TALENT SCHOOL NOTES

The Olympic society held a general election Friday, at which time the following officers were elected: President, Glenn Terrill; vice-president, Delphia Coleman; secretary, Edna Wells; treasurer, Lewis Beeson; sergeant-at-arms, Cecil Ager.

The election went off quietly and orderly. Very few had failed to register and consequently matters were not long delayed by having to swear in the negligent. Both liberals and conservatives (the two leading parties) had nominated strong party candidates at the primaries held a week ago, and the leaders of each party were confident of victory up to the last. Standpat ideas predominated in every case, however, and most of the ballots were voted straight, giving victory to the liberals, who were greater in numbers. A straw vote on the presidential candidates for the general election to be held throughout the country on the 7th of November gave Hughes 25, Wilson 21, Benson 1 and Hanley 1. One lad refused to vote for a presidential candidate as none of them had declared themselves devoted to the liberal principles.

The polls were open from 3 to 4, with Lewis Beeson, Lucie Oatman, Ruby Guches acting as judges of election and Oscar Anderson, Max Bowman and Carrie Hull as clerks. These elections have been conducted during the past three years as the state and national elections are, and so details of methods of voting and conducting the same have been learned by all. This is another instance of making the school work practical, which is one of Mr. Ager's desires.

The fifth and sixth grades have been making good use of the model school store lately. Many students would rather keep store than do anything else. "Made in Oregon" products are in evidence upon the shelves and Mr. Ager informs us that foreign products will be replaced by home-made ones as soon as they can be secured. These sample cartons and packages are not all real, but are usually filled with sawdust or other clean material. These are furnished by the different manufacturing companies free of charge, and so the only outlay so far has been for shelving and the toy money.

The school meeting held Saturday to levy a tax was well attended, about fifty turning out. A false report that a tax was to be levied to build a gymnasium, had gained headway and brought many interested parties. The proposition had never gained many supporters, for most everyone seems to think times too hard to undertake such a thing at present. The vote to levy a small tax to cover both current expenses and to aid in making an annual reduction of the bonded indebtedness passed almost unanimously. A measure providing for transporting to the Ashland high school those students who complete the tenth grade in the local school met with approval with nearly every one present. The provision makes it imperative that such student been resident of the local district at the time of the preceding census. The matter of requiring teachers to stay in Talent was discussed and all finally agreed to drop the matter for the present year at least. All teachers were present to hear the discussion.

The school is preparing a program to be offered soon after Thanksgiving.

The Talent high school has joined the State Debating league again this year and several students expressed their willingness to participate. Talent will meet in competition with Phoenix and Central Point. The winning team of this triangle will meet the winners of the Grants Pass, Ashland, Medford triangle. The question for debate is: "Resolved, that a compulsory health insurance law, including the essential features of the standard bill drafted by the American Association for Labor Legislation, should be enacted by the legislature of Oregon."

Professor F. C. Reimer will give the next Wednesday morning talk. Rev. M. C. Reed of Ashland gave the last one and took for his subject "Essentials of Success."

WHY?

NOW TIME TO TRADE.

I have a 160-acre stock ranch; good location; 100 acres in grain, some alfalfa. This place recently sold for $12,000; no incumbrance. Will trade for good orchard, prefer pears, or would take city property. Would trade even or assume some incumbrance on orchard proposition.
