ASHLAND AND VICINITY

A. E. Clark, Portland attorney, made an address from the republican viewpoint at the Lyric theatre, Wednesday evening. Quite a delegation from Medford was present, including Fred Mears, who made a brief preliminary talk, and George Andrews, who sang "Barbara Freitchie." C. B. Lamkin presided. Mr. Clark reviewed at length the excellent and steadfast record of Mr. Hughes, as attorney, governor, supreme judge and presidential candidate, extending his remarks to cover a wide range of campaign activities as maintained by the supporters of Mr. Hughes in connection with which facts and figures were readily and abundantly forthcoming. Mrs. Louise Peruzzi, president of the local Hughes alliance, outlined the itinerary of the so-called "Golden Special," the women visitors from the east to arrive here on Sunday, October 15, at 4:15 p. m., and remain a half hour or more.

who stopped off here to inspect improvements already under way in local railroad yards and plan new ones. Mrs. Kilgore and family of Bonanza, will on November 1, occupy the premises at 113 Bush street, property owned by J. L. Youngker of Long Beach, Cal. Prohibition rally at the chautauqua auditorium tonight, October 13. Addresses by outside and local speakers, and splendid music, including two original topical songs. The Ashland Farm Loan Association will hold its final meeting as far as organization is concerned, at the city hall on Saturday afternoon of this week. There will be a republican rally at Nell Creek schoolhouse on Saturday evening. Fred Mears and W. H. Gore, of Medford, will speak, and singers from that city will furnish music also. Major G. W. Ingalls of Reno, Nev., is revisiting Ashland after an absence of 18 years. He was formerly interested in various mining enterprises hereabouts. He returns here to try the effect of climatic conditions at a lower altitude and to partake of lithia waters, and if results are favorable he will remain indefinitely. An enthusiastic booster along legitimate channels, he is greatly interested in the development of Ashland, and declares the commercial club's new headquarters in this city to be the nearest example of club progress which he has met with in his travels. For some time past he has been probation officer at Reno, and by virtue of object lessons, encountered regarding the effects of the liquor traffic in that city, trusts that Nevada will ultimately assume a dry status like unto Oregon. He retains considerable property interests both at Reno and Sparks. Charles Walker of Cottage Grove, has moved here to reside, his family accompanying him. He is a timberman connected with the handling of big contracts in that industry, and is an old-time friend of E. F. Smith, who formerly lived in that town. The Ashland Hotel property is advertised to be sold at sheriff's sale on Saturday of this week at Jacksonsville, through foreclosure proceedings. The amount involved, including principal, interest and costs is over $6,000. Directors of the Ashland Ice and Cold Storage Company met in this city on Tuesday and elected G. S. Butler president; T. H. Simpson, vice-president; H. L. Whitte, secretary; J. G. Hurt, treasurer, and manager. W. H. McNair was elected as a member of the board of directors. The corporation reports a successful volume of business during the past year. It operates extensive plants at both Ashland and Medford. Mrs. B. S. Castleman and daughter, Helle, returned to their home at Greensboro, Alabama this week, after a residence here of 18 months. Mrs. Castleman is the mother of Mrs. F. E. Whittle of this city. They will visit relatives in the Central West on the way south. Leander Neil returned home from San Francisco on Wednesday, where he went to attend the marriage of his daughter, Angeline, and A. C. Ging of Hill. The newlyweds extended the honeymoon trip to San Diego, visiting the exposition. W. H. Evans, former resident of Ashland and now living at Alger, O., has been here this week on a business mission, he having property interests on Harrison street. He reports 32,000 acres near his home town, which is located in Hardin county, devoted to onion culture, and the yield being from 300 to 1,000 bushels per acre, and the prevailing price $1.35 per bushel. The crop is shipped all over the country. Mrs. S. A. McTavary, wife of the principal of East school, is substitute teacher of German and English departments of the high school, pending the filling of the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Charlotte Kennard. J. M. Beaver has sold his residence and four lots on Avery street to John Baron, of Mechanic street, taking in exchange a ranch of 160 acres of wheat land, well improved, located near Greeley, Colorado. In registering at the Imperial Hotel, Portland, early in the week the Oregonian states that "E. D. Briggs blushing admits that he served in the lower house of the Oregon legislature in the session of 1901. He is a lawyer with a large practice and comes here at this time in search of rest, leaving for the nonce what he says is the finest and most progressive city in Oregon." The Fourth Street Mission has resumed its schedule of meetings for the fall and winter months meeting each evening, except Monday at 7:30 p. m. William Norris spoke Tuesday; Rev. W. L. Mellinger will speak Friday; Miss Jessie Hathaway, Saturday; J. A. Lemery Sunday. