian country.

Ed Kelly and Porter Neff of Medford have issued a deft to the G. O. P. county central committee to discuss political problems at an unlooked 13 number of precincts in Jackson county, beginning October 7 and ending November 6.

L. L. Riley a business man of Idaho Falls, Idaho, was an Ashland visitor on Tuesday, incident to a trip throughout the state, and with the Southern portion of it especially.

W. D. Hodgson and G. C. McCallister made a tour of the Williams creek section on Monday. The former has a display of white dent corn from his ranch down the valley, on exhibit at his realty office, which ranks high as to uniform size and extra fine quality.

The nominations of I. M. Boucher, of Applegate, and T. E. W. Smith of Talent, as candidates on the Socialist ticket for Jackson county representatives in the legislature, have been rejected by Secretary of State Olcott, owing to distastefulness in forwarding papers, they having been filed after September 12.

Sylvan Proost and Frank Jordan returned to Yreka the first of the week, both having secured contracts in that town. Proost took along three plumbers, his job being an extensive one involving a contract amounting to $5,000 or more.

The Ashland unit of the Farm Loan Association will hold a meeting in the city hall on Saturday afternoon, September 30, at 2:30 o'clock. J. F. Rocho represents the city proper and Frank P. Snyder the Bellview district in the proposed government loan plan.

The Boy's Band of Oakland, on their return home from a trip throughout northern territory, stopped off here the first of the week and Monday and Tuesday evenings gave a series of concerts, repeating the entertainments given earlier in the season. Music for a dance at the Hungalov concluded their engagements. The boys camped in Chautauqua park.

Pierre Provost left for the north on Monday. He will inspect the state fair at Salem and also call upon a brother residing at St. Paul, Ore. At Portland he will visit his daughters, Angeline, and Helen, who are trained nurses in the metropolis.

Rev. E. C. Richards, Methodist pastor at Klamath Falls, was in Ashland on Monday, accompanied by his wife, bound for the state conference at Lebanon. He has been stationed at the Falls for three years and his congregation has expressed a desire that he be retained in the same field, consequently a reappointment is expected. In the meantime, however, Mr. Richards prefers to return to Ashland, where he formerly resided, and contemplates locating on the J. W. Miller ranch out near the normal. Mr. Miller is his father-in-law.

Miss Bernita Mix of Sacramento, daughter of F. B. Mix, is visiting friends here in the way of an autumn vacation. The family formerly resided here.

Neil Shinn of Klamath Falls is home for a visit. He is now clerk in a store at the Falls.

Mrs. Ella Mills left early in the week for a trip throughout the Umpqua and Willamette valleys, visiting friends at Roseburg, Cottage Grove and Portland.

Elmer Patrick of Newport, has been in town this week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Patrick and renewing the acquaintance of many old time friends. He was formerly in business here with the firm of Patrick and Mitchell, leaving for the ocean resort town about eight years ago.

A. E. McFarland, expert carpenter, has joined construction forces at the Ashland Mine. The sawmill of itself will be quite a feature, in addition to other new improvements on the property. It is planned to erect most of the new buildings at the tunnel level on the east side of the hill, instead of the old site on the west side. Electric power will be used throughout, 150 horsepower already being available. The sawmill will be erected first in order that material may be gotten out to finish up the necessary buildings before winter.

Next Sunday, October 1, the Christian church will welcome the homecoming of Rev. W. L. Mellinger, who returns to Ashland and resumes the pastorate after an absence of several years.

J. B. Icenhower, of the second-hand store on North Main street, will move his place of residence this week from 148 Mehanke to the Hayes house at the corner of Nursery street and the Scenic Drive.

The engagement of Miss Angie Neil, daughter of Leander Neil, and Arthur King of Hill, Cal., has been announced. Also Miss Margaret Stenmet and Clarence Stickleby, both of Canadian, Texas. The Stenmet family formerly resided in Ashland, and Miss Margaret and her mother are visiting relatives here at present.

A number of Ashland club women attended the meeting of the Southern Oregon district federation at Rogue River on Tuesday. Visitors were entertained with a luncheon. Mrs. Nellie Briggs is first vice-president of the district federation and resides in this city. The Southern Oregon affiliation was the first among the district federations of the state to perfect an organization.

F. J. Shinn, secretary of the commercial club and H. O. Frohbach, representing the Springs Commission, were Jacksonville visitors on Tuesday, attending to business matters.

WHY IT SUCCEEDS

Because It's For One Thing Only, and Medford People Appreciate This.

Nothing can be good for everything. Doing one thing well brings success.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for one thing only. For weak or disordered kidneys.

Here is Medford evidence to prove their worth.

J. H. Atwell, painter and paperhanger, 129 W. Eleventh street, Medford, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are all that is claimed of them to be and I never hesitate to recommend anything I believe will be of benefit to others. I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills on different occasions when I have had any trouble with my back or kidneys and they have always done the work. A few doses now and then keeps my kidneys in good working order."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Atwell had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.
