G. O. P. CAMPAIGN CLOSED BY FINAL RALLY AT THE NAT

To listen to the final round of republican argument in the campaign, the largest crowd of the campaign in Jackson county assembled Monday night at the Natatorium. The principal speaker of the evening was Mrs. E. B. Hanley, who returned to Medford for her final speech after stumping the state for Hughes. Mrs. Bert Anderson, who accompanied her on the tour around the state, was present, but not to sing, for as Col. Washburn, who presided, she "lost her voice on the Columbia river."

Colonel Washburn delivered the first speech of the evening, berating President Wilson's foreign policy in strongest terms. Of the legislation passed by the present administration he said much was good, inasmuch as the labor of its preparation had been performed by the republican party.

He stamped, he ranted and he raved, after the manner of the I. W. W. soap-box orators, as he heaped abuse and vilification upon the president of the United States.

Mrs. Hanley was given an enthusiastic reception when she stepped to the front of the platform. She too, treated the foreign and legislative accomplishments of the Wilson administration to a handling at the hands of what she described as "the best mud slinger in Jackson county."

She dwelt on the sale of her two cute little, sweet little, curly tailed pigs, sacrificed for a Hughes holiday, stating that previous to the sale, on account of the Wilson administration, she had only two cents in her pocket book, the hard times having forced her husband to chase the hump-backed salmon in Alaska, while she chased the hump-backed hogs in Oregon. The narrow chested, squeaky voiced democrats, she declared, were for Wilson, but the broad shouldered, many men were for Hughes.

Mrs. Hanley has been styled, in numerous slobbery, slushy articles in the Portland Oregonian, as the "Billy Sunday of politics." To the picturesque slang of Billy Sunday, she adds the frenzied gestures of Mary Antin. Her speech would be a top liner in vaudeville, with irresponsible jokes, mimeries, dramatics, and contortions; a series of quips, smart riffs, and cheap abuse with no attempt at logical argument.

Colonel Washburn closed the meeting with an appeal to support the Jackson County republican candidates.

Two numbers by the Medford quartette were features of the meeting.

MOTHER! YOUR CHILD IS CROSS, FEVERISH, FROM CONSTIPATION

If Tongue is Coated, Breath Bad, Stomach Sour, Clean Liver and Bowels.

Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once—a teaspoonful today often saves a sick child tomorrow.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When crows, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomachache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative" because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs;" then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Adv.

HOLD FUNERAL OVER REMAINS OF HALL

The skeleton of Charles Edmund Hall, who perished in a snowstorm on the trail between Evans Creek and Trail Creek last January, will be interred in I. O. O. F. cemetery, Medford, this afternoon at the wish of H. H. Van Volkenburg, an uncle residing in Klamath Falls.

The skeleton was found October 25, near the mouth of Railroad creek by E. D. Cottrell of Beagle who was looking for cattle in that vicinity.

The snowshoes, rifle and a match box with the initials "E. H." marked on it were found by the skeleton of the deceased.

Mr. Hall had many acquaintances in Medford and was well known on Trail creek. He resided at the home of Scatter Hammond several months previous to his death, and left Mr. Hammond's home one morning in January for a place called Richter's on Chicago trail, and was never heard of again until the discovery of his skeleton and rifle yesterday evening.

A posse of men searched for several days after he was lost between the two points of his journey, and at one time was near the place where his remains were found by Mr. Cottrell.

VOTES OF WOMEN

Do women realize that they already vote in the most effective way on important questions

Every time a woman buys an article it is a vote, backed by money, for that article, a sincere approval of its merits.

So women have been voting on the question of health. When they have suffered from woman's ailments their vote has been overwhelming for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which they have bought and used with satisfaction.—Adv.

ADVANCE PRICES UPON GROCERIES

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—Advances, ranging from 10 to 20 per cent in the prices of staple groceries are to be put into effect here within a month, according to a statement made today by Frank B. Connolly, secretary of the Retail Grocers' association. Connolly said the grocers have reached the point, owing to depletion of stock bought at former wholesale figures, where they can no longer absorb recent price advances.

The association announced today it would take immediate steps toward the organization of a co-operative bakery to keep down the price of bread. It will also ask President Wilson and congress to place an embargo upon the exportation of wheat, flour, sugar, canned milk and canned tomatoes, a resolution to that effect having been adopted at an annual meeting last night.

Sharing interest with the decisions of the grocers is an investigation being begun here by representatives of the department of justice into the cause of advancing prices.

BRITISH LOSSES IN WARSHIPS TOTAL 501,790 TONS

BERLIN, Nov. 7.—"The sinking of a British small cruiser off the Irish coast by a German submarine has increased the total British losses in battleships and cruisers to 501,790 tons," says an Overseas News agency announcement today.

"This does not include British auxiliary cruisers, submarines, torpedo boats or guard-ships lost.

"According to the known strength of the British navy at the beginning of the war, it has lost 14 per cent of its battle-ships, 39 per cent of its armored cruisers and 14 per cent of its protected cruisers. Thirty-nine ships of a total of 443,500 tons have been destroyed by German naval forces.

"The extent of the British losses is notable in view of the fact that at the beginning of the war the French navy's tonnage was 497,000 and the Italian navy's 335,000.

"Moreover, the British navy has lost 50 torpedo boats of 71,500 tons and 76 submarines."
