An exceptionally attractive wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allen Pruett near Eagle Point Thursday at high noon, Nov. 30, when their only daughter Mabel was united in marriage to Mr. Thomas Stanley of Brownboro. Prof. A. J. Hanby of Medford performed the ceremony in the presence of only relatives and a few intimate friends of the couple. Mrs. Roy Stanley was matron of honor and Mr. Roy Stanley, a brother of the groom, acted as best man. The bridal couple plighted their vows beneath an arch of Oregon grape, from which was suspended a large wedding ball of white chrysanthemums. The bride wore a charming gown of white charmeuse and a full length bridal veil caught with orange blossoms and carried a shower of bouquet of white carnations. The matron of honor wore her own wedding gown of white crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Artistic decorations of Oregon grape, ferns and chrysanthemums graced the living and dining rooms an d library.

After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. The bride's table was beautifully decorated with a large center piece of white chrysanthemums and ferns. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley will spend a few weeks visiting relatives in Oakland and San Francisco. The couple were recipients of many beautiful and useful presents. The year both well known in southern Oregon and their many friends wish them many happy years.

Those witnessing the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. William Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stanley and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stanley, Miss Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Pruett and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ross Kline, of Central Point, Miss Sarah Singleton, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Pottenger and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hanby, and the Misses Ella and Belle Phillips, all of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Pruett and son, Mr. Guy Pruett.

A very pleasant surprise was given Miss Anna Sheffield last Saturday evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. E. Boyd on North Central. The evening was spent with games, after which refreshments were served. Those present were Misses Helen Philbrook, Florence Trowbridge, Helen Clark, Allie Hendly, Lorene Hanners and Anna Sheffield, Messrs. Albert Coleman, Elder Conser, Loal Wilson, Lee Watson, Arthur Turpin and Kern Caldwell.

The Grizzlies, between fifty and sixty strong, surprised Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merrick Friday evening. It was a farewell party to two of the most active Grizzlies, and it is with great regret their friends see them go east. About six tables played cards, others danced in the sun room and the remainder made merry around the fire place with elaborate refreshments served later.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hedden gave a Thanksgiving dinner Thursday to their children, grand children and great grand child. There were nineteen present, they being Mrs. Arthur Jackson and two children of Grants Pass, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hedden and their children, Mr. and Mrs. George Kunzman and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Bliton and son, Mrs. E. W. Carder, Miss Mildred Bliton and Dean Carder.

WOMEN'S CLUB NOTES

The Greater Medford Club met November 27 at St. Mark's Hall. Mrs. Hoon, who is leaving Medford, resigned as secretary of the club. Her resignation was regretfully accepted, and no one has, as yet, been elected to take her place. Mrs. Schieffelin was appointed by Mrs. Charles A. Casner, state federation president, to act on state board of censors of moving pictures. An appeal was read from the state organization for American relief, no action being taken. The red cross seals advertising matter has arrived and the club will take up the matter soon. Immediately after the club adjourned, the card tables were arranged for bridge whist and five hundred, and were quickly filled. Water color pictures were donated by Mrs. Waters, which were given as prizes for the highest score at Pinot and progressive bridge and five hundred, going to Mrs. Wagner, Mrs. Kuhl and Mrs. Trimbull, after which refreshments were served by a committee consisting of Mrs. Newman, Miss Whitlock and Mrs. Bohn. A program consisting of a solo by Miss Bess Bryan, accompanied by Mrs. Clint McCurdy, which was heartily enjoyed. Miss Griffith gave a paper on "Art in the Public Schools," which was much appreciated. Miss Warner favored the audience with a piano solo, which was enjoyed. The fancy work which was all beautiful, was the hand work of Mesdames. Bowman, Hanners, Coalberry, Beach, Bohn, Waters, Hemstreet, Bird, Tinker, Loader and others. Mrs. Wagner, in charge of the home cooking board, had many delicious things for sale, and was well patronized.

The art exhibit was very interesting, while the display was not as large as hoped for, it was good. Mrs. Bailey from Phoenix, had 12 pictures consisting of paintings in old water colors and pastel, and some beautiful etchings. Her style is all her own, and the work deserves credit. Mrs. Vance exhibited five beautiful paintings, some of which were prize winners at the county fair. Miss Kate McMurrie exhibited a fine collection of water colors and five hand pencil drawings. She has been studying in Berkeley. Mrs. DuBois, one of the active members in the league displayed some beautiful paintings in oil, most of which was local scenery.

sketched from nature. One of Rox Ann, painted in the autumn colors, was greatly admired. Mrs. Proebting had on exhibit one exquisite painting from still life. Mr. Hanson exhibited his oil painting of the Madonna and child that was exhibited at San Francisco. It is a valuable painting, as is also his landscape. Miss May Phipps exhibited two excellent paintings, one of roses, and one of her pet dog, Jinks, that received many compliments. Mrs. Ellsworth had a collection of Rogue River scenes in water colors that were very pretty. Mrs. Johnson's exhibit consisted of attractive crayons in small pictures. Mrs. Heine, as usual, exhibited some of her large paintings. One that especially attracted attention was Mill Creek Falls, painted from nature. She had many beautiful paintings on display in oils, water colors, and pastel. Mrs. Satchwell's exhibit consisted of "The Koman Girl at the Fountain," in oils, which is a copy of the original painting from the metropolitan museum of art in New York, and some beautiful landscapes in pastels, and one large Crater Lake that was admired by all. Mr. McDonald failed to get his pictures in from the Elk Resort in time for the exhibit, which was a great disappointment to the league, but his pictures will soon be on exhibit to the public in Medford.

The display of hand-painted china was exhibited by Mrs. Seeley and Mrs. Morrison.

Mrs. Normie kindly loaned her valuable collection of work by the Alaska Indians, consisting of basketry, beading and fur rugs. Mrs. Hanson loaned a counterpane that is almost priceless in value as the art of making them is now lost. Mrs. Price also displayed a beautiful bed spread of hand work.

In the evening Miss Lemart from Ashland, read the palms of both young and old, between the dances. Excellent music was furnished the dances by Heine's Orchestra.

The dancant given by the Greater Medford club Thanksgiving at the Medford Hotel, under the direction of Mrs. Conroy, was one of the most brilliant parties of the season. The three-course banquet was served at 12 o'clock. Entertainment for the evening was furnished by Miss Geraldine Thies, Solo, Andrews quartette, Mrs. Hazelroeg, Mrs. Knapp, Messrs. Fish and Andrews; Fletcher Fish, solo.

Interest was kept up during the evening by the Ball Mall dance, the candy dance, the baloon and serpentine dance, the prize dance, and a solo. The shadow dance by a student of Mrs. Hovious was very beautiful.

Frank Matthews has returned to his home in Eagle Point from British Columbia.

AT this time of the year the President of the United States sets forth in a proclamation the reason why we should offer up thanks for the bounties and blessings of the past year. The fates have been kind to us and we have escaped the scourge of war and the sufferings which follow.

While you are celebrating Thanksgiving do not forget that in many a foreign home there is an empty chair at the head of the table and hungry women and children who are not as fortunate as ourselves.

You can add much to your own happiness by helping these unfortunates who are suffering through no fault of their own. This Committee will help you by forwarding in full, without any deduction, any contribution (no matter how small) you feel like sending and further assure you that every penny will go toward the relief of the widows and orphans of Germany, and will be distributed under the supervision of our Ambassador to Germany, the Hon. James W. Gerard.

Checks should be made to the order of JOHN D. CRIMMINS, Treasurer, 21 Park Row, New York or CHARLES G. DAWES, 220 South State Street, Chicago
