Friday was a red-letter day in the annals of Eagle Point, for it was the time set for a grand rag-sewing and quilting bee at the Sunnyside. Mrs. Howlett had invited all the ladies of the town to join her in the festivities of the occasion, and before the day was over there were very few missing—they walked, they Forled, they jinnayed, they Roed, they came in carriages and buggies and on horseback, and long before noon there was a houseful of busy tongues and fingers. All ages were represented, from great grandmothers to babes in arms.

Ma Howlett, as we love to call her, was already for the event. Rags? You never saw so many rags! And quilts—I don't know how many; but one group claimed to have finished three before dinner. One room was devoted to sewing and rolling carpet rags and there were four quilting frames set up.

Shortly after noon dinner was served, and three times the two large tables in the dining room were crowded with guests. Surely never was such a meal served to so large a company. We had head cheese, chicken and roast pork for meat, mashed white potatoes and boiled sweet potatoes, cabbage pickle, cabbage salad and sauerkraut, half a dozen different kinds of fruit and preserves, coffee and bread and butter, dressing and gravy, pumpkin pie and mince pie and several different kinds of cake, including the famous Sunnyside whipped cream cake. Nobody but Ma Howlett could have gotten together such a wealth of good things.

After dinner all the ladies set to work again, and long before dark all the quilts were made, all the rags were sewed and rolled into balls and all the gossip of the community fully discussed. There may have been a few shreds of reputation left to the absentees, but there were no shreds of quilt or carpet rags left to be sewed. It was an occasion long to be remembered by all who were there.

The A. R. boys' class of the Methodist Sunday school entertained the girls' class of the same Sunday school Friday evening at the home of their teacher, Mrs. A. S. Bliton, on West Main street. After a most interesting program, games and music were enjoyed, after which refreshments were served. The following were present: Misses Alice Lyons, May Lindley, Julia Opp, Katherine Connor, Lucy Gregg, Dorothy Miller, Georgia Williams, Blanche Lounitz, Jaeretta Bateman, Bessie Jackson, Richard Opp, Norman Maxwell, Lloyd Smith, Harold Wiley, Harold Austin, Arthur Hess, Karl Miller, Leon Raymond, Walter Wilson, Milburn Harvey and Edward Hartie.

The regular meeting of the High School Parent-Teacher circle will be held next Friday, November 17, at 3 o'clock p. m., in the high school building. A new feature this year will be a question box. Each parent finds a special problem in the relations of home and school, and each parent is requested to bring this problem or question to the question box for general discussion. The new officers have business of importance to bring before this meeting, and all who are interested in the high school work are requested to be present.

Hereafter the Parents' Educational bureau in the Public Library building will be open Wednesdays instead of Saturdays. The hours are from 2:30 until 4 o'clock p. m. Problems peculiar to parents in their care of children of all ages are discussed and those in charge will be glad to welcome all who are interested. There will be occasional conferences and programs, and the next baby test will be held as soon as possible after the holidays.

The Ladies' Aid of the Christian church will hold their regular monthly social at the home of Mrs. Ben Garnett, 211 Olsen street, Tuesday, November 14, at 2:30. Every one is cordially invited.

Dr. Reber will speak on "Russia" Saturday evening, November 11, at 8 o'clock under the auspices of the Wednesday Study club. The public is invited.

J. F. Bakeman of Independence, Ore., arrived in Medford Friday morning and will spend the winter with his daughter, Mrs. B. W. Gregory.

Mrs. B. W. Gregory entertained the Thursday Evening Bridge club at her home on East Jackson street.

The lady Elks enjoyed an informal card party at the Elks' temple Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Butterfield entertained the Octette club Monday afternoon.

The College Women's club met this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Malmgren.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Clark entertained the members of the Elective Study club at a buffet supper last Thursday evening at their home on North Holly. There were seventeen present. The name Elective Study club has been chosen to designate the club known last year as the East Side Shakespeare club, and this year will study current event magazines, with every third meeting in the nature of a special program.

Friends of Mrs. Arthur Conklin of Grants Pass will be grieved to learn she is at the point of death. Mrs. Conklin was district chairman of state suffrage of Oregon four years ago and gave an address on art and architecture at the meeting of the District Federation of Women's Clubs held here last year.

The November reading of a play to be given by the members of the Drama league has been postponed until Monday, November 20, at 7:30 o'clock at the library.

Frank Ray returned Thursday from Berkeley, Cal., where he accompanied his parents and sister. Mr. and Mrs. Ray will reside in Berkeley the coming winter.

The Hyacinth circle of the Presbyterian church will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. E. N. Warner on West Main street.

Mrs. L. E. Wakeman was hostess to the Nullo Bridge club Thursday afternoon at her home on North Oakdale.

The Women's Home Missionary Society met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. A. Meeker.

