

CONGRATULATIONS SENT MACKENSON UPON BIRTHDAY

AMSTERDAM, Dec. 7.—Emperor William has sent the following telegram to Field Marshal Von Mackensen, in command of the Teutonic forces on the Southern Rumanian front: "It is your excellency's birthday today and the ever memorable capture of Bucharest, the capital of the treacherous enemy, who was the last to appear in arms against us, gives me the occasion, my dear field marshal, to express my imperial thanks and fullest recognition to you and to the glorious troops of the Danube and the Ninth army, under your tried leadership, who by the greatest exertions, have achieved extraordinary exploits."

GOLD HILL NUGGETS

Rev. R. A. Hutchinson of Jacksonville filled the pulpit of the local M. E. church both morning and evening Sunday. Rev. Hutchinson will probably be permanently transferred to this charge. For the time being he will hold services every other Sunday. He is, as he has been aptly termed, "a little live Irishman," and is sure to hold the attention of his audiences. A. L. Manie of Medford visited with John Litsner and other friends in Gold Hill Monday. P. Langdell and family, former proprietors of the Home dining hall, left Monday afternoon for Oakland, Cal., their former home. Mr. Langdell was at one time interested in various mines in this vicinity. Dr. H. R. Nehrbas was here from his ranch on Graves creek, looking over the situation for opening dental parlors. At one time Dr. Nehrbas had one of the largest practices in the state, but on account of health failure he was compelled to discontinue and take up farm life. He is now contemplating putting part of his time in here. Messrs. Thompson and Hull, who recently purchased the D. H. Miller hardware store, are now packing the remaining goods preparatory to removal to Mantua, Cal., as was originally planned. Word has been received from J. F. Dietrich, as well as others of the four who left some time ago for central California, that they are all busy at work near San Francisco. Misses Ruth Cady and Madeline Silver, who visited in Ashland the latter part of last week, returned here Sunday night preparatory to resuming their duties as teachers in the local schools. Mrs. R. C. Kelsey was in Medford Saturday for a few hours. Mrs. M. S. Crawford returned Sunday morning from Medford, where she had been with her son, Orris Crawford, and family since Thanksgiving day. Mrs. M. M. Edmunds left for Ashland Saturday, where she will commence a tour in the interests of the W. C. T. U.

Sunday morning at 9:45 the "O. U. 23" took to the water for the first time. As an explanation, we might say that this is the name of a trim little boat recently finished by F. W. Dodge, being constructed during his spare time. About an hour and twenty-five minutes after leaving here a phone message was received from Rogue River saying they (Mr. Dodge and Guy Harvey of Grants Pass) had reached that place. No further word has as yet been received. Harold Grant returned to his home in Medford Sunday, having been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Pickett for several days. Miss Bertha Woolvorton, who has been attending school at Phoenix, was for the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Woolvorton and local friends. F. Wallace Sears, editor of the Gold Hill News, was in Medford the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Tom West moved on Monday into the Wilmarth house on Fifth avenue. Mrs. H. H. DeArmond of Medford, who has been with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Collins, east of town, left Tuesday morning for a visit at Grants Pass with her husband's folks. George Lyman was a north-bound passenger Monday morning. A number of the manual training boys have been busy enclosing the pavilion during their class hour the first days of this week. The pavilion is also where they hold their basketball games—that's the reason.

Monday on his way down to California to spend a few months, and while he was here renewed his subscription to the W. M. T. Carl Roberts, who has been boarding with us for the past month or more, started for Seattle, Wash., the first of the week. R. D. Hanson and Floyd Jinkas were out Tuesday pasting advertising bills for the Klum Advertising Co., and from force of habit came to the Sunnyside about noon for dinner. R. H. Ridgeway and wife, parents of Mrs. T. F. Holtz, arrived the first of the week from Pennsylvania to spend the winter with their daughter. George and Otto Frey of Lake Creek, who live above the intake on the north fork of Little Butte, spent the night here Tuesday with two loads of lumber for their father's new house near Lake Creek. O. N. Bishop and Jud Edsall came out from near Butte Falls and spent the night with us this morning. William Thomas of Brownsboro stopped here for dinner Tuesday, went on to Medford, where he met his mother just from Sacramento, and they came out and went on up to his home Wednesday. Stanley Spencer of Butte Falls and A. G. Slade of Portland spent Wednesday night with us. Mr. Spencer was on his way to California on business and Mr. Slade was on his way to the hills, loaded with traps. He expects to spend the winter trapping.

