

Society

The marriage of Mrs. O. Nichols and C. W. Ashpole was solemnized on Sunday morning at 7:30 at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ashpole, on Tripp street. Rev. Harry E. Tackler, of the Christian church performing the ceremony. The bride was married in her traveling suit. Mr. and Mrs. Ashpole left on the morning train for two weeks' visit in Portland. The groom is a member of the firm of Nichols & Ashpole and the bride a former resident of Eagle Point section, where she owns extensive property interests. After October 15, Mr. and Mrs. Ashpole will be at home to their friends at 191 Almond street.

Wednesday evening the Misses Ruby Palmer and Margaret Siemmental entertained at the home of the former in Ashland with a seven-course dinner. A color scheme of yellow and white was carried out, the table being decorated with ribbon and candles. After dinner three tables of cards were played. Mrs. Paulsen was honored with first prize and Miss Johnson took the hooby prize. The guests present were: Miss Hortense Winter, Miss Vivian Greer and Mrs. O. A. Paulsen of Ashland; Miss Claire Johnson of Medford; Wilfred Carr, O. A. Paulsen, Howard Barrett, Andrew McGee, Lynn Mowat and Harvey Lang.

Miss Faye Slinger and Victor Danielson entertained at a card party at the home of the former Saturday evening, September 23, in honor of Mr. Danielson's birthday. Those receiving prizes were: Miss Dora Smith, ladies' first prize, and H. G. Balcom, men's first prize. After the card party light refreshments were served, followed by a few games. Those present were: Misses Mary Phillips, Dora Smith, Esther Martin, Myrtle Farlow, Irene Franks, Faye and Mily Slinger, Rollie Rimabarger, Ivan Hookersmith, Lewis Jenkins, Cap Martin, Victor Danielson, Bennie Hull, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Balcom and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Slinger.

A very pleasant afternoon was spent at the ranch home of Mrs. H. L. Young, Brookfield, Wednesday, in the form of a thimble party. Luncheon was served by the hostess at an early hour, after which the ladies devoted their time to conversation and sewing. Those present were: Mrs. McNeary, Mrs. William Cannon, Mrs. Herman Myers, Sr., Mrs. Sarah Hessler, Mrs. McDonald, Miss Maggie McDonald, Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. Emogene Charley, Mrs. Manley Conley, Mrs. Charles Terrill.

Katherine Marie Jackson and William Page Huston were married in Wichita, Kan., October 5, and left for Kentucky, the home of the groom's parents, to spend their honeymoon, after which they will reside in Wichita. The bride is a niece of Mrs. S. S. Smith of this city and has visited here. Mr. Huston is traffic manager of the Wichita Commercial club. Both young people are prominent in Wichita social circles.

Thirty ladies attended the missionary meeting of the Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. E. Watt on East Jackson street. Mrs. Kribbs had charge of the devotional, after which Mrs. A. J. Hogg gave a very interesting talk on "Our Young People." Mrs. Watt, Mrs. C. B. Harmon and Mrs. J. F. Mandy were hostesses.

Sunday, October 8, is rally day at the First Baptist Sunday school and all members of the Golden Link Bible class are requested to make a special effort to be present, as it is earnestly desired to have 100 per cent attendance of the class on Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Monaghan, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Daniels for the past month, left Friday in their car for their home at Del Rosa, Cal., going by way of Crescent City.

Miss June Hinman and Mrs. H. Keine left Sunday for Los Angeles, where Miss Hinman will study music and Mrs. Keine will go to Davenport, Ia., where she will visit relatives.

Hugo Lay of Klamath Falls is visiting friends in Medford and will remain for the Elks' carnival.

Miss Myra McBride of Portland is the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. C. Ferguson.

