CURING A COLD.

By CHARLES B. DRISCOLL. I woke up one morning feeling dead; A cold, I found, was in my head. I cursed it once, I hollered twice, "You came not here on my advice!"

The kind, uneasy, helpful folk, The self-important, drooping blokes, And all the fish I met that day Had good advice to give away!

You can tell when a woman is interested in some man by the way she can pretend that she isn't.

NOT EASY TO SELL. WANTED—Cavassers to get church people on commission—K. Bradford—Adv. in the Cornell (N. Y.) Times.

You can generally tell false teeth from real ones because they are more perfect than natural teeth.

"Five shillings, please," said the dentist. "But," protested the patient, "your sign reads: 'Painless extracting free, and now you want 5 shillings.'"

DEVOTION. Alice—Why are you taking up botany? Kitty—Because my finance is interested in a plant of some kind and I want to be able to converse intelligently with him about his business.

THE COURSE OF LOVE. If you want to see a fellow close up like a clam, watch him get a letter from his best girl, with the withering information that, contrary to his requests, he will not be allowed to come Sunday.—The Winston-Salem (N. C.) Journal.

Card of Thanks. We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to the many friends and, especially to the members of Company 7, C. A. C. and to the fellow employees of the Mail Tribune for their sympathy and many acts of kindness in our hour of bereavement in the loss of our son, Arthur.

Announcement. Having recently bought the P. H. Hall high-power vacuum cleaner, I am prepared to clean your rugs, carpets, upholstering, mattresses and general house cleaning by the hour or by contract. All work guaranteed. I solicit a share of your patronage. HENRY CURRIER, 423 Beatty Street, Phone 326-X

HAWLEY CHALLENGED

MARK WEATHERFORD, who, unsolicited, received the nomination for congress of the democratic and prohibition parties, has challenged Mr. Hawley to a joint debate at Medford next week upon Wilson policies and the brewers' amendment.

Mr. Hawley cuts rather a pitiable figure in this campaign. He advocated the disposal of the O. & C. grant lands according to the railroad program, until tardily forced to support his colleagues and the Chamberlain bill.

Mr. Hawley voted for the eight-hour railroad law along with sixty-nine other republican members of congress. In this he voted rightly. But Mr. Hughes says that this was "cowardly" and Mr. Roosevelt says it was "infamous."

Mr. Hawley voted for the income tax law, rural credits law, child labor law and Oregon appropriations—all of which Mr. Hughes said must be "undone."

Mr. Hawley in his campaign speeches devotes himself to the threadbare protective tariff and the Mexican situation. Not even hard times exist as an excuse for tariff talk and a non-partisan tariff commission has been created to take the tariff out of politics and place it on a business basis.

What did Mr. Hawley ever advocate in congress, or what legislation did he ever secure, outside of a few pension and pork bills? The halls of congress never resound with his oratory—no national legislation bears his name.

A standpatter from a progressive district, now out of tune with his party, as well as his constituency, the first congressional district has nothing to gain by the re-election of Mr. Hawley, and much to lose.

HOW COULD IT SINK?

HAD Hughes been president on the day the Lusitania was sunk he would have done nothing about it, for the very simple reason that if he had been president on that day, the Lusitania would not have been sunk.

Why not? You ask? Because Hughes was president and a man appointed by him was secretary of state.

What is our authority for such a ridiculous statement, you ask? Candidate Hughes. Listen—

At Louisville, while the "hundred per cent candidate" was speaking a man in the audience asked this question: "I ask you, with all respect, Mr. Hughes, what you would have done had you been president when the Lusitania was sunk?"

"Sir, I would have had the state department, at the very beginning of the administration so equipped as to command the respect of the world. Second, I would have made it known in terms unequivocal and unmistakable, that we should not tolerate a continuance of friendly relations through the ordinary diplomatic channels if that action were taken.

And there you have it. Very simple. But Charles Evasion Hughes took good care not to answer the question asked.

Yet Mr. Hughes expects the people of the United States to turn over the government to him without knowing his attitude on this or any other of the important issues before the nation.

An answer for Mr. Hughes has been supplied by Mr. Roosevelt, who stated that he would have seized every interned German ship—which would have been equivalent to a declaration of war—and Mr. Hughes announced after the harmony dinner that he was in "complete accord" with Mr. Roosevelt.

In other words, had Hughes been president, we should have been at war with Germany as well as Mexico.

Wilson stands for peace—Hughes, through his sponsor, for war.

THE NEW YORK HERALD POLL

THE NEW YORK HERALD poll, taken preceding elections, which for many years has indicated accurately the result of the forthcoming elections, gives Wilson 312 electoral votes, with 266 necessary for election.

The New York Herald is supporting Mr. Hughes. The poll is taken through co-operation with papers also supporting Mr. Hughes. In California, the rabid reactionary Los Angeles Times and San Francisco Chronicle conduct it. In Portland the plutocratic Oregonian, and in Medford, the Sun.

If the polls in other cities are anything like the Sun's poll in Medford, where, with an overwhelming Wilson sentiment, the poll is made to show a majority for Hughes, and in spite of the forced showing, Wilson leads in the nation, there is not much room for doubt of a Wilson landslide on November 7.

PARKER STUMPS EAST IN BEHALF OF THE PRESIDENT

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—No recent political event has emphasized more pointedly the extraordinary trend to President Wilson of progressive and independent voters than the present speaking tour in the east of John M. Parker, progressive nominee for vice president, which has developed into an open and vigorous campaign in advocacy of the president's re-election.

His present tour, which began at Poughkeepsie and Schenectady today, is conducted under the auspices of the Wilson progressive campaign committee. Tomorrow he will speak at Hartford, Conn., and on Wednesday he will address a large body of Massachusetts progressives at Boston.

He will return to Connecticut on Thursday, speaking in New Haven in the evening. Arrangements are now being perfected for a rousing meeting in Brooklyn on Friday.

The large audiences which have already heard Mr. Parker's speeches have consisted almost entirely of progressives and independent voters, who have heartily responded to his strong plea for President Wilson's re-election.

IRISH QUESTION AGAIN DISCUSSED IN PARLIAMENT

LONDON, Oct. 18.—The Irish question was again brought to the fore in the house of commons today with the introduction by John Redmond of a motion criticizing the system of government of the island. The motion reads:

"That the system of government at present maintained in Ireland is inconsistent with the principles wherefor the allies are fighting in Europe and is, or has been, mainly responsible for the recent unhappy events and for the present state of feeling in that country."

Since Mr. Redmond gave notice of the intention to attack the government, the Irish leaders have held a number of conferences with Baron Wimborne, lord lieutenant of Ireland, but these probably had more to do with the suggestion of conscription to Ireland than with the grievances arising from continuance of martial law and the failure to release all those arrested during the uprising in Ireland last spring.

However, the question of conscription did not come under Mr. Redmond's motion. It doubtless will be discussed tomorrow when the whole subject comes under review.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "foggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.

DRIVEN FROM HOME Our boys and girls are leaving the farms and home towns by the thousand and swarming into the congested cities. There they work and struggle against frightful odds, the majority never getting a chance. If we had always spent our money at home we could have built up industries at home to give employment to these boys and girls.
