

BAN ON KILLING PHEASANT HENS ASKED BY LEAGUE

Among recommendations favored by the Oregon Sportsmen's league at its recent meeting at Portland were: Ban on killing female China pheasants.

Cutting trout limit from 75 fish to 50 per day.

Law forbidding possession of more than 100 trout at one time, or catching of more than 100 in seven consecutive days.

Lopping off of two weeks of open season on deer. The present season is from August 15 to October 31. The Sportsmen's league wants the season to open September 1 and close October 31.

Reducing the bag limit on ducks from 30 to 20. It wants to harmonize the state and federal laws in reference to the killing of this bird.

An open season on China pheasants in Hood River county from October 1 to October 10, with a bag limit of three male birds.

Closing the Necanicum river to commercial fishing.

Closing the open season on bear in June, July and August.

The delegates voted that every club in the state was to be assessed 15 cents per capita each year to go into the league's fund. The organization extended its thanks to the press for the kind treatment received during the past year.

It was resolved that a law be enacted permitting the Oregon Sportsmen's league to name two men to the governor who shall be named as members of the Oregon state fish and game commission.

Election of officers was the last thing yesterday afternoon. Chairman E. F. Averill, of the nominating committee, read off the names of the four selected by that committee to serve during 1917. They were unanimously elected.

Here are the officers who will serve next year:

D. Earl C. McFarland, of Portland, president; Leslie Butler, of Hood River, first vice-president; Y. D. Hensill, of Eugene, second vice-president; S. C. Bartrum, of Roseburg, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Bartrum is the only holdover. When he was re-elected he endeavored to make a speech announcing that he had enough of the office, but H. B. Van Duzer, retiring president, would not allow him to talk and he was railroaded into a second term.

Retiring officers: H. B. Van Duzer, president; W. N. ("Wes") Matlock, first vice-president; Dr. J. D. Gill, second vice-president.

The following were elected to the executive committee, each from a different district:

H. B. Van Duzer, of Portland; L. H. Kelly, of Oregon City; M. H. Bauer, of Corvallis; R. L. Ewing, of Medford; Dick McDonald, of Hood River; J. L. Nichols, of Canyon City; Robert Robinson, of Klamath Falls.

MAINE RAILROAD GIVES EMPLOYEES A BONUS

BANGOR, Me., Dec. 6.—The decision of the Bangor & Aroostook railway to give a bonus of 4 per cent on wages earned in the last six months to all employees receiving less than $2000 a year was announced by President Percy R. Todd today.

"There's a Reason"

GOES TO BRAZIL TO HELP LAUNCH APPLE INDUSTRY

Horace Cardinell, who was employed on the Holloway and Bear Creek orchards since June, 1915, to September of this year, has just received an appointment as pomologist for the Brazilian government, together with seven others serving in various capacities. These men are to launch the fruit industry of that country, the representative reporting that at present there are but eight acres planted to apples, and apples are selling for one dollar a dozen. With the exception of one, these men were selected from the Pacific coast because of similar climatic conditions.

Since September Mr. Cardinell has toured California studying the horticulture of that state, and spent some time in the packing houses and commercial orchards about Watsonville. Mr. Cardinell's appointment was due to his wide experience, college training and broad knowledge of the horticulture of the Pacific coast. His salary will be $2400 per year and expenses and transportation there. The Brazilian representative expects to leave New York with his men some time before the holidays. On the seventeen-day trip to Rio de Janeiro they will have a Portuguese tutor to teach them the language. Mr. Cardinell is a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural college with the class of 1915.

GOOD BOOK WEEK FOR BOY SCOUTS

The week of December 4 to 9 is being observed all over the country as "good book week." The plan originated in the Boy Scout movement, and the posters sent out by that organization bear the motto: "Buy the best books for your children. They have also had printed a list of "Books Boys Like Best," which may be consulted at the library and which gives many titles from which to select.

In observance of the occasion, the public library has arranged on separate tables books suitable for gifts, and has for distribution lists recommended by the state library of "Books for Christmas for the Children." It is suggested that those who contemplate making gifts of books shop early and it will then be possible to send for titles which do not happen to be in stock. The library, of course, does not take orders, but is glad to offer any facilities it may have in the way of suggestive lists, book reviews of late fiction—or in many cases the book itself to examine. A list entitled, "Inexpensive adult books for Christmas purchase" has some very attractive titles.

