

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

The Halloween frolic and old-fashioned dance by the Auxiliary club secured a big success at the Natatorium last Friday evening. The light rain not in the least lessened the attendance or dampened the ardor of the participants. The spacious hall was decorated with the proverbial autumnal settings. In addition to dancing there was fortune telling and other diversions. As to costumes the ladies carried out the old-fashioned idea of perfection, but some of the gentlemen at the last moment put in appearance either in business or full dress suits, arrayed in which were incorrect for the particular occasion. Without mentioning any names Bert Greer wore a smart Copenhagen blue taffeta, white Enuff Pell set at defining all the conventional as to prevailing fashion by appearing in green striped wasatta over yellow, with neatly trimmed. Johnny Murphy was perfectly lovely in an imported gown of pale black embroidered chiffon. Millard Cyster was becomingly attired in purple headed net over king's white satin. George Kramer wore a smart gown of white lace with iridescent trimming. W. W. Usher was stately in black chauntilly over corduroy. Benton Bowers was arrayed in a blue turquoise taffeta frock. Rowena Cornhill was beautiful in a Prince Albert of broad coral serge. Hilda Praet was also charming in an imported gown of gold headed lace over chertuse net, with bodice to match. Even the brilliant electroliers were rivalled in startling effects by Henry Provost's handsome pink and silver cloth gown with yellow and orange chertuse trimmings, while apricot taffeta absolutely harmonized with Charley Wolf's tulle complexion. Sam McNair, sparkling in carmine organite and jet, dispensed cider from the club's refreshment buffet, and Hal McNair led the grand march in Rexall regimentals.

The Carson-Fowler Lumber company is importing cordwood from northern ports, including Grants Pass and beyond. The meeting of the Fraternal Brotherhood, which was to have been held on Monday evening, October 20, has been postponed indefinitely. Parson and Mrs. T. H. Simpson entertained a company of 25 ladies at the Parson residence, the guest of honor being Mrs. Louella Rogers, of Portland, who is revisiting Ashland at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Sanford. The event was a delightful social reunion in the way of renewing the intimate friendships of former days. The superlative is used in connection with four sermons by Rev. C. Reed, who is supplying the Methodist church at Talent. The initial discourse was "The World's Greatest Need," and the second, "The World's Greatest Altar." On Sunday the topic was "The World's Greatest Work," and a fourth discourse will deal with "The World's Greatest Men." The superintendent of schools and two teachers at Albany have been arrested for illegal deer slaughtering and have been fined $25 each in addition to having their guns confiscated. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ulrich were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Randles at their country home near Bamson several days this week. Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Meador of Medford were Jacksonville visitors Sunday. John Dunnington, Judge Prim and Roy Ulrich have returned from a hunting trip to Johnson's Prairie. Mrs. W. E. Finney has returned from the Blue Lodge, where she has been for some time past. Miss Soule King Robinson surprised her many friends by announcing her marriage to C. H. Pearson of New York at Portland October 26. After paying a short visit to her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Robinson, the bride and groom left for New York. Miss Robinson is an artist of no small repute and has recently achieved success as a portrait painter. The romance began in San Francisco during the World's Fair and culminated in Portland, where Miss Robinson was painting a portrait. Mr. Pearson is connected with the Yale-Lock Co., with headquarters at Spokane, Wash.

Mr. Stenmenz of Gold Hill, accompanied by Miss Lolita Klamath, recently made a trip to Klamath Falls by auto, leaving here at 7 a. m. Saturday and reaching Klamath Falls at 2 p. m. of the same day, where they visited Miss Klamath's aunt, Mrs. Sturges, and returned the next day. Among the recent Medford and Central Point visitors were Peter Van Hardenburg and family, H. Van Hovenburg, Henry Schuman-Helak, O. T. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Strauss, and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Kenney. Mr. Strauss has sold quite a quantity of wheat to the Eagle Point miller. The wheat is being hauled by auto trucks. The debate at Cooner's Hall the 20th between E. E. Kelly and W. W. Truxas was well attended, but more would have been present if it had been known of sooner. Arrangements have been made thru the mail service allowing our carrier to distribute mail in the Pankey district on his return trip. It is reported that Henry Schuman-Helak, who has been visiting H. Van Hovenburg, has rented the Collins ranch and will soon move thereon. J. R. Rowe has rented his farm to his son-in-law, Bent Edgington of Central Point, who will take possession after November 1. A large crowd from surrounding precincts attended the dance at Cooner's Hall Saturday night. R. M. Conley of Toke, lately purchased several head of stock cattle from W. A. Trusham and son, Harry. Harry Trusham left this week for a hunt in the Willow Flat district.

STOMACH UPSET? Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles. If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with indigested foods, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain. Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.