The Wednesday Study club was entertained on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. F. K. Deuel on South Oakdale. It was the first meeting of the year and was largely attended. Year books for the year 1916-17 were distributed, Russia being the subject studied by the club this year. Mrs. Ira L. Dodge gave a very interesting and instructive talk on her observations, while traveling in Russia. Miss Geraldine Theiss, accompanied by Mrs. Guy Childers, was heard to advantage in two brilliant numbers. Mrs. C. C. McCurdy very pleasingly rendered two piano selections. During the afternoon a straw vote for United States president was taken, in which there were seven votes cast for Wilson, one undecided and twelve for Hughes.

The Trinity Guild of Ashland entertained St. Mark's Guild of Medford Thursday afternoon from 2 until 5. Progressive five hundred was played, after which a two-course luncheon was served. Those present from Medford were: Mrs. R. W. Pollnitz, Mrs. E. A. Welch, Mrs. Ed Trowbridge, Mrs. William Badger, Mrs. Glenn Fabrick, Mrs. J. C. Mann, Mrs. Ed Souttor, Mrs. R. E. Swan, Mrs. D. Russell, Mrs. C. B. Watkins, Mrs. H. D. Corlies, Mrs. C. E. Strang, Mrs. Roger S. Bennett, Miss Lou Rundlett, Mrs. S. McKee, Mrs. R. D. Hoke, Mrs. R. Rowland, Mrs. Lydia Andrews, Mrs. R. W. Clancy and Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Hamilton.

The Catholic church was the scene of a pretty wedding Tuesday morning, when Rev. Father Powers united in marriage Mrs. Etta Norris and William Murphy. Mrs. Harvey E. Murphy was matron of honor and Harvey E. Murphy was best man. The groom is a well-known and popular realty broker and the bride has been employed at the Home Telephone company. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy left on the morning train for a visit in Portland and Seattle, after which they will be at home in Medford.

Miss Margaret Souttor entertained the High Jinks club Monday evening at her home on Orange street. A business meeting was held during the evening, at which time plans for the winter were discussed. At the close of the evening refreshments were served by the hostess. The guests were: Misses Joan Anderson, Louise Williamson, Sadie Lacy, Gladys Peart, Laura Page, Mildred Antle and Frances Kenny.

Mrs. Fred Reimecke, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Purcher of this city, for the past month, left Wednesday for her home in Pittsburg. Mrs. Reimecke will visit relatives at Santa Barbara en route.

Mrs. Charles Brown entertained on Friday afternoon with a bridge tea complementing Mrs. C. W. Abernombie, who leaves soon for Los Angeles, where she will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Knowles and children of Bingham Junction, Utah, arrived here Thursday and are visiting relatives.

Mrs. C. M. Kidd was hostess to the Le Samedi club this afternoon.

At a recent meeting of the W. C. T. U. the following county officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. M. M. Edmonds, Gold Hill; vice-president, Mrs. Leavette, Ashland; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Rosa Ponting, Medford; recording secretary, Mrs. E. S. Hathaway, Ashland; treasurer, Mrs. Nettie Grover, Eagle Point. Superintendents of departments: Anti-narcotics, Mrs. F. Wood, Medford; Christian citizenship, Mrs. Ella Broomfield, Medford; official papers, Mrs. Wilson, Ashland; evangelism, Mrs. Nichols, Eagle Point; mothers' meetings, Mrs. Lydia Howell, Medford; flower mission, Mrs. E. Flory, Eagle Point; medal contests, Mrs. J. W. McDonald, Medford; humane education, Mrs. J. De Pena, Ashland; peace, Mrs. Vogeli, Talent; purity and rescue, Mrs. Graham, Rogue River; Sabbath observance, Mrs. Ashcraft, Ashland; temperance, Mrs. Barbee, Ashland; social and red-letter days, Mrs. Riley D. Henson, Medford; purity in art and literature, Mrs. Alice Jillson, Ashland; health and heredity, Mrs. Ella Erskine, Prospect.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First M. E. church met with Mrs. W. H. Barnum, North Front street, Friday afternoon. After a brief business session the study of "The World's Missionaries and the World's Peace," under the able leadership of Mrs. W. M. Van Seoyoe, was enjoyed. This lesson was very interesting and instructive. Special papers were prepared as follows: "Constantine," Mrs. F. C. Edmonds; "Rise of the Papacy," Mrs. Wicks; "Works of Noted Reformers," Mrs. C. O. Power; "Erasmus and the Oxford Reformers," Miss May Phipps. At the close of this study Mrs. Barnum served dainty refreshments, assisted by Mrs. Earl Conklin and Mrs. George Barnum. Thirty-five ladies were present.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Palmer and Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Rollins and son, Robert, returned Wednesday evening from Lebanon, Or., where Rev. Rollins and Mr. and Mrs. Palmer attended the Methodist conference held at that place. Mrs. Rollins and Robert visited friends at Corvallis, their former home.

