CHILD LABOR LAW EXPLAINED

hours a day in a cotton mill "without deleterious effect," and paraded an imposing array of business men who were sure they would be ruined if they were deprived of the services of their little serfs.

President Intervenes. But the calendars were crowded with important constructive legislation and members of congress were anxious to get away to their districts. To talk the bill to death seemed easy. The mere threat of a filibuster might be sufficient. The lobbyists rejoiced.

Provisions of Bill. The bill provides that children shall not be employed in mines or quarries before they are sixteen years old, or in mills, workshops, canneries, etc., before they are fourteen years old, and that children between fourteen and sixteen years shall not be employed in mills, workshops, canneries, etc., for more than eight hours a day or six days a week or at night.

apprehensive concerning what the supreme court will do when this legislation comes before that tribunal.

ITALIANS CLAIM GREAT VICTORY

ROME, Oct. 11.—Italian troops, fighting in the Carso region southeast of Gorizia, have resumed their march towards Trieste, capturing several lines of Austrian trenches and more than 5,000 prisoners, says the official statement issued by the war office today. In addition they have occupied strongly defended heights between the Vipava river and Hill 208, taking quantities of arms and munitions.

ARMED POLICE GUARD OIL PLANTS

BAYONNE, N. J., Oct. 11.—Virtually all the police of this city are on guard about the plants of the Standard Oil company, the Tidewater Oil company, Bergen Point Chemical works and Vacuum Oil company at Constable Hook, where four policemen and nine rioters were wounded yesterday in a fight between the police and 1000 strikers.

AN XMAS PRESENT WORTH HAVING

A $3000 Christmas present in the interesting prize that a well-known manufacturer is offering for one single word. The makers of the "Eveready" Flashlights are looking for a new name to take the place of the word "Flashlight," which they say, has outlived its usefulness.

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

The Village was crowded on Monday evening to listen to Senator Chamberlain review certain phases of the Wilson administration, all of the legislation being declared constructive enactment. He spoke for two hours in his characteristic manner and was heartily applauded.

on a trip over the parks and scenic drives around town, previous to leaving for Medford.

District Superintendent Van Fossen leaves this week for an official visit to Methodist pastorates in Klamath and Lake counties. He will be gone about a month.

Mrs. Juliette Francis, field secretary of the Oregon prohibition state committee, has chosen Ashland as a center of activities in southern Oregon for a portion of the campaign. She will also visit adjacent localities.

The Plaza in places resembled a country fair last Tuesday. It developed that exhibits from the state fair were being unpacked preliminary to further display at the commercial club's elegant new quarters in city hall. The prize exhibits will also further supplement displays at the exhibit building at the depot.

Dr. Clarence True Wilson and family of Portland, who passed through here recently on a motor trip covering 3000 miles in Oregon and California, gave interesting particulars concerning the tour. The car was a Rco 6, driven alternately by Mrs. Wilson and her daughter Virginia.

Local Episcopaleans view with pleasure the success of the parishioners of St. Mark's, Medford, in completing their new church edifice, which reports indicate will be ready for dedication in December.

The 1917 reunion of the Pioneer association of Jackson county will be held in Ashland. George W. Dunn is president and Mrs. G. M. Grainger, secretary, both of Ashland.

Hillah Temple, Mystic Shrine, is contemplating holding a ceremonial here this fall, probably in November. If arrangements pan out O. K. The 18th has been suggested as the date, subject to change as per decision of a special committee, having the matter in charge. The jurisdiction of the local temple includes southern and western Oregon and northern California.

The arrival of peculiar shaped globes for the Butler-Peruzzi fountain in Lithia park, perfecting its lighting system, virtually completes the installation of this work of art amid ideal surroundings.

The Ford car of W. D. Hodgson was stolen from in front of his premises the first of the week. It appears to have been a case of wanton mischief, inasmuch as the machine was evidently run amuck over the Pacific highway to the vicinity of Talent, then ditched and abandoned, the damage being extensive. Mr. Hodgson lives on Laurel street in the former Burdick property.

Two more candidates have announced themselves for the city recordership. They are H. C. Galey and R. P. Campbell. The former is accountant in the Tidings office and the latter is in the realty business, also secretary of the Chautauqua association. The name of F. J. Shinn, commercial club secretary, is also mentioned for recorder.

The Pythian Sisters, ignoring superstitions, darts and dates, will give a social in Odd Fellows hall, Friday evening, Oct. 13. Dancing, cards and refreshments will be the attractions. Sixty-one county will vote on an issue of $60,000 bonds for a new county high school at Yreka, to replace the one lately destroyed by fire. Dunsuir wants to spend $20,000 on school equipment and Red Bluff $15,000 for playgrounds.

Rev. W. J. Douglass, pastor of the Methodist church, has gone to Portland on a fortnight's vacation. Mrs. Douglass accompanied him.

Ralph Watson, connected with the Portland Journal, accompanied Senator Chamberlain here as staff correspondent. On Tuesday the visitors, accompanied by local parties, were taken

DON'T GIVE UP

Discouraged Citizens Will Find Comfort in the Experience of a Medford Man. Experience is the modern instructor. Profit by the experience of others. It may save your life.

The testimony of Medford people will bring renewed encouragement. Here is a case in point: D. R. Andrus, 519 S. Fir street, Medford, says: "I was bothered considerably by my kidneys and bladder. I had trouble in retaining the kidney secretions and I also had a dull ache across my kidneys. I found good relief from Doan's Kidney Pills. My kidneys acted more regularly and I didn't have that trouble in my back. This has convinced me that Doan's Kidney Pills are a medicine of merit and are worth recommending to others."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Andrus had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

HAVE COLOR IN YOUR CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for cod-liver-oil—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with cod-liver-oil. You will know them by their olive color.

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get at the cause. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like cod-liver-oil—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results.

WHY?

NOW TIME TO TRADE. I have a 160-acre stock ranch; good location; 100 acres in grain, some alfalfa. This place recently sold for $12,000; no incumbrance. Will trade for good orchard, prefer pears, or would take city property. Would trade even or assume some incumbrance on orchard proposition.
