EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

The last time I wrote for The Daily Mail Tribune, I promised to say something in this batch of Eaglelets with regard to our school work along industrial lines. Last Friday, November 24, the boys and girls industrial club held their regular monthly meeting, elected their officers and arranged for the work of the season. The following persons were elected to fill the offices, to serve during the season: President, Theodore Florey; vice-president, Nell Coy; secretary, Ethel Riley; treasurer, Aden Hazelton; editor, Freda Leabo; organist, Vert Grover; advisor, Prof. W. O. Wheeler. Then plans were taken for the work, to prepare for the industrial and county fairs, and each pupil selected the particular line of work they expected to take up. Miss Verta Grover, sewing; Joyce Von der Hellen, baking (Miss Von der Hellen took up baking last year and won a prize, but not the first prize in the county contest, so she is going to try again); Master Cyril Haak, gardening; the task for last year and would have won the prize in the county fair but did not enter his samples); Aden Hazelton, corn culture, (last year he took up the culture of corn and won the first prize and a trip to the state fair, and now he is going to try his hand at not only the production of the corn, but the most profitable way of disposing of the production after it is raised); Theodore Florey, poultry raising. Division 2: Frank Branden, handkerchiefs; Wilfred Haak, earning and home beautification; Emma McCaslin and Francis McCaslin, baking; Carl Lorenz, potato raising; Ethel Riley, sewing and canning; Wade Lyon, gardening; Hugo Von der Hellen, poultry raising; Walter Shoeler, gardening; Nell Coy, sewing; Estella Berts, canning; Freda Leabo, sewing; Mary Riley, sewing; Willie Cornell, gardening; Lily Van Sooy, gardening; Maudie White, baking; Donald Von der Hellen, potato raising; Ruth Grover, baking; Merl Jack, potato raising; Walter Hadelft, gardening; Roscoe Roberts, pork production; Edward Clark, gardening. They all are starting off with buoyant spirits and next fall we expect to have results that will raise the rest of the schools in the county to sit up and take notice. Last Saturday there was another meeting of the farmers and their friends in Brown's Hall to hear E. H. Hurd explain the workings of the Farmer's Credit, or loan law. Notwithstanding the disagreeable weather and muddy roads, there was a good attendance and Mr. Hurd interested us for an hour or more, explaining the workings of the law and telling us how we would have to proceed

CLIMAX OF SILLINESS.

IN CHICAGO the city health department is conducting an experiment upon twelve persons to prove that they can live on 40 cents a day. The diet supplied to this time wasting band consists principally of stewed carrots, stewed beef-neck and rice.

This experiment demonstrates that the silly season is with us again. Everyone knows that anyone, if he has to, can live on 40 cents a day. As a matter of fact, considerably over half the people of the United States are living on less than 40 cents a day.

The report of the federal commission on industrial relations showed that the incomes of 64 per cent of the families of wage earners of all classes, is less than $750 a year, and that 31 per cent of the families earned less than $500, and that the average for all families was $721. The average size of the families was 5.6 members. At 40 cents a day, the cost of food alone for this size family would be $817.60 a year—not including rent, fuel, clothing, illness and other necessities. Yet 79 per cent of the fathers earned less than $700 per year.

There is scarcely a laborer's wife, farmer's wife, mechanic wife or clerk's wife in the country that does not know more than these "scientists" with their human test-tubes can demonstrate about food economy. It is not how we can live cheaper, for most of us are schooled by stern necessity in that line, but how we can live better, that is of real benefit to humanity.

THE COPPERHEAD.

THE Thursday issue of the Portland Oregonian contained a first page cartoon labelled "Thanksgiving in an Oregon soldier's home," depicting the soldier's wife and children sitting down to a thanksgiving feast of bread and water, while the children exclaim "No papa, no turkey." Underneath the Oregon trooper stands in gloom at Calexico while the dove of peace nests in the stacked bayonets.

This is but one of a series of copperhead cartoons published during the past year by the Oregonian. It is a slur against the patriotism of the soldier and his family. Its object is to create discontent, dissatisfaction and mutiny against their commander-in-chief, among the troopers patriotically serving their country and to inspire resentment against the policy of peace with Mexico.

On the same page with the cartoon is a press dispatch from Calexico giving the menu of the Turkey thanksgiving dinner served the Oregon troopers and the athletic program for the day's celebration. There is no distress among the soldiers' families at home. On the contrary there is real thanksgiving that the dove of peace is nesting among the bayonets and that "papa" is not filling a grave on the Mexican desert, as the blood-thirsty Oregonian desires.

"Who Wants war?" parrots this copperhead organ of predatory plutocracy. The Oregonian wants war to despoil the Mexican people of their heritage. If it did not, it would not print such traitorous cartoons.

In order to take advantage of the law. He made it very clear, how we were to proceed to derive the benefits of the law, but there were several points that he did not make perfectly clear to the average farmer, for he did not have time, as the meeting was not called to order until nearly 2 o'clock, and these short days the farmers have to be at home by 5 p. m. to do their chores. He started in to tell how the sinking fund was created, but was interrupted by some having to leave and did not make it as clear as desirable. Another point was how the farmer is to pay the amount at the expiration of the contract, whether it is to be paid in a bulk or in there a certain per centage paid in annually or semi-annually and thus create a fund, so as to have it paid off by the time it is due. There are a number of people in this section, and when I say this section, I mean the Rutte creek and surrounding country, who want to take advantage of the law so as to procure funds to improve and stock up their farms, but are anxious to know more about the law before they venture.