The W. H. M. S. of the M. E. church South met in a brief business session Wednesday evening at the church. Following the business session, a short literary program was enjoyed, after which Mrs. H. M. Branham served dainty refreshments.

Mrs. D. T. Lawton left Wednesday morning for Glendale, where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. D. A. Forbes. Her granddaughter, who has been visiting here for the past five weeks, returned with her.

The Octette club will be entertained Monday afternoon by Mrs. H. G. Stockman at her home on Dakota avenue.

Miss Lin Rundlett and Mrs. C. B. Watkins are visiting friends in Ashland.

Mrs. William Barrett of Newberg is the guest of her brother, John Ashpole.

The Medford Choral society, including a membership of over eighty singers, met in social session last Tuesday evening at St. Mark's hall following the regular weekly rehearsal. A light supper was served and a very pleasant hour spent in "getting acquainted." The society, under the directorship of George Andrews, is preparing to give a concert about Thanksgiving, a very welcome announcement to all music lovers of the valley. All future rehearsals will be held in St. Mark's building, which has become a musical headquarters since the removal of the Andrews studios, including Mr. Andrews, Mr. James and Miss Butler from the Sparta building to this more convenient location.

Miss Kentner entertained informally at dinner Wednesday evening for the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Janney, Miss Felger, Miss Hopper, Dr. Deane and Fred Hoppin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Neidermeyer and son, Paul, who have been visiting at the home of L. Neidermeyer for the past month, left Tuesday for their home in Talmage, Neb.

The West Side Dancing club gave a dance Wednesday evening in the small hall of the Natatorium. A large number were in attendance and good music was furnished.

Mr. and Mrs. Honore Palmer and two sons left Sunday for the east, going by way of San Francisco, where they will be joined by Mrs. Potter Palmer.

Members of the St. Mark's Guild of the Episcopal church were delightfully entertained by the St. Mark's Guild of Ashland Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Potter of Santa Paula, who are visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Gould at Fairview orchard, will return to their home next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Pelouze motored in from Eagle Point Thursday to attend "The World of Pleasure."

John Campbell, who has been visiting Medford for the past week, left Thursday for his home in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Brown of Eagle Point spent Thursday evening in Medford attending the Elks carnival.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett M. Palmer left Wednesday morning for a motor trip to Portland and Seattle.

Mrs. Edwin Janney entertained the Girls' club at her home on West Main street Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Manning spent the past week with friends on Evans creek.

Mrs. George Carpenter entertained a party of friends with a theater party for "World of Pleasure" Thursday evening.

WOMEN'S CLUB NOTES

At the Holland hotel Wednesday evening, Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar addressed a number of women representing the Greater Medford club, Parent and Teachers' associations and several nurses in the interest of the Anti-Tuberculosis State society of special legislation for the care and inspection of victims of this dread disease and the benefits derived from the services of a visiting nurse.

Twenty-one new members have joined the Greater Medford club since the opening of the year's work. Owing to the many other activities the club will not have the municipal Halloween celebration this year.

Mrs. Kitty Lunge, music chairman of the club, is in consultation with Miss Eileen French, the music director of schools, in regard to music for the municipal Christmas tree.

Our country arbor day will be generally observed throughout the valley. The schools have taken it up and plans are being made for the usual arbor day ceremonies.

A daisant will be given by the Greater Medford club near Thanksgiving time, under the direction of Mrs. Conroy.