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Ashland high is meeting Grants Pass high on the football field in the latter town today, October 13. Harry Pinkston of Oakland, commissioner for Douglas county, is here making arrangements for his family to winter in Ashland on account of mineral water privileges, he having heretofore tested their merits to advantage. Earl McNutt of Eugene, has been here the past week buying horses for Kansas City dealers, and is still purchasing the animals in various sections throughout the valley. Salway peaches, the latest variety to be marketed, are now going forward to both northern and southern markets. Albert Johnson, of Seven Oaks orchard, is shipping to Marshfield, and J. H. Morse to San Francisco. The specimens are extra fine and packing methods are model, as to care and neatness in handling the fruit. Dr. Boslough, Southern Pacific surgeon, and Agent Kramer have returned with their party from a hunting trip to the Klamath lakes, ducks being the objective game. Questioned as to success, they reported that they secured "all they could use." They made the trip in the doctor's big Dodge car over the Green Springs mountain route. Frank J. Lane, S. P. passenger brakeman, has resumed his run out of Ashland, after an enforced vacation at the company's general hospital at San Francisco, due to illness. Engineer E. H. Bush of the S. P. locomotive force, left for Portland on Wednesday evening, accompanied by his wife and children. The Auxiliary club's harvest home entertainment, at the Nat on Friday evening, October 27, is to be no formal ball, but an old fashioned dance, for which costumes are already being made, patterned after models of the earlier days. Elmer Smith has so far recovered from serious illness as to be able to be removed from the hospital to the family home on Oak street. The Ashland colony at Petaluma, Cal., has been represented here of late by Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hellman, visiting relatives. Joe Kinney was a previous visitor. Job and Bert Tozer are also there. All the foregoing are in the chicken business. Excursionist Sanderson is also located in that California town and is engaged in the automobile selling business. Called to the Central West by the illness of a near relative, Mrs. J. F. Patty left recently for Manchester, Iowa. EAGLE POINT EAGLETS By A. C. Howlett Miss Dewey Howe and Miss Ruby Ash, the two young ladies reported in by list as being here Saturday for dinner, instead of going to their home, Trail, went to Medford and spent the afternoon and evening, returning to the Sunnyside between ten and eleven p. m., took a room and after dinner Sunday were taken to their home by our accommodating mail carrier, Henry Trusty. They thought that they would have to join the crowd that went from here to see the Elks' carnival in Medford. Speaking about the crowd who went from here, I heard Mrs. H. say that when she looked around at the Nat, that she thought that there would be no one left to attend the movie and dance here and she was about right, for there was so few that the management gave a free dance and had the movie show Sunday night, and I understand that there was a good crowd in attendance. Sunday we had another crowd here for dinner and supper. Among those here for dinner were: P. J. Neff and wife, Mrs. H. A. Harman, Mrs. G. Fields, Miss Elizabeth Richards, and Mrs. A. H. Wissing of Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Emil Pell, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Bush, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Butler, Mrs. M. A. Barrow (Grand Ma) and Mrs. J. Rose of Ashland, beside Mr. and Mrs. J. V. McIntyre, our bank cashier. Quite a number whose names I failed to secure; there were all told forty-one beside the family who took dinner. Among them was John Allen, Fred Charvart, of Derby; Earl Zimmerman and Benj. Edmondson, of Butte Falls and Frank Johnson, who lives on the road one mile this side of the Free Ferry. The five last named came out with a band of beef cattle to take to Medford and later in the day were joined by Owen Conover, also on the Free Ferry road. All six spent the night on the Sunnyside and the next morning by six o'clock, Mrs. H. had them seated at the breakfast table and they were soon on the road with as fine a bunch of beef cattle as any one could wish. As an item of news Frank Johnson told me that he and his son, Charles, had just finished building a large frame barn on his place, (the old Giffert place), north of Butte Falls. Wallace Cushman, and wife, of Trail, started out from Medford with Marshall Minter Monday morning in time to catch the Eagle Point Perist auto stage, but they had a punctured tire and the result was they reached the Sunnyside just too late for the stage, and then Marshall had to go to Derby to bring Mrs. G. White and her daughter, Mrs. Lola M. McIntyre out and take them to Medford; come back and take Mr. and Mrs.

