GOLD HILL NUGGETS

Miss Bessie Newton arrived on Thursday from Corvallis for a visit as well as to transact business for Mrs. C. H. Price, formerly of this place and manager of the Home Dining hall. Miss Newton acted for Mrs. Price in the transferring of the establishment from Mrs. P. Langdell, late lessee, to Mrs. D. H. Miller. A. E. Kellogg and family were guests of Medford relatives for Thanksgiving day.

Lance & Co. received a large shipment of flour and feed Thursday.

Misses Frances and Jeffy and Harvey Arnold of Dixie, Wash., arrived Monday for a visit with their relatives, W. R. Walker, and family.

Mrs. H. A. Tibbitts and children and Miss Flora Longfellow left for Cottage Grove Wednesday night. Miss Longfellow has been visiting at the Tibbitts home for some time. Mrs. Tibbitts and the children are expected home Sunday.

Misses Vera and Velma Davidson were in Medford Friday.

Misses Margaret and Jeanne Chisholm left Friday morning for Rogue River, where they will remain until Sunday.

Miss Millie Hodges returned home Wednesday evening from Ashland, where she has been for the past fortnight. She was accompanied by her cousin, Miss Bernice Meyer, for a short visit.

Master Harold Grant arrived from Medford Wednesday for a visit of a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Patrick.

John B. Palmer, Gold Hill's artist-photographer, was a business visitor to Medford Friday.

Mrs. Gwendolyn Marvin of Medford spent several days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stickle, the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Upton, M. D. Bowers, Miss Dorothy Smith, R. P. Tucker, L. O. Walker, Lloyd Miller, Bill Blackett and Owen Woods were some of the Gold Hill people to witness the Medford-Ashland football game on Thanksgiving day.

Miss Ruth Cady, one of the local high school teachers, went to Ashland

Thursday to spend several days with friends. She was expected home on Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rippey are now residents of Gold Hill. Mrs. Rippey was formerly Miss Arlene Disbrow of this place.

Wednesday night about eighty invited guests and members of the Rebekah and Odd Fellow lodges assembled at the latter's hall Wednesday evening for a social after the usual business meeting. The program consisted of the following: Piano solo, with drums accompaniment, "American Conquest," Mrs. B. E. Adams and son, Robert; drill, "Future Rebekahs and Odd Fellows," by eight girls and boys; bass solo, "Missing," John Kelsey, Miss Ruth Cady, accompanist; recitation, Master Richard Adams; piano solo, "Arab Dance," Miss Agnes Dietrich; reading, "When Father Rode the Goat," Mrs. B. E. Adams; piano solo, "Old Black Joe," with variations, Earl Adams; reading, "The Letter E," Mrs. P. Langdell; piano solo, "Sounds From the Ringing Rocks," Miss Ruth Cady; remarks about cake which was made especially for the evening. Tabloux, "Odd Fellows Protecting the Widows and Orphans." Adjournment to the banquet hall, where the cake was cut into 160 pieces. The cake was about thirty inches in diameter and had the inscription, "Amethyst Rebekah Lodge No. 97, I. O. F." in the lodge colors. After the banquet games were played until a late hour.

The Epworth league had a special meeting and social at the George Iverson residence Tuesday night. After the election of Mrs. H. E. Wharton as president, upon the resignation of Mrs. Iverson, and of Miss Faye Schroeder as fourth vice-president, and the securing of a number of new members, chorales and other games were played until the taffy was cooked, when the usual process was carried out. All had a most enjoyable time.

A large number of Gold Hill people attended the dance at Moonville on Thanksgiving night.

Henry Schumann-Heink was a business visitor to Medford Thursday.

ALONG ROGUE RIVER

Mr. and Mrs. B. Clarno are visiting with Mrs. Clarno's sons, Walter and Warren Bergman at Irving Oregon, where they expect to stay for a month. Walter and Warren Bergman are natives of Jackson county, but the last few years have been operating a general blacksmith shop at Irving.

W. Grandall was on business at Eagle Point Monday.

Jasper Hannah returned from Central Point Tuesday evening, where he spent several days on business.

Peter Bety, C. Bergman, B. Clarno, I. Hannan, Mr. Maxfield and many others shipped turkeys to San Francisco. Although the turkeys were not as large as usual, about a ton came from this vicinity.

Last Friday evening a box social was held at the Reese creek school house. Financially and socially the entertainment is reported to have been very satisfactory.

Elmer Simons and Charlie Markus, who have been cutting wood for Dr. Kirchgessner, are now engaged in the same line on the Scott ranch.

Mr. Gordon Cox transacted business at Eagle Point Tuesday.