John Thomson of Climax was out Wednesday visiting his sister, Mrs. W. W. Taylor. Thursday being Thanksgiving day, some of the business houses closed. Mr. Childreth's blacksmith shop and most of the stores were closed and about all of the excitement was in going to the various places of attraction. Among the guests at the Sunnyside were: Mrs. Lottie Van Scoy and son, Mike, Mrs. Ella Shesler, our primary teacher, and son Walter; her mother, Mrs. E. J. Smith, and daughter, Miss L. R. Smith; John W. Smith, wife and little daughter, Louis Smith and wife, Joe Moorman, Mrs. Carl Cobley, Miss Minnie Taylor, our intermediate teacher; Jud Edsall, A. W. Slosser, Ed Cingede and Henry Trusty. Sam Courtney, our local painter and paper hanger, has just finished a job papering Slater Johnson's house on the Antelope orchard. S. S. Engle of Medford spent Thursday night with us. He is a stock man and is taking his cattle to Applegate to feed. Ed Anderson moved into the Charley Bacon house Thursday night with his family from Round Top, where he has been engaged outing wood. Charles Stewart of Butte Falls spent Friday night with us and Saturday morning went to Medford. Just as I was about finishing this letter the news came to me that Miss Mabel Wamsley had just died this (Saturday) afternoon. An obituary notice will appear in my next.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett. The last time that I wrote was the day before Thanksgiving day, and there was a general stir among all classes getting ready to go and do. Some were getting ready to go to one place and some another, every one intent on getting all the pleasure out of the event possible. The day was commemorated in different ways, and the most of the people were interested about what they were going to have to eat. Quite a number of our citizens went to Medford to witness the game of football that was played between the Medford and Ashland team, and some went to Butte Falls to join in the festivities in that section, while others went to Trail and there enjoyed the party given by Mr. Ash, and those of us who stayed at home, the most at least, had a good old-fashioned Thanksgiving dinner and entertained their friends and neighbors, so that the day was properly celebrated. But the most important event of the season was the marriage of Thomas Stanley to Miss Mabel Prnett, by Professor Hanby of Central Point. Mr. Stanley is one of our progressive young men and by his perseverance and tact has accumulated a good start in life, so far as this world's goods are concerned. Mrs. Stanley is, or rather has been, one of our most popular young ladies, and Mr. S. may well feel proud of being able to capture so worthy a prize. I understand that the wedding was rather private, although there were between thirty and forty guests present, but all except the officiating minister and Mr. Kline and family, some of their nearest neighbors, were relatives. Mr. H. used the marriage ceremony in the Episcopal service, and my informant says that it was very impressive. I did not learn with regard to the presents, but am free to guess that they were in abundance. I have a few items in my note book that I will give now before I go any farther. Corbin Edgell, who owns an orchard joining the Corbin orchard, started the first of the week for Denver, Colo., to be gone a few months. Charles E. Wilkenson, who has his home up to the Dead Indian soda springs, spent the night with us on

