

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

There will be a meeting of the executive committee of the High School Parent-Teacher circle Wednesday afternoon, December 12, at 4 o'clock in the high school building.

What about one of those ferns for your wife's Xmas present. Pierce, the Florist, certainly has a nice lot of them.

Mrs. A. D. McKee of Buncom spent Monday in Medford visiting friends and relatives.

When in Jacksonville, eat at The Crescent. Chicken dinner every Sunday.

Bert McKee of Buncom spent Monday in Medford attending to business matters and visiting friends and relatives.

Sweet cider at De Voe's. George Peck of Buncom was in Medford attending to business matters Monday.

Annual New Year Ball at Hotel Medford, January 1st, 1917.

Dick Vincent of Prospect was a business visitor in the city Monday.

Old papers for sale at this office at 20c for 100.

John Dent has returned to Medford from Canada, where he was in the employ of the government.

Buttermilk, 10c gal. De Voe's. Dr. Hedges' appendicitis patients stand 100 per cent cured.

Ed Hamlin of Eden Valley spent Monday and Tuesday in the city on business.

Order your holly wreaths now of Pierce, the Florist. Real English Holly.

Harry Von der Hellen of Wollen spent Monday in Medford attending to business matters.

Do you want to get married? I am looking for a husband, said the mysterious girl in Haskins Drug Store window.

John Robertson of Eagle Point spent Monday in Medford on business.

Dr. Heine, physician and surgeon. Specialty, eye, ear, nose, throat. Office over Menker's. Glasses fitted.

Jud Edsall was a business visitor in the city Tuesday from Butte Falls.

J. L. Randsdale and daughter of Lake Creek were Medford visitors Monday.

Brown's for home-made candies. Dr. W. P. Holt of Eagle Point spent Monday in Medford on professional business.

See Dave Wood about that fire insurance policy. Office, Room 404 M. F. & H. Bldg.

Mrs. T. P. Boltz of Eagle Point spent Monday afternoon in Medford shopping.

What about one of those ferns for your wife's Xmas present. Pierce, the Florist, certainly has a nice lot of them.

Doris Coy of Eagle Point was in Medford Monday shopping and visiting friends.

The mysterious girl in Haskins Drug Store window says her husband must use a Durham Duplex razor.

Tom Vestal of Eagle Point transacted business in the city Tuesday.

For La Grippe and tonsillitis, see Dr. Hedges, who removes the cause.

Nick Kline of Griffin Creek was a business visitor in Medford Monday.

For the best insurance see Holmes the Insurance Man.

T. L. Potter of Montague, Cal., is spending a few days in Medford attending to business matters.

Fresh chocolates at De Voe's.

Be sure and see the mysterious girl in Haskins Drug Store window. William Hoff of Salem was in Medford on business Monday and Tuesday.

A Xmas present sure to please. One of those blooming plants from Pierce, the Florist.

Albert Hansen of Estacada, Ore., is spending the week in the city visiting friends and relatives.

"National Guard," "Battle Cry of Peace," Words and Music, 15c. 227

John Olfene of Yreka, Cal., was a business visitor in the city Monday afternoon.

"The Valley of the Rogue," Words and music, 15c. 237

W. W. Quinn of Sacramento, Cal., is a business visitor in Medford this week.

Big 5c milk shakes at De Voe's. A. K. Lyons of Grants Pass transacted business in Medford Monday afternoon.

Gates sells Ford cars, $200 down and $25 a month. Charles G. Hall of Lakeview, Ore., is spending a few days in the city visiting friends and attending to business matters.

Bakery goods at De Voe's. Lon J. Bailey of Roseburg is spending the week in the city on business.

Baths 25c. Hotel Holland. Charles Darby of Greenville, Cal., is among the out of town business visitors in the city.

"Typewriter paper" of all kinds at Medford Printing Co. D. O. Ellington of Cottage Grove is spending a few days in the city on business.

Every home needs a "Pacific" Cedar Chest. Order one now for Christmas. Useful, ornamental, an ideal gift.

Monday night a heavy fog hung over the city, wetting the pavement as though a light rain had fallen.

Toward morning the fog rose and the temperature dropped, freezing a solid coat of ice on the pavement.

Before this coating had melted a number of persons and horses had found the footing uncertain and had tested the ability of the pavement to withstand hard bumps from falling bodies.

884—Phone Heath's Drug Store.

Nick Young of Eagle Point was a business visitor in the city Tuesday.

AMUSEMENTS

STAR Medford's Cozy Photoplay THEATRE.

TONIGHT

There is life, love, adventure in this stirring romance of the Rio Grande.

