HENRY WENDT OF JACKSONVILLE DEAD

Henry Wendt died at Jacksonville, December 7, aged 70 years, 4 months. Death was due to heart failure.

Mr. Wendt was a well-known Jacksonville figure, having been a resident of that city for the past twenty-eight years, during twenty-one years of that time driving the stage between Jacksonville and the Apicazate. Mr. Wendt was a native of Germany, coming to America at the age of 20.

He settled at Freeport, Ill., for a few years, later moving to Nebraska, where he remained ten years. After leaving that state he came to Jacksonville. He leaves his wife, Mary, and eight children—Mrs. Joseph Martin of Jacksonville; Henry Wendt of Pine Creek, Or.; Mrs. Carrie Oberman, Bly, Or.; Mrs. Anna Iscott, San Diego, Cal.; Edward and Emma Wendt of Jacksonville; George Wendt of Alturas, Cal., and Chester Wendt of Jacksonville. He also leaves twelve grandchildren, one great-grandchild and two sisters. Funeral arrangements will be announced later. Burial will be in Jacksonville cemetery.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the First Methodist church will meet at the home of Mrs. N. J. Wiley, 613 South Holly Friday afternoon, at 2:30. An interesting program, telling of the work among the Orientals and Alaskans will be given. Any one interested in the work is invited to attend.