Cushman up on Trail. They all met at the Sunnyside and took dinner and every thing passed off pleasantly and after Marshall came back from Trail he had to go to Medford and bring Mrs. White and Mrs. McIntyre out and take them home to Derby. Now talk about the trails and tribulations of a jitney driver. I should have stated in connection with the Saturday's proceedings that Mr. Ed Conley, our new merchant, was among the crowd that went to Medford Saturday evening and when he went to where he left his "Ford," found that some one had borrowed it and failed to return it, but later in the night he found it two or three blocks from where he had left it. It was unharmed, some one simply wanted to take a little ride and borrowed it for the occasion. Mr. Petty who has been farming the place known as Widow Jack place, has rented and moved into the Thomas Riley, Jr., place and intends to farm it the coming year. He was here for dinner Sunday. Ray Harnish who is living on the Emel Peal place on Antelope, came out Saturday and this Monday morning his wife gave me a subscription for the Weekly Mail-Tribune. She said that they would like to take the Daily Mail-Tribune, but that they could not get their mail often than once a week and that the news would be stale by that time, so they would take it with the news in a condensed form. Wm. Nickel and another man of Lake Creek, were here for dinner today. They are hauling cordwood here, this time for our Postmaster and telephone manager, W. C. Clements. He has filled his contract for furnishing the school with wood. We are expecting a big crowd here next Thursday evening to hear the joint discussion between P. J. Neff and E. E. Kelly on the one side and the strongest men the G. O. P. can find in the county to put against them. They will speak in the opera house at 8 o'clock p. m. The Hughes folk, for there are a few of each sex who seem to have a little hope of Hughes carrying Oregon, but they are trembling in their boots, but I was told this morning by a prominent politician that a large majority of the republicans here and around here are supporting Woodrow Wilson. So mite it be! SAMS VALLEY School closed Tuesday for the remainder of the week, owing to the county institute at Grants Pass. Ed Gore of Wortman and Gore was through our precinct this week looking for hogs, sheep or cattle. Most of our stock is not yet in condition for marketing owing to the late harvesting. Peter Van Hardenburg will hold an auction sale Thursday of his farm and household belongings preparatory to leaving with his family for Idaho to look for a location. J. L. Nealon was transacting business here Tuesday. J. R. Cook will soon add another car to our precinct, having ordered one of the ever popular Fords. Sam McClendon of Gold Hill called on friends here Tuesday. W. C. Kenney and wife motored to Central Point Wednesday. The orchardists have commenced apple picking with full crew. It is expected our precinct will market some very fine apples. Thomas Strathorn and Chas. Pipes were motoring through different parts of California last week. W. C. Kenney is loading a car of hay for Medford market. Mrs. C. W. Sage and baby of Table Rock, visited with her sister, Mrs. O. T. Wilson Monday. Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Polton, Richard Strauss and Lynn Smith, of Gold Hill, took a pleasure trip by auto to Fort Klamath, going by way of Crater Lake and taking in all the natural wonders along the way. This was Mr. Strauss' first visit to the lake and he considered it one of the trips of his life. EDEN PRECINCT Chas. Terrell of Brownsboro was visiting his mother, Mrs. Lucy Terrell, of Talent, Monday. Mrs. Jane Clemens of Medford, was visiting Mrs. C. Corey and Mrs. Noah Chandler, of North Talent, Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Garrett, of Colter Butte was visiting Mrs. Garrett's brother, Joe Rader and wife, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rader, accompanied by Mrs. Effie Taylor and Mrs. C. Corey, went over to the Roundup at Crater last Friday. They found a very lively little city, and the trip in

