ASHLAND AND VICINITY

The gala event of the Halloween season on a big scale will be the old-fashioned dance at the Nat. on Friday evening of this week, October 26. Even the Loveland orchestra which furnishes the music will appear in costume, while participants on the dancing floor will be rigged out in the nondescript apparel of former days, elaborate dresses and fashionably gowned patrons being considered out of place. Bungalow aprons, homespun frocks and jeans combination suits without regard to fit or style will be considered eminently apropos. The entertainment is not considered a money-making scheme except insofar as raising funds for the various activities in which the ladies of the auxiliary club are engaged in further planning for the city beautification. The tariff will be one dollar for all privileges, with the mere nominal fee of 25 cents levied upon extra ladies and spectators in general. Extra' ladies come under the classification wherein masculine attendants chaperone dual or triple partners.

Born, October 16, to Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ellason, of Sun Dial, Alberta, a daughter. The parents were formerly well known residents here.
The commercial club, now snugly housed in the city hall amid ideal surroundings, will effectively begin an energetic campaign for additional membership. Efforts will be conducted on a systematic basis and the entire city will be canvassed thoroughly. Although the organization has discarded billiards and other games, it retains a reading room well equipped with daily papers and magazines. Members are reminded that these are available at all hours. Fine exhibits are also on display, these features not being entirely confined to the main building near the depot.

Extradition proceedings are even invoked to reach runaway girls. On Monday the governor of California honored a requisition for the return of Winifred Caldwell, a former resident here, to the State Industrial school at Salem. In company with several other girls she made a sensational escape from the Oregon institution some weeks ago. Pending extradition developments Winifred was held at Hill under a restraining order, having been arrested at Oakland. J. S. Morgan, caretaker of Southern Pacific depot grounds here, has returned from a two months' visit to his old home in Kentucky.

The meeting of the Men's Social Service League in city hall on Tuesday evening was turned into a political arena, with four active partisan representatives in the ring. They were O. H. Barnhill, prohibitionist; J. H. Fuller of Talent, democrat; Dr. D. M. Brower of this city, socialist, and O. C. Boggs of Medford, republican. All made fine talks, Dr. Brower being especially breezy, due to the fact that he was substituted on the program in place of W. H. Breeze of Talent. Politically synchronized stop watches limited the time of each speech to 15 minutes, a proviso rigidly and impartially adhered to by Dr. McCracken, chairman. The meeting was unusually interesting on account of the diversity of political sentiment fervently expressed, all the speakers being generously applauded. A straw vote at its close revealed 37 votes for Hughes, 26 for Wilson, 16 for Hanly and 11 for Henson. The occasion was probably the first instance in local history where a political gathering was opened with prayer, the invocation having been made by Pastor Douglass of the Methodist church.

Congressman Hawley spoke to a good sized audience at the Lyric theatre on Monday evening. His talk was along the tariff question, party platforms, national expenditures and Mexican troubles, dwelling at length on the tariff particularly, contending that the question was debatable even if it had been removed from politics as has been asserted. Preliminary to his remarks, W. H. Gore, of Medford, spoke briefly, confirming his remarks to county and state instead of national issues. Quite a delegation from Medford was present. V. O. N. Smith was chairman of the meeting.

The football game between Ashland and Klamath high schools takes place on local grounds Thursday of this week. Game called promptly at 2:30 p. m.
Word comes from Aberdeen, S. D., of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hill. Mrs. Hill was formerly Miss Grace Lager of this city.

Public spirited patrons of the Bellview school are back of a movement to purchase a Victrola for the institution. The parent-teacher circle of that district is furthering the enterprise. Pupils will give a Halloween entertainment to help the cause along.

The official ballot for the general election will be printed at the Tidings office. It is a formidable sheet as to preparation and complicated arrangements, with a legion of candidates names and text of various propositions and amendments. As far as the women voters are concerned, their study of the official handbook through Political Science club channels is the making issue involved in voting from president down to precinct constable, not to enumerate the scope of other measures.

Aeron Circle, Women of Woodcraft will observe the Halloween festival on Saturday evening of this week, October 28, to which the rank and file of the Woodmen of the World membership, accompanied by their wives, have been invited, after routine business matters have been disposed of. The invitation to the order is general. The meeting will be in Odd Fellows Hall.

Mark V. Weatherford, democratic nominee for congress in this district, met with a rousing reception at the Lyric theatre here on Tuesday evening, his initial appearance on a political mission in this city. His address incorporated a general upholding of the Wilson policies, aggressively as well as defensive. Specifically, he analyzed several amendments, which will appear on the ballot, particularly the brewer's amendment, the adoption of which he disapproved inasmuch as he is also the congressional candidate of the prohibitionists. John Riggs presided and Mrs. Maud Roche, who is the political antagonist of Mrs. E. B. Hanley, read an able paper. Mrs. O. H. Barnhill reinforced prohibition arguments made at the meeting.