The Christmas material in the regular lending collection has also been brought together for circulation. This includes stories, poems, plays and suggestions for gifts and entertainments.

PARENT TEACHERS DISCUSS LECTURES

At the meeting of the Parent and Teachers' council Tuesday several matters of business were disposed of, and the subject of lectures for the coming year discussed. Mr. Hillis reported that Mr. De Bask of the university would be here in January, probably three days, and would give a lecture at that time. It was decided to try to make arrangements for the Finley wild life pictures, which are to be shown in Grants Pass and Ashland; to secure Mr. Churchill, state superintendent, to talk on the county unit, and Alan Eaton of the university to discuss the practical side of art.

Mr. Hillis asked for the interest and support of the public in the concert to be given at the high school next Friday evening by the high school orchestra. The money raised is to go toward the purchase of a Victrola. The auditorium should be filled.

Saturday evening, Dec. 9, Dr. Bates will lecture at the Public Library at 8 o'clock, on "Finding the Play." All clubs and societies which contemplate putting on plays during the winter, all committees selecting plays for the Drama League monthly meetings, will find this lecture very helpful. The lecture is free and the public cordially invited, whether members or not.

GOVERNING BOARD OF THE PAN-AMERICAN UNION AT ITS WINTER SESSION

The governing board of the Pan-American Union, the official international organization of the twenty-one American republics, as they were seated around the great mahogany table in their assembly room in the beautiful Pan American building at Washington on the occasion of their first winter meeting, November 1, 1916. This board is the official congress of all the American republics, and its building is literally the capitol of the Western Hemisphere in the national capital of the United States. This building is unique in that it is the only one in the world where the plenipotentiaries of a large group of nations meet regularly and officially by international agreement to consider ways and means of promoting peace, friendship and commerce among them. The board furthermore has the unique distinction of being the only permanent international peace council of a large group of nations. In its every day practical work the Pan American Union is a great international bureau of information. Its director-general is John Barrett, former United States minister to Argentina, and its assistant director, Francisco J. Yanes of Venezuela.

Beginning with Secretary of State Robert Lansing, chairman ex-officio, who sits at the head of the table, the eight persons seated or standing on the left of the table are, in order, as follows: Romulo S. Naon, ambassador of Argentina; Carlos M. de Pena, minister of Uruguay; John Barnett, director general of the Pan-American union; Solon Menos, minister of Haiti; Santos A. Dominguez, minister of Venezuela; M. de Freyre y Santander, charge d'affaires of Peru; Gustavo Manizaga Varela, charge d'affaires of Chile, and Francisco J. Yanes, assistant director of the Pan-American union. Beginning with the Brazilian ambassador, Domicio da Gama, who is seated on the right of

CUT THIS OUT

Old English Recipe for Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises.

If you know someone who is troubled with head noises, or catarrhal deafness, cut out this formula, and hand it to them, and you will have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. Recent experiments have proved conclusively that catarrhal deafness, head noises, etc., were the direct cause of constitutional disease, and that salves, sprays, inhalers, etc., merely temporize with the complaint and seldom, if ever, effect a permanent cure. This being so, much time and money has been spent of late by a noted specialist in perfecting a pure, yet effective tonic that would quickly dispel all traces of the catarrhal poison from the system. This effective prescription which was eventually formulated, and which has aroused the belief that deafness will soon be extinct, is given below in understandable form, so that anyone can treat themselves in their own home at little expense.

Secure from your druggist 1 oz. Parmit (double strength) about 75c worth. Take this home and add to it 1-4 pint of hot water and 4 oz. of granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

The first dose should begin to relieve the distressing head noises, headache, dullness, cloudy thinking, etc., while the hearing rapidly returns as the system is invigorated by the tonic action of the treatment. Loss of smell and mucus dropping in the back of the throat, are other symptoms that show the presence of catarrhal poison, and which are often entirely overcome by this efficacious treatment. Nearly ninety per cent. of all ear troubles are directly caused by catarrh; therefore, there must be many people whose hearing can be restored by this simple home treatment.

Every person who is troubled with head noises, catarrhal deafness, or catarrh in any form, should give this prescription a trial. Heath's Drug Store, Strang's, Medford Pharmacy, West Side Pharmacy, Haskin's Drug Store can supply you.
