MARRIAGE IS A BUSINESS MATTER, SAYS GIRL WHO ADVERTISES FOR A HUSBAND

CLARA BISHOFF

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Oct. 13.—If a girl is too busy making a living for herself and mother to get acquainted with young men and have a regular courtship, is she justified in advertising for a husband?

Miss Clara Bishoff, 19, has advertised that she wants to marry a respectable young man with an income of $50 a week, who will take care of her mother as well as herself.

"In my case marriage is a business proposition," says Miss Bishoff. "I would like to have a romance like other girls have, but I have found I am unable, on the small salary I can earn, to provide for myself and mother as we should be provided for. "I come from a good family and have an honest name. I am a good cook and know how to keep house. "I will devote the rest of my life making happy the man who will give me a good home."

Miss Bishoff has received hundreds of applications. Most of the letters received at first were from men receiving less than $40 a week.

Miss Bishoff says when letters of applicants sound promising she will ask the writers to call for her personal inspection.

BIG PRICE FOR A SINGLE WORD

Three thousand dollars for a single word is the unusual offer made by a manufacturer who is looking for a new name. As everybody knows, there are many trade marks that are worth millions. One manufacturer refused $10,000,000 for his trade mark. The offer of $3,000 is being made by the American Ever Ready Works, the well known manufacturers of "Eveready" flashlights. The word they want to replace is "Flashlight." These portable electric lamps, so extensively used at night, have been on the market for twenty years. When they were first made they merely flashed instead of giving a continuous light. Hence the name "Flashlight" was created.

The manufacturers now say that the word is out of date, and they must have a new word which will better represent the service of the present Evereadys.

To give everyone, young and old, in this city an opportunity to try for this $3,000.00 prize, contest blanks will be distributed by well-known local dealers. The contest runs from October 7th to November 7th, and many local dealers will be ready to distribute them beginning October 7th.

The week of October 7th to 14th is known as the annual "Eveready Big Drive," during which leading dealers all over the country make striking and beautiful window displays.

The following business houses in this city are deeply interested in this contest, and will make window displays and distribute contest blanks beginning October 7th:

Paul's Electric Store.
Crater Lake Hardware Co.

One very interesting feature about this contest is that the prize money will be paid Christmas Day, thus giving somebody a $3000.00 Christmas present with which to carry out some cherished wish.

DRESS-UP WEEK HAS ARRIVED

Have you caught the spirit of "Dress-Up Week"? If not you had better get in line. Discard that old summer hat or that old suit or pair of shoes and furnishings and purchase a new outfit during the week of Oct. 14 to 21, which is national "Dress-Up Week". Clothes may not make a man, woman or child, but they make them look and feel better. So don't forget to buy your new fall togethers during the week and put them on for a few days and help celebrate the national week.

MOTHER! DON'T TAKE CHANCES IF CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

If Cross, Feverish, Sick, Bilious Clean Little Liver and Bowels.

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation, poison, sour bile and fermenting waste, will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." (Adv.)
