PRICES ADVANCED
 ON 32 ARTICLES

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—Advances since last Friday in the prices of 32 items of their stocks were enumerated today for retail grocers' of this city by the Retail Grocers' association. Matches, starch, French sardines and sardines chips are included in the raise. The tendency to raise prices has reached stock raisers, with the result it is said, that sheep owners are holding off for $2 per head above the unusually high price offered by the packers.
 Retail grocers and small bakers throughout the city were scheduled today to sign contracts, which will result in five and ten-cent leaves of bread, remaining available here in spite of the raise to six and twelve cents authorized for Mondays by the Master Bakers.

SHACKLETON ARRIVES ON TRIP OF RESCUE

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 2.—Sir Ernest Shackleton, the antarctic explorer, arrived here early today on the steamer Paris Mina from Colon and departed several hours later for San Francisco on his way to rescue the ten members of Shackleton's party on the west side of the antarctic continent.

A QUERY FOR WOMEN

WHY should any woman vote for Hughes?
 Mr. Hughes does not believe that women should receive equal pay for equal work. He thinks men entitled to more money for the same work, simply because of their sex.

When Mr. Hughes was governor of New York, at the instance of the public school teachers, the equal pay for equal work measure passed the legislature. He vetoed it, giving the following reason:

It is proposed by legislative enactment to establish the proposition that for the work of a given position women shall receive equal pay with men.
 It is for this principle that the supporters of the bill contend, and not for mere increased pay. I cannot approve of this bill.

This measure was again passed by the legislature and signed by a governor who believed in a square deal for women—not Hughes.

Mr. Hughes again showed his antagonism to teachers by vetoing the teachers' retirement pension bill.

Mr. Hughes, throughout his public career, never favored or in any way assisted the cause of equal suffrage.
 Until he received the presidential nomination, he was opposed to votes for women, and his wife and daughters were opposed to it.

When the suffrage amendment was submitted to the voters of New York, Mr. Hughes did not vote for it—in fact, he has not voted since 1909—showing him a slacker in citizenship.

The 1916 platforms of the republican and democratic parties upon suffrage are practically identical. They read as follows:

Democratic—We recommend the extension of the franchise to the women of the country by the states upon the same terms as to men.

Republican—The republican party, reaffirming its faith in government of the people, by the people, for the people, as a measure of justice to one-half the adult people of the country, favors the extension of the suffrage to women, but recognize the right of each state to settle this question for itself.

If anything, the democratic platform is the stronger, as it recommends suffrage to the states, while the republican favors the extension, recognizing that it is a state matter. Neither indorse the national amendment.

President Wilson was the first president to favor equal suffrage and the only one to vote for it.

After Mr. Hughes had accepted the nomination he declared himself in favor of the national suffrage amendment, knowing that as president he would be powerless to deliver the goods, as part of his program of becoming a 100 per cent candidate and shuffling off principles for votes.
 Why should any woman vote for Hughes?

ELECT MISS TOWNE

THE MAIL TRIBUNE is concerned with more important issues this campaign than who will fill county offices. The selection is more a matter of personality than partisanship, and the best should be selected, regardless of party. It feels, however, that an exception to its policy should be made in one instance, the candidacy of Miss Marian B. Towne of Phoenix for representative.

Miss Towne was the first woman to be elected to the legislature in Oregon, and as a legislator she reflected credit not only upon herself, Jackson county and the state, but upon her sex. She openly fought graft, chicanery and jobbery, and vigorously supported welfare and moral measures. Her record shows that she always voted right.

Those who think a legislator should become a spoke in a crooked political machine and spend time log-rolling in behalf of special interests, instead of the public good, should not vote for Miss Towne, for she will not lend herself to such tactics. Those who want the highest type of representation and an honest effort to better our laws and better conditions and reduce taxation, who desire a staunch champion of progress and of Jackson county and of all Oregon will cast their ballot for Miss Towne.

Miss Towne has unusual advantages. With a good education, she combines business training, and as chief deputy county clerk became familiar with public administration.
 She has a remarkable grasp of the fundamentals of government, a quick perception of essentials, a wide practical knowledge of politics.

Fortified by the experience of the past session, and an extended acquaintance with legislators, a knowledge gained at first hand of legislative methods, advantages none of her opponents enjoy, she has merited, and doubtless will receive, re-election by a record majority.

