The jubilee luncheon given by the ladies of the Foreign Missionary society of the M. E. church last Monday night was enjoyed by over 100 people. The committee to whom they are indebted for the affair consisted of Mesdames Lawton, Conklin, Palmer, Whillock, Phipps and Daron. The program, under the supervision of Mrs. Forest Edmonds, was splendid. Miss Julia Fielder gave an interesting review of the first day of the general executive session. Second year jubilee honors were conferred on ten members by Mrs. J. F. Billings, district corresponding secretary. Seven standard bearers gave the jubilee hymn in pantomime, while Mrs. Hoyous sang it, accompanied by Miss Swindler. Every one was delighted with their excellent work. Miss Mary Tinker, assisted by several young people, gave a demonstration of the missionary work in India; Mrs. D. E. Phipps gave a talk on Chaudhri movement; Mesdames Manning and Power each spoke on live missionary themes. A large delegation of ladies from Ashland were in attendance.

We will have a municipal Christmas tree this year. The plan of having an outdoor celebration of this great feat of all the year was introduced only a few years ago, and has spread to all parts of the country, growing in popularity each year. The first one in Oregon was held in Medford last year. A beautiful tree was placed on the lawn of the library park. It was decorated and illuminated. The school children sang hymns and carols, and each received a candy cane and an orange. About fifty candy baskets were distributed to the needy. The tree was allowed to stand till after New Years and was illuminated each night.

The school children have been practicing since the opening of school for the exercises this year, and the tree, under the management of C. E. Gates, will be even greater success than last.

A number of girls of the Presbyterian church, under the leadership of Mrs. E. A. Welch, met at the home of Miss Dorothy Thorne Monday evening. Welch, Misses Esther Warner, Jeannette Patterson, Hazel Antle, Florence Bain, Daisy Bain, Mildred Wicks, Phyllis Roberts, Frances Bacon, Mercedes Barber, Frances Bacon, Vera Lan, and Dorothy Thorne.

Millinger of the Christian church. Ralph Syfert, brother of the groom, was best man. Miss Lula Goramoun, a girlhood chum, attended the bride. Only a few relatives and friends were present: Mr. and Mrs. Syfert, John, Ben, Norma, Hazel and Sammie Syfert, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Eaton, Miss Hazel Eaton, Mrs. John Drasco, Miss Nellie Roberts, Orval Settles, all of Ashland.

The Girls' Thursday Bridge club was entertained at the home of Miss Fern Hutchinson, on South Orange street, Thursday afternoon.

One of the most successful dances yet given was the Medford alumni "prom" at the armory last Saturday night. The dance was given in honor of Coach Klum and the football players who have worked so diligently and have won the championship of southern Oregon. The dancing was enjoyed by about seventy-five couples, the music being furnished by Leigh Swinson, piano; Glenn Allen, traps; Herbert Alford, banjo; Carter Brandon, xylophone. Clever little programs in red and black with the names of the members of the team and all the scores of the season on them were given as souvenirs. The walls were decorated with cartoons of the different members of the squad. Features of the evening were speeches by Coach Klum on the development of the Medford team and short talks of enthusiasm were given by N. Calhoun, D. James, W. H. Gore and A. J. Vance. The patronesses were: Mrs. F. W. Thorne, Mrs. W. H. Gore, Mrs. E. B. Pickett, Mrs. A. J. Vance and Mrs. L. B. Brown.

At the last regular meeting of the Greater Medford club a resolution was adopted to assist the band concerts by asking each member to become responsible for two tickets, either paying for them or selling them. The band was financed through the efforts of the club and a donation by the city. Mr. Rowland has made an excellent showing under adverse conditions. The open-air concerts in the park during the summer were enjoyed by all. On many other occasions the band has proven of the greatest assistance and always accommodating. We need the band and must support it. The series of five concerts for $1 will be very cheap at that price, considering the program furnished. There is very little promised at the theater this winter beyond moving pictures, so the concerts will be a welcome change. Let all show their loyalty to Medford by supporting the band. Remember the first concert will be Monday night, December 11.

The high school orchestra, under the direction of Miss Elene French, supervisor of music, made its initial appearance in concert Friday evening at the high school building. The orchestra consists of over twenty pieces and was organized about two months ago. The young organization was enthusiastically received by a well-filled house. Besides the regular orchestra part, the trios and duets deserve special mention. Ruth Campbell, Master Riley Davis and Francis Neil in solo numbers showed much ability and careful training. Rollie Petty in a solo number was well received. Nana Seely sang "O, Dry Those Tears," with much feeling. Miss Seely also presided at the piano throughout the evening.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Nann of Central Point, Thursday evening, their daughter, Miss Mabel Nann, became the bride of W. B. Keizer of Bend, Or. The wedding was a quiet one and came as a surprise to all their friends. Both young people are well known in this county, having been raised here. Mr. and Mrs. Keizer left Friday for Bend, where Mr. Keizer has a position with Louis Bennett in his grocery store.

Mr. Hillis reported that Mr. De Bink of the university would be here in January probably three days and would give a lecture at that time. It was decided to try and make arrangements for the Friday wild life pictures, which are to be shown in Grants Pass and Ashland, to secure Mr. Churchill, state superintendent, to talk on the county unit, and Alan Eaton of the university to discuss the practical side of art.

This evening at 8 o'clock Dr. Bates will lecture at the public library on "Finding the Play." All clubs and societies which contemplate putting on plays during the winter and all committees selecting plays for the Drama League monthly meetings will find this lecture very helpful. The lecture is free and the public is cordially invited, whether members or not.

There will be a meeting of the executive committee of the High School Parent-Teacher circle next Wednesday, December 13, at 4 o'clock p. m., in the high school building. D. W. Griffith's Colossal Spectacle

"INTOLERANCE"

Direct From 8 Weeks at the Columbia Theatre San Francisco

30-Grand Symphony Orchestra-30

Formerly Known as the "Mother and The Law"

You will not see another "Birth of a Nation," as the New York Herald says: "The Birth of a Nation is to 'Intolerance' what the old one-reel motion picture is to the present-day feature:

Walter Anthony in the San Francisco Chronicle:

"Daring imagination of Griffith soars to riotous limits. You meekly bow to the daring and vision of the man who conceived it. There is a grandeur which in nature takes the breath away—a glimpse at Niagara, a sight of the Yellowstone Canyon or the Canyon of the Colorado is likely, I'm told, to stun the beholder to tears or silence, or both. There is something of that quality in 'Intolerance'."

Thomas Nunan in the San Francisco Examiner:

"'Intolerance' is a bewildering spectacle. Throngs marvel at a new Griffith production. 'Intolerance' looms so big and so meaningful that 'The Clansman' is not in its class."

New York Times:

"The verdict 'Intolerance' renders in the controversy concerning its maker is that he is a real wizard of the lens and screen. The stupendousness of its panoramas, the grouping and the handling of its great masses of players, make it an impressive spectacle. Is worth going miles to see."
