GOLD HILL NUGGETS

Tuesday evening a body of local citizens gathered at the opera house for the organization of a Hughes' alliance. A petition had been circulated for a charter, with almost sixty charter members. As a calling to order, W. W. Truax explained the reasons for such an organization, and the policy it would carry out. The following temporary officers were then elected: Chairman, Mrs. W. W. Truax; vice-chairman, Mrs. W. H. Stickel; secretary, Mrs. George Iverson; treasurer, Mrs. Lucy Mee; committee on finance, Mrs. P. Langdell, Mrs. Lucy Mee, Mrs. A. E. Kellogg; committee on programs, Mrs. R. C. Kelsey, with power to appoint two assistants. Judge C. B. Watson then gave a short talk on where Wilson had failed. Mrs. Stickel offered the free use of the opera house. A unanimous vote of thanks was then tendered her. It was then moved and carried to adjourn until the charter arrives.

Marion Lance was a visitor from Medford Thursday.

Charles Young and wife were in town the first of the week from Medford.

W. H. Edmunds returned on Monday from a four weeks' stay at the government camp at Crater lake. He was compelled to leave on account of his health.

Mrs. R. C. Kelsey visited with Grants Pass friends Thursday, returning that evening.

Several frosty nights have changed conditions. One night the temperature was down to 26 degrees. Quite a nip.

On Wednesday night Phillip Deschener smoke in the M. E. church on the brewers' beer amendment and "Absolute Prohibition." His talk was very convincing, showing many of the "jokers" in the brewers' amendment. Everyone went away satisfied that if we want a clean Oregon we must vote 315xNo and 316xYes. Many present are now consulting the free booklets sent out by the state describing these measures.

Mrs. Rose Gay was a passenger to Portland Sunday, where she will remain for some time.

Charlie Reed and family of Tolo were Sunday visitors in Gold Hill at the H. D. Reed home.

Watt Wolf, a resident of Gold Hill about fifteen years ago, was in town Sunday talking over old times with Bill Hayes, Nort Eddings and others. He has lately been in California.

RELIEVES HEADACHES WITHOUT DOSING

By Applying Sloan's Liniment to Forehead You Can Stop the Severe Pains

Many headaches are of a neuralgic origin. The symptoms of such headaches are intense and lingering pains in the brow, temples or back of the head.

There is one certain relief that has been known and recommended for years back, Sloan's Liniment. One application and the dull pain is practically gone. It is easily applied without rubbing. Rubbing is unnecessary, as Sloan's Liniment quickly penetrates to the seat of trouble.

Aching muscles, rheumatism, bruises, lumbago, chilblains, sprains and stiff neck can also be most effectively treated with Sloan's Liniment. Cleaner than mussy plasters or ointments; it does not stain the skin or clog the pores.

At all drug stores, 25c, 50c, $1.00.

WHY?

NOW TIME TO TRADE.

I have a 160-acre stock ranch, good location; 100 acres in grain, some alfalfa. This place recently sold for $12,000; no incumbrance. Will trade for good orchard, preferpears, or would take city property. Would trade even or assume some incumbrance on orchard proposition.
