GROUNDS FIRM FOR

The Page theater will resonn Wednesday night with high school songs and yells and the music of the high school band when between shows the high school will stage the final rally stirring up enthusiasm for the game with Ashland the day following.

Inspection this morning of the ball ground field, where the game will be played, showed the ground firm and in the main dry. Only three mud holes are noticeable, and these will be filled with sawdust before game. A firm field will be greatly in Medford's favor.

Last night the team practiced or the Washington school grounds, play being out of the question on Jackson field on account of the mud. The squad is devoting the evenings to a practice of open play, perfecting the aerial line of attack.

The reactionary press was mistaken-it was they who represented a dying cause, and La Follette, Johnson and Poindexter a living one. But Bourbons never learn and never forget. They will continue to voice reaction. They nounced today that the testimony inrepresent the very elements in politics that the real pro-dicated the government's new co-opgressives have won success by opposing.

There can be no harmony between real progressives and standpatters. They do not belong in the same party. Efforts to harmonize only emphasize the discords.
