

DEUTSCHLAND OFF ON SECOND START FOR FATHERLAND

NEW LONDON, Conn., Nov. 21.—The German merchant submarine Deutschland left here shortly after 2 o'clock this afternoon for Bremen. The Deutschland left at 2:20 p. m. She was flying her flags and the crew was all on deck as she passed down the harbor. One of the Scott company tugs was at the pier when she started, but the undersea craft had no need of assistance. The tug followed her down the river. This was the second start of the Deutschland for home from this port. The first was made early Friday morning, when, under convoy of the tugs T. A. Scott, Jr., and Cassie, she slipped quietly out of her berth and down the river. Off Race Rock light, however, she rammed and sank the T. A. Scott, Jr., with its crew, and had to return to her berth for repairs. Meanwhile several suits for damages were brought against the undersen craft, but yesterday bonds were filed to cover these suits, and with repairs completed the freighter was only awaiting favorable conditions before again starting homeward. After passing the lighthouse at the entrance to the harbor the Deutschland headed for the west, apparently intending to set a straight course for the Race to take advantage of the tide and wind in passing through the narrow passage of the harbor.

QUARANTINE FOR PLANT DISEASES

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 21.—A federal quarantine against the importation from other countries of all plants except such as are considered highly desirable by the United States department of agriculture, was recommended today by the state and federal agricultural departments in conference here to devise ways to combat the white pine blister rust which threatens the destruction of the white pines in the United States and Canada. The conference agreed that a dead line should be established along the western borders of Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Arkansas and Louisiana, across which there should be no shipments of white pine seedlings or of current and gooseberry slips on which the blister is propagated, in order to control the spread of the disease.

GREEK STEAMER SUNK BY U-BOAT

ATHENS, Nov. 21.—The Spetzias was torpedoed by a submarine this morning. At least one life was lost.

The foregoing probably refers to the Greek steamship Spetzias, of 1904 tons gross, owned in Piraeus.

There is also a Greek battleship, Spetzias, which in September was reported from Athens to have joined the Anglo-French naval forces in Greek waters. She displaces 4804 tons and is an old warship which was reconstructed in 1910.

WIRES CUT SOUTH OF CHIHUAHUA CITY

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 21.—A report was received in Juarez today from Chihuahua City saying the telegraph line had been cut south of Chihuahua City. This is said to have caused much uneasiness in the state capital and the return of the fear that Villa may attack the city soon from the south.

Mexican Consul Bravo denied the reported interruption in the telegraph service. Refugees coming from Chihuahua City last night reported to government agents that a series of skirmishes had occurred between General Carlos Ozuena's command and the Villa bandits south of Bachimba canyon.

ALLIES ENTERING MONASTIR SECURE MUCH MATERIAL

PARIS, Nov. 21.—The allied troops entered Monastir on the heels of the retreating Bulgarians, according to a description of the fall of the city telegraphed the Petit Journal by its correspondent on the Serbian front. The dispatch, dated Sunday says: "The last Bulgarian patrol of 17 troopers left the city at 9:30 a. m. Just as the allies' advance guard marched through the streets. The night before, the enemy, after defiling thrice through the main street, pillaged all the stores and toward midnight set fire to the ambulances, barracks, forage depots and all buildings of a military nature. "The retreat began about 3 a. m. The officials had evacuated the night before and nearly 3,000 Bulgarian families left two days ago. The infantry was not clear of the outskirts until 8 a. m. "The enemy, during the last two days, has abandoned an enormous quantity of material. We found among other things at Monastir a number of locomotives which will be precious to us."

CHAMBERLAIN OFF FOR WASHINGTON

PORTLAND, Or., Nov. 21.—An amendment to the federal constitution, providing for the direct election of president and vice-president will be introduced in the forthcoming short session of congress by Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, who left for Washington yesterday.

Senator Chamberlain is chairman of the committee on military affairs and wants to be in the capital a few days before the opening of congress. He will travel east over the newly electrified Milwaukee railroad and will stop at various places of interest en route, arriving in Washington about November 30. Congress convenes Monday, December 4. He is accompanied on the trip by his daughter, Miss Fanny Chamberlain.

"The confusion attending the recent election," said the senator in discussing his proposed amendment, "demonstrated to almost everyone that our present method of electing the president is awkward, more or less uncertain, and fraught with the possibility of circumventing the will of the people. There is no need or use of the electoral college. The people are well able to choose their own president."

BELGIAN CARDINAL ABSENT FROM ROME

ROME, Nov. 21.—Cardinal Mercier, primate of Belgium, will not be present at the consistory of December 4 for the investment of cardinals, as he does not desire to ask permission of the German authorities to make the journey or risk the chance of another demonstration such as occurred on the occasion of his visit to Rome last January. No foreign cardinals will attend the consistory except Cardinal Amette, archbishop of Paris.