Lieut. Danny U. S. A.

He is a regular fellow—dare-devil fighter and daring lover—this fine production produces a thrill.

Keystone—His Lying Heart WITH FUNNY FORD STERLING

TOMORROW VIVIAN MARTIN In a Moroco-Paramount Photoplay "THE STRONGER LOVE"

"Old Bill," a horse in the service of the Medford Ice and Storage Co. for the past five years, fell on the slippery pavement on the Bear Creek bridge this morning and broke his leg.

After summoning a veterinarian, it was found necessary to shoot the animal. This is the second victim of the icy streets, the first being killed on East Main streets two weeks ago.

Falling may be prevented and firm footing given on frosty mornings by wrapping the horses' feet in sunny sacks.

The Bungalow Store, cor. Riverside and Jackson. Everything for everybody. Our own auto delivery to all parts of the city. Phone 485-R. No waiting for your goods.

Tom Farlow of Lake Creek spent Tuesday in the city attending to business matters.

Gasoline and oil at De Voe's. Jeff Brophy of Derby spent Tuesday in Medford transacting business with local merchants.

See the stock labels carried by the Medford Printing Co., if you are in a hurry.

Carl Hanson is employed in the Daniels fur Duds store during the holiday season.

Mrs. Leach Barclay, corsets. Phone 683-J. 326 N. Bartlett.

The bowling teams of Carl Bowman and Dr. Seely clashed in the Ellis tourney Monday night.

Bowman's team winning two out of the three games played.

Attorney W. E. Phipps has removed his offices to M. F. & H. Building, rooms 425-426. Elevator service. Telephone number changed to 356.

N. B. Macklin of Portland spent Monday and Tuesday in the city on business.

Since Wilson has been re-elected, the cost of living has dropped. The Sugar Bowl will sell Xmas candy again at 12c a pound.

E. L. Kendall is a Medford visitor for a few days from Crescent City, Cal.

If you want legal advice or papers, go to the Medford Legal Information Bureau. Reasonable fees. 225*

Thomas Vestal of Eagle Point is spending a few days in Medford transacting business.

Attorney Pentz has established Medford Legal Information Bureau, for the benefit of outside clients.

V. Bartlett of Portland is among the out of town business visitors in the city.

The City Council has no objections to the Sugar Bowl selling Xmas candy at 12c a pound.

N. W. Bartley of Williams, Ore., is spending a few days in the city visiting friends and attending to business matters.

The eight-hour law was not passed to keep the Sugar Bowl from working overtime, making candy to sell at 12c a pound.

R. E. Jennil of Grants Pass spent Monday and Tuesday in Medford on business.

Nick Young of Eagle Point was a Medford visitor Tuesday attending to business matters.

Mass meeting at the Natatorium Wednesday evening, December 13, at 8 p. m. Come home owners, both off and on the payment, and bring your neighbor.

James K. Voogers of Pentiac, Mich., is a tourist visitor in the city.

It's of utmost importance that all taxpayers, especially those off the paving attend the mass meeting Wednesday evening, December 13, at the Natatorium.

Peter J. Sweiter of Lewiston, Idaho spent Monday and Tuesday in the city.

Facts are what count. Come to the citizen's mass meeting Wednesday evening, December 13, at the Natatorium.

Misses Ina and Ruby Darnelle of The Dalles, Ore., are spending a few days in Medford.

There are two sides to any story; both sides will be discussed at the citizen's mass meeting at the Natatorium.

The police have been called upon to furnish a sleeping place for a number of southbound wanderers lately.

9 Saturday night, 8 Sunday and 3 Monday.

Be sure and come to the "Made in Oregon" Sale December 14, 15, and 16, in the Duell bldg.

Big chicken dinner Friday and Saturday, Music by Heine's orchestra.

Word has been received that 180 cars of machinery for the Applegate Lumber Co., passed through Ogden, Utah, December 9.

These cars will arrive in Medford, according to officers of the company, some time the latter part of this week.

Do you know these lines? They are "onlys" of ours, Cordova, Corona, Royal, I-P, Columbia, K. & T, Kathodian, Moore Corp., Leathersmith, A. B. Dick, Hodder & Stoughton, Voland. They are all the best in the lines and exclusive to us. Medford Book Store.

W. S. Adams of Portland is spending a few days in Medford on business.

"Things made by hand have no duplicates," therefore Cordova things are individual. There is not a machine of any sort in the Cordova shops. Medford Book Store only.

W. C. Kelly of Tacoma, Wash., is a business visitor in the city for a few days.

Corona, the typewriter for personal use. Medford Book Store only.