The club will be represented at the state federation meeting to be held at Seaside on October 9, 10 and 11 by Mrs. T. G. Heine, Mrs. E. B. Hanley and Mrs. C. L. Schieffelin.

The Red Cross department of the Greater Medford club will exhibit their finished products at the St. Mark's hall next Tuesday. The exhibit will continue all day and tea will be served from 2 o'clock until 5. The public is cordially invited to attend.

The first of a series of monthly meetings of the Drama league will be held Monday evening. This will be a social meeting and members are asked to bring friends interested in the work. At this time "Kindling," by Charles Kenyon, will be read by the following persons: Mrs. Frank Preston, Mrs. L. Hovious, Miss Susan Deuel, Mrs. Frank Owens, George Roberts, Mr. Kramer, Gerald Sooy-Smith, C. F. Carpenter and Melde Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Orr came down from Rogue River Friday to attend the lecture delivered by Paul Seelye and to talk over business matters. Mr. Orr has charge of a large ranch owned by Mr. Seelye on Evans creek.

Eddie Fry is a business visitor in the city from Lake Creek.

CHAMBERLAIN AT VINING THEATER ASHLAND, MONDAY

ASHLAND, Oct. 7.—United States Senator George E. Chamberlain will speak in the Vining theater in Ashland Monday evening, October 9, at 8 o'clock. He will make a direct appeal in behalf of the policies of President Wilson. This will be Senator Chamberlain's initial speech in Oregon. He will appear at Medford on Tuesday evening, October 10, and from there visit the towns throughout western Oregon in rotation.

Local democrats are perfecting arrangements to make the senator's visit here a notable one in party annals and anticipate a record-breaking attendance. Everybody is invited. Come early in order that there may be no interruption as to a prompt beginning of the speech.

Eddie Fry is a business visitor in the city from Lake Creek.

Cottolene

"The Natural Shortening"

One-Egg Muffins or Quick Saily Lunn

One and one-half tablespoons melted Cottolene; one tablespoon sugar; one and one-half to one and three-quarters cup of milk; one egg; three cups sifted flour; three teaspoons baking powder; one scant teaspoon salt. Use more or less milk according to quality of flour. Mix baking powder and flour together; add butter, egg, sugar and milk.

Write us for a free copy of our red, cook book "HOME HELPS." Address our general offices at Chicago.

Light, tasty muffins

Next time you make muffins, try the Cottolene recipe printed at the left. Cottolene makes muffins that are light and tempting, with just the right, crispy crust, and the good flavor that makes you want more.

Food prepared with Cottolene is wholesome and easily digested. Whether you use it for shortening or frying, Cottolene will always produce the most pleasing results.

We put it up in pails of different sizes, to suit your convenience. Order a regular supply from your grocer.

THE N. C. FAIRBANK COMPANY

"Cottolene makes good cooking better"

Sturdiness

A big, husky carcass built up with extra plies of stoutest fabric—
An ample cushion of great resiliency that absorbs the road shocks—
A tough, road-gripping tread of durability way beyond the ordinary—
Easy riding, big mileage and a low price—

That sums up the Savage Tire. And the Savage Grafite Tube is its best running mate.

SAVAGE TIRES

FACTORY DISTRIBUTORS:

C. E. GATES

Medford

Let Us Show You How You Can Make Your Farm Work Easy and Save Money and Labor

An Electric Motor will work harder and more steadily and give you less trouble than any horse or engine you can buy. We can furnish you, for less than one-third the cost of a good horse, a Motor which will last a lifetime and give you not a moment's trouble. You won't have to feed it, and it costs nothing at all when it isn't working. It will do the work of six men at less cost for current than the wages of one. It will run day and night and turn out eight times the work of a horse, and it is more reliable than old Dobbin, too—it doesn't get tired, stop to eat, and never gets sick.

Are you taking advantage of our service?

It costs nothing to investigate.

California-Oregon Power Company

216 West Main Street
Phone 168 MEDFORD, OREGON