RUSSIAN DUMA WINS IN CLASH WITH AUTOCRACY

PETROGRAD, Nov. 21.—Favorable developments in the last few days which witnessed the recovery of Russia from a most serious political crisis make it now possible to describe briefly events which brought a collision between the government and the duma. The crisis was an inevitable clash between the present cabinet and insistent public opinion which loudly protested against the government.

The Associated Press is informed on the best authority that an agreement has been reached which has satisfied representatives of the people.

The event is interpreted generally as a victory for the duma. Its chief significance is the political awakening of real public consciousness which for perhaps the first time in Russian history has become articulate and can be ignored no longer. Among the effects expected from the present agreement is final burial of all rumors of a separate peace.

The gravity of the recent crisis is indicated by an article in the Russkaya Vedomosty of Moscow, which states:

"The crisis in obtaining supplies and the experiments in remedying the situation, the present status of foreign politics, new limitations of the press, dark rumors and misinformation which are making the people nervous—all these are only single aspects of the question. Events clearly foretold a collision between the interests of the country and the present situation of the government.

"The government does not believe in the same measures as do the people. In this lies the greatest international danger. This cannot go on longer. Without harmony between the government and the country we cannot be victorious or preserve the internal life from disorder. Only a public-spirited and responsible ministry would be able to hold back the empire from the precipice."

EDITOR ON TRIAL FOR INSPIRING MURDER

THOMPSON FALLS, Mont., Nov. 21.—John Manire, editor of a local newspaper, went to trial today on a charge of having induced Miss Edith Colby, a reporter, to kill A. C. Thomas, a politician. Manire, acting as his own attorney, told the court that Prosecuting Attorney Parks of Sanders county, and A. S. Ainsworth, manager of the paper, who is also charged with having induced Miss Colby to shoot Thomas, were guilty of perjury in seeking to have Manire's trial continued.

Judge J. M. Clements of Helena, who is presiding, stated there was nothing before the court concerning the matter and later overruled a motion of the prosecutor for a continuance. The selection of a jury was begun.

pressure. Berlin reports the entente advance here as a "feeling out" of the Germano-Bulgarian positions by reconnoitering detachments. The new line is indicated by press dispatches to lie about seventeen miles northward of Monastir and is reported to be strongly entrenched and defended in part by fresh German forces.

East of the Monastir region Berlin declares Serbian attempts to advance were repulsed.

West of Monastir the Italians, according to Paris, repulsed a counter-attack.

On the Somme and Avere fronts in northern France the fighting has been confined to artillery engagements.

private capitalists invest today in coal land for their great-grandchildren to lease." Director Smith is not willing to commit himself to the principal of government ownership. But he asserts that "competition seems to have failed of late years to benefit the consumer of coal," and he believes that "public regulation will be fair, and indeed, in the long run, will prove beneficial to the landowner as well as to the consumer." He thinks that the federal trade commission should be given the power to fix coal prices, after a determination of cost of production.

(Continued From Page One.) that the company will not permit to organize. "We will not strike or go out to help them, but we will use our best efforts to obtain better conditions for them." President Gompers in the course of his remarks said: "Eight-Hour Day in January. "We expect that the railroad brotherhoods will on January 1 next inaugurate the eight-hour work day, and I think I can truly say to you that whatever arises, whatever befalls, you have the undivided support of the organized workmen and women as represented by the American Federation of Labor. "When the money power of the United States failed in the attempt to corrupt the electorate and when their plans were upset by the votes of the citizenship of the United States, the capitalists showed their colors. They met and gave out a declaration that they were going to antagonize every effort put forth by organized labor. "But men of wealth, I say to you, be careful how far you go. There is a limit even to human endurance. You throw down the gauntlet and we accept the challenge. When the time comes it will be another case of 'Jay on Maeduff, and damned be he who first cries enough.'" Gompers' Overcome. At the conclusion of his address, President Gompers was overcome by his emotions and was obliged to retire to an ante-room, where he lay down for fifteen minutes. He afterward returned to the platform. The convention authorized the executive council to act with the White Rats Actors' union of America, in an effort to bring about an organization of all classes of actors. This action was taken as a substitute for a resolution that the White Rats charter be withdrawn and that the president of the federation be instructed to call a convention on or before January 1, 1917, for an international union of actors covering all branches of the profession. The White Rats union, which holds exclusively charter rights from the federation, is composed almost exclusively of vaudeville performers. The resolution which was rejected was introduced in the interest of several unaffiliated actors' organizations. W. S. Carter, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Firemen and Enginemen, declared in a speech that the danger that confronts all working people today is "the coercion or subordination of the public press by the master class." "The coming of penny paper," he added, "has done more than anything else to place the press under the domination of advertisers. Unfortunately labor has but little to do with advertising—practically all the advertisements come from the master class."

Most Eminent Medical Authorities Endorse It. You will receive free medical advice after Dr. Pierce's chemist has examined the urine—this will be carefully done without charge, and you will be under no obligation.