Mr. C. C. Cate went up into the Lake Creek country and held a meeting at the same time that Mr. Hurd was here, but I have not learned the result, although he was booked to talk on the subject of co-operation, but it all drifts into the same channel.

Henry Trusty, the mail carrier between here and Perlat, has planned to have the mail carried by the Free Ferry here by horseback carrier, as the road on this side of the Rogue River is so bad from the ferry to the Hammett ranch that he cannot run his auto, so he takes the mail from the Trail postoffice to the ferry, in the individual mail sacks and is met by the horse back man at the ferry and he distributes the mail. Dave Pense, the road superintendent of the Trail district, has got the road in such a good condition that Mr. Trusty can run his auto stage for some time.

BURIAL SERVICES OF FRANCIS JOSEPH EXTREMELY SIMPLE

VIENNA, Dec. 1.—In the presence of Emperor Charles, the young crown prince, Francis Joseph Otto, the kings of Bulgaria, Bavaria and Saxony, the German crown prince and a large number of Teutonic princes and special envoys from neutral governments, the remains of the late Emperor Francis Joseph were buried this afternoon. The services were extremely simple and lasted only 12 minutes. Emperor Charles, the German prince and relatives of the late emperor, were grouped about the high altar in the cathedral at the foot of which the coffin rested on a black catafalque. The great body of the cathedral was crowded with government officials, army representatives, members of the court and of the neutral diplomatic corps.

Mourning and Vain. The mourning costumes of the many women and neutral officials contrasted sharply with the splendid uniforms, which most of the high mourners wore, including the emperor and other rulers. No flowers were used, everything connected with the ceremony being of severe plainness and simplicity. The body was conveyed to St. Stephen's cathedral over a long route through the city, enormous crowds lining the streets as it passed.

Emperor Charles and other high mourners, awaited the coffin, seated around the catafalque. They arose as it was borne into the cathedral, surrounded by eight pages bearing lighted tapers and shortly afterward Cardinal Piffel began the brief service which was terminated by the kyrie eleison. The absence of any organ accompaniment gave additional simplicity to the service.

Baby Wears Embrace. After the cardinal had sprinkled the coffin, it was replaced in the hearse by the pall bearers and taken to the Capuchin crypt, where it will remain. The mourners followed the hearse on foot to the crypt, where another short service terminated the ceremony. Throughout the obsequies the young crown prince, who is four years old, stood close behind his father, dressed in ermine. Close to him were the two sons and daughters of the late Archduke and their attendant, Francis Ferdinand, by hismorganatic marriage.

Falls came out last Saturday and brought out a beef for Nichols and Ashpole, spent the night with us and went on to Medford the next day. Miss Josie Riley, who is engaged teaching one of the schools in Medford, came out Monday to see a play given by Hill and Riley, by a company of eight negroes. Those who attended, report that it was about the best of the kind that has ever been seen here. Mr. Hill and Riley seem to have the ability to get something good in that line. They had a crowded house.

There was a select company of young men and bachelors met at the bachelor headquarters of W. P. Holbrook for a time, on the 23rd, where they feasted on roast turkey, cake, pies, etc., in the early evening and

SEASON BAND CONCERT TICKETS FOR ONE DOLLAR

The admission fee to the Medford band's winter concert has been decided on and the band is carrying out what was promised some time ago, that is a popular priced admission fee. $1.00 is the price of the season ticket that will admit bearer to the whole services of five concerts that will be given during the coming season. The first concert on December 12th will be worth fully the price of the ticket, and that the general public will be satisfied with the fee is putting it mildly. Then the children's ticket at 10c is another feature that many parents will not fail to take advantage of. These popular band concerts augmented with the best vocal and instrumental talent at such a reasonable admission fee are bound to take in Medford. The band has been working hard during the past month on several selections, descriptive and overtures and the patrons of the concerts may expect a treat in band music this season.

In addition to the fine band music, there will be several vocal solos, duets and quartets, also instrumental solos and readings. The tickets will be on sale immediately and it is hoped that after the most satisfactory

Salts is fine for KIDNEYS, QUIT MEAT Flush the Kidneys at once when Back Hurts or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys. The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders. Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular most extra should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

DOES RHEUMATISM BOTHER YOU?

Many Doctors Use Musterole So many sufferers have found relief in Musterole that you ought to buy a small jar and try it. Just spread it on with the fingers, rub it in. First you feel a gentle glow, then a delicious cooling comfort. Musterole rubs the twinges, loosens up stiffened joints and muscles. Musterole is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. It penetrates to the seat of pain and drives it away, but does not blister the tenderest skin. It takes the place of the mussy, old-fashioned mustard plaster. Musterole is recommended for bronchitis, croup, asthma, pleurisy, lumbago, neuralgia, sprains, bruises, stiff neck, headache and colic of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

DRINK A GLASS OF REAL HOT WATER BEFORE BREAKFAST. Says we will both look and feel clean, sweet and fresh and avoid illness.

Sanitary science has of late made rapid strides with results that are of untold blessing to humanity. The latest application of its untiring research is the recommendation that it is necessary to attend to internal sanitation of the drainage system of the human body as it is to the drains of the house.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by operating the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans up all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the phosphated hot water is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, indigestion, stomach trouble, rheumatic aches, edema who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.
