MEDYNSKI FILES COMPLETE TICKET FOR CITY ELECTION

The political pot for the January election has been set boiling in earnest. The Medynski forces have already filed their ticket for mayor and council.

The advocates of the business men's ticket are also in the field. C. E. Gates will head this ticket, while the candidates for councilman will probably be E. C. Gaddis in the first ward, J. H. Carkin in the second and Dr. H. P. Hargrave in the third.

Cooley Out of Race. For a time it appeared that there would be a four or five-cornered race for the mayoralty with C. E. Gates, F. V. Medynski, H. O. Nordwick and J. H. Cooley as candidates.

LOWER RATES ON CANNED GOODS ASKED. SALEM, Ore., Dec. 23.—The Southern Pacific company has petitioned the state public service commission to establish a rate of twenty cents a hundred pound on all canned goods from Ashland and intermediate points to Portland, according to a communication received by the local chamber of commerce today, so that southern Oregon canneries may compete with factories nearer Portland, or points subject to water competition. The rate applies to carloads of at least 50,000 pounds. The present rate from Ashland is 30 cents.

No date has been set for a hearing on the petition.

Interest, enthusiasm, and cordiality characterize these services. At 7:30 p. m. Mr. H. S. Stine, a prominent and talented layman of the church, will give, as a prelude to the evening sermon an illustrated lecture on "The Other Wise Man." This parlor will preach a very short sermon on "The Excluded Christ." Even irregular church attendants go to church for Christmas exercises. Come and enjoy the day with us. FRED'K W. CARSTENS, Pastor.

Oakdale Ave. Methodist. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m., subject, "Why Jesus Came." Xmas exercises Monday evening. Prayer meeting Thursday evening at 7:30. All are welcome. H. M. IRANHAM, Pastor.

Rader. Violin solo by Leland Denzer. Wednesday, Dec. 27, at 7:30 p. m., Xmas tree and program. All are welcome. DR. BAILLIE, Pastor.

Firs Church of Christ, Scientist. Branch of the Mother church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass. Sunday service at 11 o'clock, subject "Christ Jesus." Wednesday evening meetings at which testimonies of Christian Science healing are given, at 7:30. All are cordially invited. Sunday school at 9:45. All under the age of 20 are welcome. Edifice 212 North Oakdale ave. Reading room in M. F. & H. Bldg., North Central ave., open from 12 to 4:30 daily except Sunday and holidays.

First Baptist. "A live church with a cordial welcome." Sunday, December 24th, will be a great day at the Baptist church. The big chorus choir under the direction of Mr. E. M. Brown, has prepared special music for the day. The Bible school meets at 9:45 a. m. as usual. Every nook and corner is crowded, tent occupied, and the cottage across the street, used for classes; still there is room for others, and if you come you will find yourself in the midst of a live and enthusiastic lot of children and young folks. At 11 a. m. the pastor will preach a Christmas sermon. Subject: "Why Jesus Came." The young people will hold their devotional service at 6:30 p. m. There is never a Sunday evening when their room, upstairs, is not taxed to its utmost capacity.

JACKSONVILLE. Joseph Morcom was in town Thursday enroute to Corvallis to spend the Christmas holidays with his family. Mrs. A. B. Ellison arrived from Portland last week and will spend the holidays with relatives there. Miss Corinne Linn left for Eugene the first of the week to spend Christmas. Charlie Capple of Carnahan, Calif., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Kate Capple. Miss Mabel Reeve has returned from Wellen, where she completed a successful term of school. Mrs. E. Kubil left for Portland Wednesday to spend the holidays with her children. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Flaney are receiving the congratulations on the arrival of a baby girl at their home Wednesday, Dec. 20th. At 3 o'clock Thursday morning fire broke out in the Stout home on the Medford road and burned the dwelling to the ground. Fortunately the contents had been moved to Medford a few days previous. Owing to the wind the fire boys had hard work saving the two adjoining houses. Daniel Hill passed away Wednesday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Marsh, after a lingering illness. Services will be held this (Saturday) afternoon. Charlie Thompson arrived from North Bend Saturday and will spend the holidays at home.

TABLE ROCK TABLETS. Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Richardson and little Miss Doris and Henry Maury of Ross Lane, were Table Rock visitors Sunday evening. A representative of the Medford creamery was through here Friday evening looking over the cream situation. If enough cream can be secured transportation will be furnished by the proprietor of this creamery. The three large trucks that have been hauling apples from the Table Rock orchard to Medford, finished their task last week. Many of our farmers are taking wheat to the Eagle Point mill and exchanging it for flour. Carl Beebe road supervisor of the Agate district, reports that he is having the time of his life trying to keep the road bed south of the Bybee bridge in passable condition. This piece of road has recently been gravelled and does not seem inclined to settle, especially as it is constantly being cut up by heavy travel among which was a large caterpillar engine which ran over this road Monday evening and the men in charge not being satisfied with the damage they were doing, let down a plow and tore the road up the entire length of the new grade. Many men from the valley towns have been hunting ducks along the river the last few days, but report poor luck. V. H. Pendleton returned Saturday from a trip to lower California, where he placed orders for Rogue river valley apples. He reports that the cost of living in those parts is something tremendous. Word has been received from Reno, Nev., stating that Wren Byram is employed in a lumber camp near that city. Plowing in earnest began in this vicinity last week and farmers are getting their land in shape for an early spring seeding and a crew of men and teams are plowing land for sugar beets on the Wyckoff and Ray ranches. John Vaughn has been on the sick list for the last few days. Mrs. J. C. Pendleton who has made butter with a quality and taste of its own for several years has notified her many customers that hereafter she will not prepare butter for the market but will send the cream to the creamery. The Pendleton butter is eagerly sought after and commands a price of from five to ten cents more on the pound than ordinary butter. Chas. W. Mapes, of Medford, representing the Bankers' Life Insurance company, has been stopping for a few days with relatives at the Caton home. Mr. Mapes is an expert at shorthand and during his leisure moments has been instructing the Caton children in this art. Last Thursday evening at about 8 o'clock the house of Harry Hays in some manner caught fire and although the family were in the house at the time the fire had made so much progress before being discovered that only a few small articles were removed before the building collapsed. The house and contents were fully covered by insurance. The committee appointed to arrange for the Christmas tree on the night of Christmas eve are going ahead with the work and will have everything in readiness for the coming of Santa Claus and the usual good time.

NOTICE. Land owners Irrigation District No. 1. It has been the pleasure of my friends to file a petition in my behalf for director, Irrigation District No. 1. I am in favor of irrigation if it can be obtained on a favorable basis to the land owners. If elected I will do all that is within my power to further the project beneficial to our district. If for any reason, after a thorough investigation has been made, the plan is found to be infeasible to the land owners, I shall do all that is possible to reject it. I solicit the support of all at the preliminary election, December 27th. C. V. CUMMINGS.
