

NEW YORK POST ABANDONS HUGHES SAYS IS FAILURE

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Declaring that Mr. Hughes' campaign has been "a woeful disappointment to his friends and admirers" and that his speaking tour has failed to stir up the slightest enthusiasm, the independent New York Evening Post has definitely abandoned his cause.

"It is not necessary to say what hopes we pinned to Mr. Hughes," says the Post. "If others are cast down by the result, we are more so. All that is left is to sorrowfully speculate about the causes of the great disappointment."

The New York Evening Post was one of the staunchest supporters of Hughes when he was governor, and prior to his nomination for president the Post repeatedly declared editorially that Hughes was the one man conspicuously qualified to be the party's nominee.

"The Hughes Disappointment," is the caption of the Post's editorial, which is in part as follows:

"Mr. Hughes is just rounding out another speaking tour. The nature of his campaign may now be regarded as fixed. He can hardly make an essential change in it before election.

"There is no likelihood that anything will cause him to swerve from it before November 7. Isolated flashes of fire may come from him more frequently; but the main tenor of his speaking will doubtless remain what it has been. We need wait no longer to pass judgment on the character and effect of his campaign for the presidency.

"That it has been a woeful disappointment to his friends and admirers there can be no manner of doubt. The evidence leaps into one's face. On all sides you discover the depression which the Hughes speeches have caused.

Hughes Men Are Dejected.
"On every side dejected Hughes men are to be encountered. They are going to vote for him, most of them, but they will do it without a particle of enthusiasm. They have not been stirred or thrilled. More than that, their intellectual expectation and craving have not been met.

"The Hughes failure is, indeed, something like a calamity. We feel intellectually poorer. It is as if props had been knocked from under us. In no one can this feeling of surprise and almost dismay be stronger than in the Evening Post. It is not necessary to say what hopes we pinned to Mr. Hughes. If others are cast down by the result, we are more so. All that is left is sorrowfully to speculate about the causes of the great disappointment.

Uses Hammer Only to "Knock."
"Carlyle's question might be put to him: 'Hast thou only a torch to destroy? Hast thou no hammer with which to build?' Mr. Hughes has a hammer, but he uses it only to 'knock' every democratic act or failure to act.

"The sure consequence has been to weary the country. People can't forever be harking back to past blunders. They want to hear something of future efforts. And in the whole matter of passionate appeal, as of a man with high vision of what is to be, Mr. Hughes has come painfully short. He has been shooting squirts of vitriol at the democratic administration. He has not freely poured out wine for those whom he invites to sit at his table.

Has Left Country Cold.
"Whatever may be the true reading of the riddle of Hughes in this campaign, the effect of his course is known of all men. He may have offended nobody, but he has won nobody. He has left the country cold. Thousands who were ready to be drawn to him are left halting between two opinions. Most of the votes cast for him will be without zeal or vivid anticipation. The whole is an extraordinary thing, quite unforeseeable. The campaign in general cannot be said to have been stimulating; Mr. Hughes' part in it has been a positive depressant."

BLIZZARD RAGING OVER MINNESOTA

DULUTH, Minn., Oct. 20.—Raging in depth from two to six inches, snow today covers northern Minnesota, the Iron ranges and the north woods. The snow began falling here last night. A good sized blizzard was in progress on the Iron ranges all of yesterday, beginning with rain and turning to snow under the influence of a stiff north wind.

CLAIM AMERICA RECOGNIZED REBELS

ATHENS, Oct. 20.—The afternoon newspaper published a letter said to have been sent by the American consul at Saloniki to M. Politis, foreign minister of the provisional government, established by former Premier Venizelos, expressing "the sincere hope of being able to continue with the de facto government the cordial relations always heretofore existing between the authorities and this consulate."

The adherents of M. Venizelos claim that this constitutes recognition of the provisional government by the United States.

The American minister, Garrett Drovers, denies that any consul has been authorized to do more than cultivate essential relations with the de facto authorities in Mytilene and Crete as well as Saloniki.

STRIKING OIL WORKERS GO BACK TO WORK

BAYONNE, N. J., Oct. 20.—The Standard Oil and other industrial plants affected by the strike which was attended by rioting and the loss of three lives, resumed their accustomed activity today, when all except a few of the 12,000 men who were idle, returned to their places.

Better working conditions are promised them and their demand for increased wages will be granted in part, it was indicated by the federal conciliators, who came here from Washington to volunteer their services.

NORTONI RESIGNS FROM BENCH TO SPEAK FOR WILSON

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 20.—"Neither a republican nor a democrat," Judge Albert D. Norton has resigned from the court of appeals bench in Missouri to take the stump through the middle west in behalf of President Wilson—"because, like Jefferson and Lincoln, Wilson is serving humanity, not the privileged interests that are behind his opponent."

Judge Norton helped to organize the progressive party and was its candidate for governor in Missouri. Then he found himself a "political orphan," and "my conscience forbade that I should longer affiliate myself with the party used as an instrument of government in behalf of large interests enjoying special privileges at the expense of the whole people."

As to the standard-bearer of the republican party, he says: "Mr. Hughes is a creature of the environment in which he developed. A typical New York lawyer, who won his way in the mart of big business, he lives and moves and has his being as does big business. So we find Mr. Hughes satisfactory to Wall street, because his mental attitude squares with the view of big business, rather than the progressive view, that this country belongs to the people who inhabit it and have a right to control its affairs."

"The contest for human rights has been waged, but the records show that Mr. Hughes has not been sufficiently interested to cast his vote for six years. He declares he favors the suffrage of women, yet he did not vote in his state on that vital question of human rights."

"Against this we see President Wilson, whose kindly, sympathetic attitude is vastly different from that of Mr. Hughes. Mr. Wilson always votes, and, in the midst of the flaming waves of war on every hand, he found time to cast his ballot in New Jersey for the enfranchisement of women."

LONDON, Oct. 20.—An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Amsterdam says that a telegram received there from Bremen confirms the report that the German Ocean Navigation company has received no news from the commercial submarine Bremen and that she is regarded as lost. Great anxiety prevails among the families of the crew, virtually all of whom reside in Bremen, and it is expected difficulty will be experienced in obtaining crews for other commercial submarines, which may undertake trans-Atlantic voyages.

According to this information the sailing of the Deutschland on another voyage across the Atlantic has been cancelled.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody will Know.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But howing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