CENTRAL POINT

Emmet Knackstadt, who has been visiting friends and old schoolmates for the past fortnight, left for his home at Etua Mills, Cal., Friday morning. Mrs. Cora Kinney of Gold Hill has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Little, and other relatives here. William Hammit of Grants Pass, with his family, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Drs. Dow of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Shipley Ross of Grants Pass spent Thanksgiving visiting relatives and friends here. Ben Waterman, who has been employed in eastern Oregon for the past ten months, returned the latter part of the week to resume his former employment with the Palmer Investment Co. E. E. Scott will move his family to Medford the first part of the week, where he is employed by the California-Oregon Power Co. Mr. Scott has been employed by the Power company for the past three years. Seattle, as he is sometimes called by his friends, was recently promoted, and his many friends regret his departure and wish him success in his new location. Many from here attended the football game at Medford Thanksgiving day. Among them were: George Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Shipley Ross, Jim Ross, E. C. Fisher and family, Albert Hicken, Albert Pankey and Leonard Williams. Mrs. F. H. Hall of this city is visiting her parents at Brownsboro, Or. Russ Moore and family of Lake Creek spent the week end here visiting relatives. J. H. Hay and family of this city were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Oaks Ames of Medford this week. Miss Winnie Mason, who has been spending some time at Medford and Ashland, is here visiting her grandmother, Mrs. George Hessegrave. Frank Hull has again taken charge of the Savoy theater, and has remodeled the building inside, which is a great improvement in the way of comfort for those who attend. Mrs. C. R. Rostel and Mr. and Mrs. Stearns visited friends at Medford Friday. Paul Olson left for Junction City Friday morning, where he will work as helper under R. H. Corniluis in the Southern Pacific depot of that city. Mrs. Isrel Lewis was a business visitor at Medford Friday. Mrs. Jane Lindsay, daughter of Mrs. Nancy Obenchain of this city, died at her residence in Grants Pass December 1. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from the residence of her mother in this city, and the interment was at Jacksonville. Among those who attended the funeral were James Lindsey and brother, Ben Lindsey, of Grants Pass; Silas Obenchain, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Wilson, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Katherine Tull, Klamath Falls; Ed Campbell, Klamath Falls; W. H. Pankey, Klamath county, and many from Central Point. W. H. Pankey will spend a few days visiting relatives in this vicinity. Rev. Reed of Talent, pastor of the M. E. church here, held his usual services Sunday. The W. H. Harrison W. R. C. held a special meeting here Monday. The corps inspector came from Medford, accompanied by several members of the corps there, to inspect the corps. After inspection refreshments were served. Mrs. Nettie Green and daughter, Miss Jessie, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson of Millionaire row Friday. Mrs. L. L. Hatfield was a Medford visitor Saturday afternoon. Earl Obenchain was a business visitor at Medford Saturday. W. E. Price, Jr., who has spent the last six months at Weed, Cal., returned home to spend the holidays here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Price. The Sunday school of the M. E. church will give an entertainment here Friday evening, December 8. Mr. and Mrs. Carlton of Ashland were visiting H. Carlton and family here recently. Harry Carlton left last week with a carload of stock for San Francisco. The dance given by the Rogue River valley band Thursday night was well attended.

Mrs. F. E. Matteson came down from Medford Wednesday evening to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Alden. Miss Bertha Wolvorton who is attending school in Phoenix, came home for the Thanksgiving vacation. Miss Walker, the popular Rock Point teacher, spent Thanksgiving and the week end at the I. H. Porter home. Mr. and Mrs. McKinney visited relatives in Ashland during Mrs. McKinney's vacation from school in the Foothills creek district. A very enjoyable time was had by all those who attended the box social Wednesday evening at the Foothills creek school. The program, given by the pupils, was excellent and most of the boxes sold for one dollar or more—making a neat little sum for improvements for the school. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wahl took dinner Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Swacker. Mrs. Abbie Champlin entertained at a family dinner Thanksgiving day. H. D. Jones Sr. has just completed the sale of the Blue Jay mine on Foothills creek. Messrs. Stead, Wolvorton, Boyd, Champin and Alden were in Medford and Jacksonville Friday on business, pertaining to the ditch proposition. Herbert Mathews and Miss Alice Harper came down from Phoenix on Wednesday to spend the vacation at the Roxall ranch. Mrs. G. B. Alden was in Medford Friday and Saturday, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Nye. Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Engel have moved to their own home and are now at home to their friends at "Engelwood." Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Nye took dinner Thanksgiving day at the Roxalls ranch. Riverside people celebrated their third annual Thanksgiving together at the club house in the usual manner. The table was spread in the large room and about forty sat down to the bountiful feast. There was nothing lacking and good cheer prevailed. After the tables had been cleared away there was music and dancing and later some interesting stories were told of early days in this vicinity in which the Indians figured quite prominently. It being the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Jones, a mock wedding ceremony was carried out. Another feast in the evening and all departed for their homes feeling that this had been the pleasantest of all their gatherings. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Hittle, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Porter, Mrs. Jacobs, George Jacobs, Miss Walker, Mrs. Matteson, Mr. and Mrs. Engel, Mr. and Mrs. Sleath, Mr. and Mrs. Alden, Mr. Schaumburg, Mr. and Mrs. Jones, Mr. Donegan, Charles Gray, Frank Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Gup and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Porter. Also the children of the respective families.

