"Star," the leading light among the Sells-Floto trick ponies, wandered away from his companions during the march from the circus grounds to the train last night. After two hours of fruitless search, circus employees were forced to pull out and leave the little animal behind. He was found early this morning by Otto Jeldness and will be crated and shipped by express to Weed, where the circus is now playing. Only a small crowd attended the circus yesterday evening and those were greatly disappointed. The performance, which lasted only an hour, was dimly seen through a thick cloud of dust. The Willard performance was in the nature of a joke. The big champ handled himself as though before entering the ring he had alone put up all the tents and pushed the wagons to the grounds. But that supposition was plainly wrong as a glance at the huge circumference of his waistline would prove. Fort Hubbard returned Friday morning from Salem where he attended the state fair. EXTREME WEAKNESS AND SUFFERING Read How Mrs. Goodling got Relief and Strength. York, Pa.—"I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and found it to be all you say it is. I was so sick that I could not stand at my sink to wash dishes and I could not sit without a pillow under me. I had the doctor every few days but since I have taken the Compound I don't have to send for him. I have had three children and could not raise any of them, but since I have taken the Compound I have a bright baby boy. I advise every suffering woman to try it and get relief. It has done wonders for me."—Mrs. CATHARINE GOODLING, 138 E. King Street, York, Pa. When a medicine has been successful in bringing health to so many, no woman has a right to say without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me." There must be more than a hundred thousand women in this country who, like Mrs. Goodling, have proven what wonders Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound can do for weak and ailing women. Try it and see for yourself. If there are any complications you don't understand, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.