Theodore Hardy and Virginia Hardy of Washington, D. C., spent Monday and Tuesday in the city.

Tinkertoy, 40c. Medford Book Store. 229*

G. B. Johnston of Beagle spent Monday and Tuesday in Medford on business.

Columbia records. Wrapped for mailing free. Medford Book Store only. 229*

Frank C. Johnston of Paso Robles, Cal., was a Medford visitor Monday and Tuesday.

Investigate the Legalle Lense at the Electric Shop before dimming your headlights. 230*

Edgar Hafer of Medford is registered at Hotel Portland, Portland, Oregon.

F. W. Jennings of Portland is spending a few days in the city transacting business with local merchants.

C. E. Bailey of Portland is in Medford for a few days on business.

J. E. Miller is a business visitor in the city from San Francisco, Cal.

The Lady Elks will hold a luncheon and card party on December 29, at the Elks' temple, at 1:30 o'clock.

All Lady Elks are urged to be present. Those wishing to attend, please notify Mrs. Gus Newbury or Mrs. Jonas Wold by December 22.

William Vaughn of Boston, Mass., is spending a few days in the city.

John Welch, Jr., of Portland is in Medford attending to business matters.

Address "Medford Legal Information Bureau" if you want to know the law or have papers drawn. 225*

A. B. Cornell of Grants Pass is spending a few days in the city on business.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Haley of New York City were Medford visitors Monday.

C. M. Thomas, W. H. Gore and Ben Sheldon spent Monday in Grants Pass, where they attended the meeting of Southern Oregon representatives.

Card of Thanks. We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for the kindness and sympathy they have shown us in the sickness and death of our beloved mother.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Brumble, and family.

Advertisement for Johnson, the Jeweler. Features a large diamond ring illustration and lists various jewelry items like watches, chains, and pendants. Text: 'At Your Service', 'Let us aid you in making your selection of gifts.', 'These are the most popular offerings for this season and our assortment ranges from the lowest price up to any grade you may desire.'

Large advertisement for C. E. Gates. Title: 'Make This an Auto Xmas'. Subtitle: 'Nothing More Appreciated Than Something for the Auto'. Text: 'Here are a few of the many suitable gifts we have in stock'. Lists various auto accessories like Flash Lights, Lamps, Spot Lights, Robes, Gloves, Tool Boxes, Socket Wrench Sets, Rear View Mirrors, Tire Covers, Trunk Racks, Horns, Bumpers, Amber Glaroscopes, Grinders, Master Vibrators, Pumps, Robe Rails, Vulcanizers, Warner Lenzes, Weed Chains, Jacks, Tires, Clocks, Yale Switch Locks, Seat Covers, Shock Absorbers, Inner Tubes, Motormeters, Goggles, Trouble Lamps. Bottom: 'Any Articles Laid Away and Delivered at Your Convenience Before Christmas. C. E. GATES'.

Advertisement for PAGE Southern Oregon's Greatest Place of Amusement. Title: 'PAGE TONIGHT'. Text: 'I. C. Yeomans Offers the Dramatization by Mark Swan of the Western Classic by Harold Bell Wright. THE WINNING OF BARBARA WORTH. A strong cast of well-known players. A beautiful scenic production. See the sand storm in the desert. SEATS NOW SELLING. Lower Floor $1.00; Balcony, 1st four rows, 75c; next four rows, 50c; balance 25c.'

Advertisement for INTOLERANCE. Title: 'SOUTHERN OREGON'S GREATEST PLACE OF AMUSEMENT'. Text: 'PAGE 3-PERFORMANCES-3. Wednesday Night Thursday Matinee and Night DECEMBER 13-14. Mat. Thursday 2:15 Sharp. Night 8:15 Sharp. Mat. Doors 1:30. Night, Doors 7:30. Seats Now Selling For All Performances. PRICES. Nights: Lower floor $1; Balcony 25c, 50c, 75c. Thurs. Mat. Lower floor 75c; Balcony 25c, 50c. The Most Stupendous ATTRACTION the WORLD has EVER KNOWN. Direct from 8 Weeks Columbia Theater S. F. INTOLERANCE. Formerly known as "The Mother and the Law." It took 3 years time, 2 Million Dollars, the Genius of D. W. Griffith to Make the World's Most Gigantic Production. Carrying Its Own Grand Symphony Orchestra of 30. Don't Wait—Be one of the First to See the Grand Spectacle of National Wide Reputation. Going direct to the Metropolitan Theater, Seattle, Washington. CHILDREN IN ARMS NOT ADMITTED.'