Tim Darley of the Hill Crest orchard, spent a few hours among friends last Sunday along the Rogue.

Clarence Middlebush is hauling goods from the valley.

On Wednesday, November 29, a meeting will be held at Trail. The object of this meeting is to enlist the co-operation of the inhabitants along the Rogue River to assist financially and by teams furnished to improve the roads from Sams valley road junction to Trail. Dave Pentz, the road supervisor, and presumably others, are at the head of the movement. We sincerely trust that they will be successful in their undertaking, for we surely need a road enabling us to go to the valley during the wet season without spending several days on the journey.

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

Frank Davis and Miss Ruth Van Dyke were married on Sunday morning at the home of Mrs. William Mathes, 115 North Main street. Rev. H. A. Carnahan, Presbyterian pastor, performing the ceremony. House decorations were a profusion of green foliage, a wealth of white and pink buds and blossoms adorning the dining table where thirty guests partook of a dainty three-course wedding breakfast. Miss Mary Mathes, cousin of the bride, played the wedding march. Among those present all were near relatives of the bride and groom, with the exception of Professor Miller of the Dorris, Cal., schools, and Miss Frances Kleinhammer of this city, a sister of the bride. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Davis, residing on the Ashland-

Talent road. He is an industrious young man and at present is in charge of the creamery at Dorris. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Van Dyke of this city, and granddaughter of Mrs. Sarah Van Dyke of Medford, and Mrs. William Mathes of Ashland, both of whom are among the earliest pioneers of this valley. She is a graduate of the Polytechnic school here, having fitted herself for a business calling, and as a bookkeeper has proved capable and efficient in the employment of several leading firms both in Ashland and Medford. The newly wedded couple were the recipients of many useful and valuable presents. They left for their new home in Dorris on the Sunday morning train.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Congregational church will hold its final meeting for 1916 on Wednesday, December 6. Mrs. F. G. Swedenburg will be hostess at her home, corner of Iowa and Oregon streets. The concluding gathering of the year in line with established custom partakes of the nature of a reception, consequently the Aid society, and in fact all the ladies of the church, are cordially invited.

Among the many jolly social reunions held on Thanksgiving day, a notable one occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Saunders, the guests being near relatives from the Nims, Bagley and Dean clans.

T. M. Lynch, dray and expressman, is able to be around again after protracted illness developing into a serious case of blood poisoning.

E. A. Hoag and daughter, Edna, have returned to Ashland after an absence of six years. They came direct from Farmville, W. Va., though residing also in California for a time. The family formerly occupied the present Barber home on upper Granite street. They are rejoiced to get back to southern Oregon and are on the lookout for a permanent home in this vicinity.

Hillah Temple, Mystic Shrine, elected officers for 1917 last Friday evening as follows: Illustrious potentate, W. E. Newcomb; chief rabban, George T. Collins of Medford; assistant rabban, H. C. Sparr; high priest and prophet, Rev. P. K. Hammond, rector of Trinity Episcopal church; oriental guide, Stuart Saunders; treasurer, C. H. Vampell; recorder, W. H. McNair; first ceremonial master, Joseph Poor; second ceremonial master, Thomas M. Moffat; Medford; director, H. O. Frohbach; marshal, W. C. Leever of Central Point; captain of the guard, M. F. Cyester; outer guard, C. C. Weisenburger; captain Arab patrol, R. P. Cornelius. The new directorate was installed by C. W. Nims, past illustrious potentate, after which a banquet and smoker were in order. C. W. Nims and C. H. Vaupar were chosen to represent the temple at the imperial council, which meets at Minneapolis, June 26-28, 1917. The membership of the organization is over 350, widely scattered. A departure for 1917 will be a distinct shrine directory, which will give not only the name, but also the address of each individual member, whereever dispersed, instead of embodying the roster with that of the allied Masonic bodies here, as heretofore.

The Woman's Relief Corps auxiliary of the G. A. R. elected officers last Saturday. Mrs. Nellie Peters was chosen president; Mrs. Ida Jennings, senior vice; Mrs. Ann Gregory, junior vice; Mrs. Louisa Swingle, guard; conductor, Mrs. Sophia Ganiere; chaplain, Mrs. Jessica Porter. Following these selections, the president in the meantime will designate the appointive officers, the entire list to be installed early in January, 1917.

Hum Pracht and Joe Alnutt will open in the near future a new billiard parlor in the Elks building, the rooms formerly occupied by McGee's dry goods store, being secured for the purpose. They will install four tables. All the appointments will be on the metropolitan de luxe order. Alnutt's cigar factory will be moved to the premises and the firm will wholesale and retail tobacco and smokers' articles. The new installation will make five billiard centers in town, in addition to private and club establishments.

