GILSON GARDNER

YORK, Nov. 6. - Even in the of betting, the backers of are taking to the woods. Fin days the odds on Hughes in dwindling, until now the declare that the republicane even money. But the fact are republican takers for the mey proposition. Indeed e no takers of the democratic on any terms.

sonally know four men close ciated with the compaign, ve been trying, unsuccessful Monday, Oct. 23, to get bet-The orders to the broker put up the money at "the best e could get," On that Monday as published in the papers 10 to 8 and 10 to 0, in favor o But the broker reported that he could not place the monin those or any other terms simply was not any republican in the market.

se four proposed bets range in Hounts from $2000 to $5000, Whiel erely goes to show that most of the published about election odds and betting are not true. These bet what the professional know a wash bets." It is an old trick for enumaign manager to arrange me or two brokerage house this kind of business, to go ugh the form of making bets, i g been arranged that the taker maker of the bet are in fact the party. Each bet ean be staked s of $10 or $10,000 with equa mity. Generally the big sum used in order to make it les that some stranger with rea y will call the bluff,

This was the situation until the up close to the democratic cam ign management, hoping to piel one casy money, sent their mon ey to the broker. The advent of real money had a startling effect. Republicans who assumed that. New York was safe for Hughes, and that New York would decide the election who had, some weeks ago, bet on belief, at once tried to hedge Their money came into the market along with the real money, with the result above set fort!. It is safe to predict that by the time this article is printed, the republicans will be ding odds and that money will be hard to place on any terms.

PARRAL'S CAPTURE

EL PASO, Nov. 6 .- No confirma ion of the rumor that the Americans in Parral, Chihuahua had been killed Villa troops when the troops entered the town, were received here loday. Army officers and United States government officials have reprived no information whatever of the report. They all agree that confirmation of the report at this time with the telegraph wires cut south of Chikuahua and south of Jiminez, is improbable.