The social evening indulged in by the Medford band at the band hall on Thursday evening was a tremendous success. There were present over 30 members. Several of which have been recently admitted to membership in the organization. The main object of the gathering, which was well accomplished was the opportunity afforded the old and new members to become more intimate with each other. The feature of the evening probably was the optimism displayed and the great emphasis that was placed on the future of the Medford band. The band after a short but delightful practice adjourned to take advantage of the tasty refreshments that were offered by the "good eats" committee and spent the balance of the evening in discussing topics pertaining to the general advancement of the organization. Bandmaster Rowland informed the meeting that the instrumentation of the band this winter would be all that could be desired and the announcement that there would be a vocal as well as a saxophone quartet comprised of band members was enthusiastically received. There was a general discussion in which most of the members took part, and several important subjects were broached. The decision to hold one main rehearsal each week was very popular and on being put to a vote it was unanimously decided to hold the weekly practice on Monday evenings at 7:45. The refreshment committee, Messrs. Clark, Black, Wood, Petty and Miksche were tendered a hearty vote of thanks for undertaking to provide such a pleasant evening. So enthused were the musicians over the success of their initial social that it was resolved to make it a monthly occurrence. The present officers of the band are: President, E. C. Root, Secretary, H. E. Clark; treasurer, T. A. Pifer; committee, Messrs. Lane, Stennett and Colvig.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. C. A. Meeker on Friday afternoon with about forty ladies present. Mrs. T. G. Heine was elected president to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Mrs. J. H. Carlin. After the business meeting, Mrs. Heine, assisted by a number of the ladies, took the guests for a trip in the south, visiting schools in the southland. In appreciation of the splendid work done, Mrs. Carlin was given a shower and received many pretty and useful gifts. The hostess, assisted by Mesdames Lawton, Manning and W. H. Meeker, served delicious refreshments of tea and cake. At a late hour the ladies reluctantly took their leave, hoping for another such pleasant meeting in the near future.

The S. T. club was entertained on Friday evening at the home of Miss Doris Layne at her home on Twelfth street. The evening was pleasantly spent with fancy work and social conversation, after which a dainty two-course luncheon was served by the hostess. The following were present: Lorena Stratton, Wanita Carstens, Miss Aiken, Margaret English, Vivian Stewart, Myrl Davis, Myrtle Purkypile and Edna Marquis.

DON'T SCOLD, MOTHER!
THE CROSS CHILD IS BILIOUS, FEVERISH

Look at Tongue! If Coated, Clean Little Stomach, Liver, Bowels.

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, bad breath, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomachache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeiters sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup. -Adv.

HARVARD DEFEATS PRINCETON 3 TO 0 BY A FIELD GOAL

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 11.—The football teams of Harvard and Princeton met in their annual game here this afternoon before the largest crowd of the season. Close to 40,000 spectators were present when the two eleven took the field under excellent playing conditions. A high wind made the handling of punts difficult.

A field goal by Horween in the third period was the margin of Harvard's victory over an almost equally matched Princeton eleven in the stadium today. Defensively the Tigers proved Harvard's equal and stopped many Crimson plays which had been effective against other teams. Offensively, Harvard was able at several times to gain enough ground through Casey's elusive runs to threaten Princeton's goal. Only by abortive attempts at long goals from the field did the Tigers menace the Harvard line.

Princeton's reliance in its extremity was the forward pass from various formations, but generally that failed. The Tiger team, defeated for the first time this season, went into tears as they slouched off the field. Harvard supporters hailed with cheers Casey for his effective running attack and Horween for his accurate toe.

Just Suppose—

Suppose that you were at a musicale in a private home or in a public concert room.

Suppose that a great singer whom you had been invited to hear, or had paid an admittance fee to hear, got up before you and sang in such a way that his voice sounded like a talking machine.

What would you think, and what would you do?

You would think that the singer was trying to play a joke on you and you would be offended, and if you had paid money at the door, you would demand its return.

No one expects realism from a talking machine

You do not expect a singer's real voice to sound like his talking machine records, and of course you don't expect his talking machine records to sound like his voice.

This is the vital distinction between the New Edison and all talking machines.

The New Edison is not a talking machine

When you hear a great artist in concert work or upon the stage, that artist's voice sounds exactly as it would sound when Re-created by the New Edison. In other words, there is absolutely no difference.

Come to our store and hear The NEW EDISON

Before you decide what is to be the principal gift this year to your family, come to our store and hear the New Edison. Your family, any home. You will be welcome, and you will not be urged to buy.

between an artist's real voice and Edison's Re-Creation of his voice.

Proved 300 Times

The fact that Edison's new invention, the New Edison, Re-creates the human voice with such literal fidelity that the living voice cannot be distinguished from the Re-creation of it has been demonstrated in public more than 300 times.

Great artists such as Marie Rappold, Anna Case, Alice Velet, Christine Miller, Arthur Middleton and Thomas Chalmers, standing beside the New Edison, have sung alternately with it, and it is a fact, which can be proved by accounts of these astounding tests in more than two hundred of America's leading newspapers, that it was impossible for the audience to distinguish the artists' living voices from Edison's Re-Creation of them on his latest and greatest invention, the New Edison.

Will there be Real Music in your home at Christmas?

The New Edison will bring into your home the literal Re-Creation of the voices—and instrumental performances—of the world's great artists.

When you hear Zenatello's magnificent tenor, or the wonderful voices of Matzenauer and Destinn, as Re-created by the New Edison, you are hearing those voices exactly as they sound upon the opera stage.

If you have a New Edison in your home, you don't have to imagine how a great artist's voice really sounds. You know how it sounds when you have heard it Re-created by the New Edison.