1820 SHIPS SUNK
 BY SUBMARINES
 SINCE WAR BEGAN

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—One thousand, eight hundred and twenty merchant ships, with an aggregate gross tonnage of approximately 2,325,584, have been sunk by belligerent nations during twenty-seven months of war, ending November 1, according to figures compiled from cable dispatches and mail advices published here today by the Journal of Commerce.

The losses during October were larger than for any one of the preceding five months, according to the statistics, amounting to 127 vessels of a total of 227,116 tons gross. The October rate of destruction was considerably in excess of the monthly average throughout the war period, and British shipping sustained losses nearly equal to those of August and September combined. Norway lost the largest number of ships, 56, according to the statistics, but their gross tonnage was only 57,335, as compared with Great Britain's loss of 115,546 gross tonnage of 25 vessels destroyed.

A table showing the total shipping losses since the war began estimates those of the entente allies at about 75 per cent and those of neutrals at nearly 15 per cent, with Teutonic losses less than 7 per cent.

PIONEER WOMAN FOR WILSON IN SPITE OF FAMILY

In Jacksonville there is a remarkable woman, a pioneer of the Rogue River valley, in fact the fourth white girl to enter this section. She now has four great grandchildren. Her family is large, with three generations that will vote in the coming election. All of the members of that family will support Hughes with one exception. This great grandmother stands alone in her support of the cause of Woodrow Wilson. Her name is withheld at her own request.
 "Woodrow Wilson is a man of wonderful goodness, who has really done his best in the handling of the affairs of this nation," she stated yesterday afternoon. "And this best I consider could not have been equaled by any other man in public life in this country. And because of his record while at the helm of the ship of state, I am confident that he will be re-elected."

Criticism Foolish.

"The criticisms made by the republican party leaders against his handling of the Mexican situation I can characterize as nothing less than foolish, contentions that have arisen from the desperate endeavors of the republicans for some peg on which to hang their campaign, really, some excuse for being. Wilson was a shining light in his handling of that question. He had no excuse for plunging this nation into war, and he sought none.

"Mr. Wilson is a gentleman in every way. During all the heat of the campaign he has not once lost his head and resorted to the tactics that have throughout the struggle characterized the republican party.

"His handling of the threatened railroad strike was nothing short of masterly. We people of Oregon would have really tasted hard times had not his action been so swift and sure.
 And for his solution, his fairness to both parties to the controversy, he will be rewarded with thousands of votes.

As to Roosevelt.

"As to Theodore Roosevelt, who is so earnestly espousing the cause of Mr. Hughes, I can give you my opinion in very few words, when I say that the only good thing of his public record came when he put a democratic president in office, for that, in effect, is what he did when he brought about a split in the ranks of the republican party. His actions since have shown him to be a traitor to the progressive as well as the republican party.

"If the golden special makes any votes it will be for Wilson. Those women are only lowering themselves in entering a sphere of politics in which they have no place. Women may vote, but publicly entering the "Really, I never could get how some few people use the most difficult and painful way they can find to get rid of corns. They'd wrap their toes up with bandages into a package that fills their shoes full of feet and makes corns so painful they've got to walk sideways and wrinkle up their faces. Or they use salves that eat right into the toe and make it raw and sore, or they'll use plasters that make the corns bulge, or pick and gnaw at their corns and make themselves bleed. Funny, isn't it? "GETS-corns. Just put 3 drops on. It dries instantly. No pain, fuss or trouble.

HUGHES WRECKER
 OTHERS FORTUNES.
 ASSERTS HANLEY

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 3.—J. Frank Hanly, prohibition candidate for president, and Ira Landrith, vice-presidential candidate, today delivered early morning addresses on the state house steps to men and women on their way to work.

"America efficient," a term used by Charles E. Hughes, Hanly said, "is only a phrase which any parrot can be taught to repeat."

Both the republican and democratic parties, he said, know that "America efficient" means "America sober."

"The way to make America efficient to compete in the markets of the world after the war is to make America sober by eradicating the alcoholic drink evil," said Hanly.

"Both the big parties know this, but they are afraid to proclaim it," Hanly charged that Hughes was making the campaign solely as "the wrecker of another man's fortunes." The prohibition special will complete its Ohio campaign today.