Fred Lockley of Portland has been in town this week, attending political gatherings and has been accorded the privilege of briefly submitting a plea in behalf of the normal school, which it is contemplated to establish at Pendleton. Not at the expense of Ashland, however, inasmuch as he urges the re-establishment of the Southern Oregon normal here.
W. B. Yockey is seriously ill, the result of injuries received by a runaway horse, disabling him more than was at first suspected.

In ratifying the movement for the establishment of a normal school at Pendleton, the Political Science club of this city in its action, also implies the re-establishment of the Southern Oregon normal school at Ashland. The club's stand in this matter was practically unanimous, two score members being present.
There will be a Halloween observance at the Methodist church on Monday evening, October 30, where the young people will provide an evening of jollity and good cheer.

Cliff Payne, who "makes everything," has the contract for installing the new pews in the Congregational church.
Robert Callins Davis is the name, which has been bestowed upon the son born recently to Mr. and Mrs. F. Roy Davis of Medford, who formerly resided here and are well known by a large circle of friends. The proud father is circuit court reporter and is also officially connected with the federal court, Southern Oregon jurisdiction.

A group of Southern Pacific Officials, mostly representing ticket and passenger agencies throughout Texas, were in Ashland early in the week, on their return home from a trip to the Pacific Northwest, studying railroad methods in vogue in this territory.
Rev. A. J. Sullens of Portland, superintendent of home missionary activities of the Congregational church in several of the Pacific states, will occupy the pulpit of the Ashland church on the first Sunday in November, the pastorate by that time being vacated by the resignation of Rev. R. W. Farquhar.

Judge C. C. Barquist received a brief visit the first of the week from his son, Chan, and daughter, Mrs. Lyle Kimball of Klamath Falls. Chan is connected with both government and corporate irrigation projects in the Klamath and Siskiyou counties. The daughter is the wife of Jack Kimball, representative of the Weyerhaeuser interests throughout extensive territory.

GOLD HILL NUGGETS

Roy Cameron came home Saturday night from the lumbering camp near Cottage Grove, to spend a few days with his family at this place.

John R. Kelsey went to Rock Point Monday morning on business enterprise in that vicinity, and may remain for several days.

Miss Lucy J. Young of West Seattle spent a couple of days in Gold Hill and vicinity recently.

Mrs. J. B. R. Moorelock left last Tuesday for a visit with her mother, who is ill, at Brownsville.

John Lister of Rock Point was in Gold Hill Saturday.

Forest fires reached the boundary of William Pahl's farm west of town and destroyed considerable fence. Neighbors rushed to help rebuild it before stray cattle could molest his crops.

Henri Breitt, who had but recently come down from Crater Lake, left the last of the week for Seattle, where he had a permanent position offered him.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Trimble spent Sunday at Merlin.

George Iverson returned Sunday morning from his attendance at the Sunday school convention held at Medford last Friday.

Drs. Frank and Mrs. Carl Cox of Medford spent Sunday at the Collins ranch east of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reed and family of Tolo, spent Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Reed.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Weston of Medford autored to Gold Hill Sunday morning to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Miller.

Mrs. Mary Griffiths, familiarly known as "Grandma Griffith" left Thursday for Klamath Falls in company with Lawrence Cardwell, who was returning to his home at that place. An auto trip of such length might appeal to one of her age as being too much of an undertaking, where it is mentioned at Grandma will be 88 years old next February. But to her it was nothing to speak of, as her berry patch and garden are a beauty to behold and are solely the result of her labors and attention.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Adams of Rock Point attended church services in Gold Hill Sunday and were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Kelsey for the day.

COMMUNICATION.

To the Editor:
Kindly settle an argument that has started here. What is the religion of President Wilson and also of Mr. Hughes?

Hopes Women Will Adopt This Habit As Well As Men

Glass of hot water each morning helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Happy, bright, alert—vigorous and vivacious—a good clear skin; a natural, rosy complexion and freedom from illness are assured only by clean, healthy blood. If only every woman and likewise every man could realize the wonders of the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking, each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at a drug store which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.

DANGERS OF A COLD

Medford People Will Do Well to Heed Them.

Many had cases of kidney trouble result from a cold or chill. Congested kidneys fall behind in filtering the poison-laden blood and backache, headache, dizziness and disordered kidney action follow. Don't neglect a cold. Use Doan's Kidney Pills at the first sign of kidney trouble. Follow this Medford resident's example: Mrs. J. H. Gustin, 521 S. Grape street, Medford, says: "I have been taking Doan's Kidney Pills whenever I have felt the need of a kidney medicine for several years and I have always received the most satisfactory results. My kidneys seem to be my weakest spot and every little cold or strain affects them and my back becomes weak or lame. After I have taken a couple of boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, my kidneys become normal and in every way I feel as well and strong as ever."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Gustin had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

HEAVY MEAT EATERS HAVE SLOW KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Backachy or have bladder trouble—Take glass of Salts.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meats furnish uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become over-worked from this strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold. Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients for 25 cents a large bottle, all ready for use. It is called "Weyl's Sage and Sulphur Compound." This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair. Everybody uses "Weyl's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet-require for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