MOTHER-MADE, QUICK ACTING COUGH SYRUP

Should be kept handy in every home—Easily Prepared and Costs Little. Mothers, you'll never know what you are missing until you make up this inexpensive, quick-acting cough syrup and try it. Children love its pleasant taste and nothing else will loosen a cough or dry cold and heal the inflamed or swollen throat membranes with such ease and promptness. It's equally as good for grown-ups as for children. This splendid cough syrup is made by pouring 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), into a pint bottle and filling the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This gives you a full pint—a family supply—of much better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for $2.00—a clear saving of $2.00. The moment it touches the inflamed, cold-congested membranes that line the throat and air passages, the healing begins, the plugs loosen, soreness leaves, cough subsides, and soon disappears altogether, thus ending a cough quicker than you ever thought possible. Hoarseness and ordinary coughs are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Excellent for bronchitis, whooping cough, spasmodic croup, bronchial asthma or winter coughs. Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with eucalyptol and is famous world over for its quick healing effect on the membranes. Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

OUCH! LUMBAGO?

Try Musterole. See How Quickly It Relieves. You just rub Musterole in bridle, and usually the pain is gone—a delicious, soothing comfort comes to take its place. Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Use it instead of mustard plaster. Will not blister. Many doctors and nurses use Musterole and recommend it to their patients. They will gladly tell you what relief it gives from sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bite, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). Always dependable.

Monday on his way down to California to spend a few months, and while he was here renewed his subscription to the W. M. T. Carl Roberts, who has been boarding with us for the past month or more, started for Seattle, Wash., the first of the week. R. D. Hanson and Floyd Jinkas were out Tuesday pasting advertising bills for the Klum Advertising Co., and from force of habit came to the Sunnyside about noon for dinner. R. H. Ridgeway and wife, parents of Mrs. T. F. Holtz, arrived the first of the week from Pennsylvania to spend the winter with their daughter. George and Otto Frey of Lake Creek, who live above the intake on the north fork of Little Butte, spent the night here Tuesday with two loads of lumber for their father's new house near Lake Creek. O. N. Bishop and Jud Edsall came out from near Butte Falls and spent the night with us this morning. William Thomas of Brownsboro stopped here for dinner Tuesday, went on to Medford, where he met his mother just from Sacramento, and they came out and went on up to his home Wednesday. Stanley Spencer of Butte Falls and A. G. Slade of Portland spent Wednesday night with us. Mr. Spencer was on his way to California on business and Mr. Slade was on his way to the hills, loaded with traps. He expects to spend the winter trapping.

John Thomson of Climax was out Wednesday visiting his sister, Mrs. W. W. Taylor. Thursday being Thanksgiving day, some of the business houses closed. Mr. Childreth's blacksmith shop and most of the stores were closed and about all of the excitement was in going to the various places of attraction. Among the guests at the Sunnyside were: Mrs. Lottie Van Scoy and son, Mike, Mrs. Ella Shesler, our primary teacher, and son Walter; her mother, Mrs. E. J. Smith, and daughter, Miss L. R. Smith; John W. Smith, wife and little daughter, Louis Smith and wife, Joe Moorman, Mrs. Carl Cobley, Miss Minnie Taylor, our intermediate teacher; Jud Edsall, A. W. Slosser, Ed Cingede and Henry Trusty. Sam Courtney, our local painter and paper hanger, has just finished a job papering Slater Johnson's house on the Antelope orchard. S. S. Engle of Medford spent Thursday night with us. He is a stock man and is taking his cattle to Applegate to feed. Ed Anderson moved into the Charley Bacon house Thursday night with his family from Round Top, where he has been engaged outing wood. Charles Stewart of Butte Falls spent Friday night with us and Saturday morning went to Medford. Just as I was about finishing this letter the news came to me that Miss Mabel Wamsley had just died this (Saturday) afternoon. An obituary notice will appear in my next.