Alpha chapter of the Eastern Star elects officers Tuesday evening, December 5. Meeting is called for 7:30 o'clock prompt.

The high school anniversary play will take place in the gym on Friday evening, December 8. The attraction staged this year will be "The Elopement of Ellen," a production replete with humorous situations. The advertising announcements heralding the event are in keeping with the merits of the performance.

W. W. Ussher, manager of the local telephone service, has word from his brother, Dr. Clarence Ussher, that he is in the Presbyterian hospital, New York City, steadily recovering from an accident sustained while boarding a street car in the metropolis. Dr. Ussher was formerly a medical missionary stationed at Van, Asiatic Turkey, under auspices of the American board, and was compelled to abandon his duties there owing to the war. He visited relatives here a few months ago.

The Elks memorial services were conducted Sunday afternoon, according to program heretofore outlined. In spite of threatening weather conditions, the services were largely attended, the observance being of increasing interest every year.

The Baptists of Emanuel church, Klamath Falls, are building a new edifice, temporarily for church purposes and ultimately to be used as a parsonage. With this end in view, the building will be of bungalow design, and for the time being its interior will be confined in extent to one large room for the purposes of worship. When the church proper materializes the bungalow will be partitioned off for a manse.

Rudolph Gallatin, father of L. H. Gallatin, died at his son's home in the Valleyview district, north of town, last Friday. He was 76 years of age and had been visiting relatives in this vicinity for about three months. He was a native of Switzerland. The body was sent east for interment, leaving Sunday for Atchison, Kan.

Rev. J. G. Adams, whose family formerly resided here on Allison street, and who moved to Corning, Cal., has again changed his residence to Long Beach. His daughter, Frances Willard, was married November 14 to W. D. Rannels, a rancher in the vicinity of Corning. Mr. Adams is best remembered here as an aggressive and uncompromising advocate of the cause of state and national prohibition, working early and late in its behalf.

J. A. Tate, workman on carpenter crews of the Southern Pacific, Shasta division, was renewing acquaintances and visiting old family surroundings here last week. He has recently been in the railroad's general hospital at San Francisco for a minor operation and returned to work this week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Miles of Medford joined the several relatives in the Wagner families at a reunion on Thanksgiving day, the throng being guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kinney.

"Kordon's" Helps to Clear Baby's Head.

Modern mothers don't let their children snifle. They know that a tube of genuine Kordon's Catarrhal Jelly will make the child breathe more comfortably. Since 1889, 20 million intelligent American mothers have used Kordon's for cold-in-head or nasal catarrh. Some druggists offer you complimentary trial cans. All druggists offer 25 cent tubes with the understanding that if the first tube does not do you a dollar's worth of good, you can get your quarter back from Kordon's Catarrhal Jelly, Minneapolis, Minn.

A practical illustration of the genuine Thanksgiving spirit was afforded by the Fourth Street mission, which fed sixty people with a substantial dinner on that date. In addition, many of the needy unable to be present were remembered. Churches and individuals contributed liberally in this worthy charitable object which is annual among the mission's activities.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Peil were hosts to a number of intimate friends on Saturday evening, roast goose predominating at a dinner feast elaborated in every detail. Carls were an aftermath, the genial hosts trumping a success as roval entertainers, guests following suit in a decision to this effect.

Amos Dahuff, local resident on Palm avenue, in a series of articles in the Portland Journal, is taking on the endevils in behalf of a general observance of the Sabbath day, reinforcing argument by quoting object lessons in support of his contention.

Two fire trucks have recently been shipped down near the entrance to city park, off the Plaza. One alleged reason is that the work authorities feared the growths in order to rid the locality of looters who monopolized the centennial shade, an alternative which might appeal to some. To others, however, the charging act appears like a phase of vandalism inasmuch as the park is not a losing camp. Another explanation is that the electric light department so complicated the growths that they had to be exterminated root and branch.

Superintendent of Public Instruction Churchill has announced a program for teachers' examinations to be held at county seats throughout the state, December 20 to 23, inclusive. The schedules cover a wide range of educational qualifications. The firm of Nims & Saunders, local grocers, have presented the Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church with a substantial Singer sewing machine, an necessary which is performing active service these industrial days.

"CASCARETS" FOR A COLD, BAD BREATH OR SICK HEADACHE

Best for Liver and Bowels, for Biliousness, Sour Stomach and Constipation.

Get a 10-cent box now.

Furred Tongue, Bad Colds, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.—Adv.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lax feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brains and how they "perk up" the spirits, 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.