Mr. Rader's big car was a grand one, over such a lovely scenic country. Colver Furry had the misfortune to have his saddle mare badly cut on a barb-wire Tuesday evening. Dr. Hart, W. J. Wells, J. B. Coleman, F. B. Oatman, C. Carey, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Chandler, all of Talent, were in Medford Saturday. Hally Anderson, John Grafes, W. E. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Casler, of East Eaden, were trading in Medford Saturday. Talent has built a loading chute and put in scales to weigh, and are loading three cars of sugar beets this Tuesday to go to the Grants Pass factory. The railroad company has built a feed-yard and loading chute for loading cattle at Talent, where stockmen can load their cattle for shipment. Mrs. A. M. Becroft and daughter, Miss Alice, Mrs. H. F. Pratt and daughter, Miss Katy, Mrs. Colver Furry of Phoenix, were trading in Medford Saturday. The Talent cannery company is installing more machinery in the big cannery at Talent, preparatory of a big run next season, and will commence to make their famous apple juice right away. Jeff Bell, of Talent, has just completed a table that is one of the finest pieces of cabinet work ever made in this part of the state. There are one hundred and eighty-six pieces of wood—no two alike—in the make-up of this table; each piece in a polished diamond block. The grain of the wood is brought out perfectly. The table is round and about three feet in diameter. This table should have been at the state fair. FOOTS CREEK ITEMS Miss Anne Carle celebrated her eighteenth birthday Oct. 8th. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lincee were callers in Gold Hill, Friday. Our school numbers 13. The new teachers are well liked. Miss Juanita Matwek called upon the Poyer family Friday. The Misses Anna Carle and Muriel Mathews called upon Miss Emma Guanyaw. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller, of Gold Hill, were callers at the Sport home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Martin and Mr. Boyer, of Rogue River, were business callers in Gold Hill Monday. George intends to build a new house on the Poe estate which he bought. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lance and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Mathews spent Saturday at Gold Hill. Ed Koester is hauling wood for Geo. Lance, while Fred Koester has a bull on his instep. Jump from Bed in Morning and Drink Hot Water Tells why everyone should drink hot water each morning before breakfast. Why is man and woman, half the time, feeling nervous, despondent, worried; some days headache, dull and unstrung; some days really incapacitated by illness. If we all would practice inside-bathing, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of thousands of half-sick, anaemic-looking souls with puffy, muddy complexions we should see crowds of happy, healthy, rosy-cheeked people everywhere. The reason is that the human system does not rid itself each day of all the waste which it accumulates under our present mode of living. For every ounce of food and drink taken into the system nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out, else it ferments and forms ptomaine-like poisons which are absorbed into the blood. Just as necessary as it is to clean the ashes from the furnace each day, before the fire will burn bright and hot, so we must each morning clear the inside organs of the previous day's accumulation of indigestible waste and body toxins. Men and women, whether sick or well, are advised to drink each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of washing out of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the indigestible material, waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. Millions of people who had their turn at constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, nervous days and sleepless nights have become real cranks about the morning inside-bath. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will not cost much at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate to anyone, its cleansing, sweetening and freshening effect upon the system.
