YOUR LAST CHANCE.

Recently we published in these columns an offer of 'The Youth's Companion' and 'McCall's Magazine,' both for a full year for only $2.10, including a McCall Dress Pattern. The 50c price of paper and ink has collapsed McCall's Magazine to raise their subscription price February 1 to 10 cents a copy and 75 cents a year—so that the offer at the above price must be withdrawn.

Until March 31 our readers have the privilege of ordering both publications for a full year, including the choice of any 15-cent McCall Dress Pattern, for only $2.10.

The amount of reading, information and entertainment contained in the fifty-two issues of 'The Youth's Companion' and the value of twelve monthly fashion numbers of 'McCall's' at $2.10 offer a real bargain to every reader of this paper.

This two-at-one-price includes:

- 1. The Youth's Companion—52 issues.
2. The Companion Home Calendar for 1917.
3. McCall's Magazine—12 fashion numbers.
4. One 15-cent McCall Dress Pattern—your choice from your first copy of McCall's—if you send a two-cent stamp with your selection.

A CHILD'S TONGUE SHOWS IF LIVER OR BOWELS ARE ACTIVE

If Cross, Feverish, Sick, Bilious, Give Fruit Laxative at Once.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated wastes, sour bile and undigested food pass out of the bowels and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleaning" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."—Adv.

LOOKOUT PEAK BUFFALO BILL'S TOMB

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 13.—Selection of a burial place on Lookout Mountain near here for the remains of Colonel William F. Cody (Buffalo Bill) who died here last Wednesday, was to be made today by W. F. R. Mills, manager of the Denver city park department. Five sites have been suggested. All of the suggested sites are associated with some event in Colonel Cody's life. What is known as Colorado Point, at the brink of a peak overlooking the plains of eastern Colorado, is said to have been the council place of Colorado, the Ute Indian chief, with whose band Colonel Cody had considerable dealings in the pioneer days.

Details of the funeral plans were to be worked out today. The body of the pioneer scout is to lie in state in the capital from 9 o'clock until noon today. The funeral service will occur in the afternoon. Burial is to be made some time next spring. In the meantime the body will be in custody of Denver Masonic organizations.

surface along side of the periscope. This ventilator can be used when it is desired to conserve the supply of compressed air.

With one exception the Trumble submarine is the exact counterpart of the larger divers. It lacks a conning tower. All observations will be made by means of the periscope. The first model possessed a conning tower, but on his latest boat the inventor has dispensed with the hooded cover.

The boat's operator in the water is controlled by two sets of planes, which govern it in submerging just as planes control an aeroplane's flight.

Weights Four Tons. Trumble's vessel is 28 feet long, and has a depth of 6 feet 8 inches and a beam of about four feet. The entire submarine weighs only four tons.

All that a crew of several men do aboard the large type of submarine is accomplished by one man in Trumble's boat.

"Fifty under-ocean boats of the type I have built," says the inventor "could defend each end of the Panama Canal from an enemy fleet. They could navigate the canal, even should it be choked by slides, for they draw little more water than a rowboat."

ITALIANS ADMIT LOSS OF BATTLESHIP

ROME, Jan. 13.—The admiralty officially announces the loss of the battleship Regina Margherita. The announcement says: "Serious military reasons, which have hitherto prevented the publication no longer existing, it is announced that the warship Regina Margherita struck two mines on the night of December 11 and sustained such severe damage that she sank by the head in a few minutes. A crew of 455 men went down with the ship. Unfavorable conditions made the rescue of the survivors most difficult, but 270 were saved. The captain and 14 officers are among the lost. Beyond the losses of ships officially announced up to the present there have been no others and news to the contrary, which has been in circulation for some time, is consequently false."

CONDITIONS BAD AT REFORM SCHOOL

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 13.—Conditions at the Oregon state training school for boys at Salem were denounced in a report filed here today by a commission appointed by the state board of control to make a survey of the institution. Sanitary conditions were deplorable, the system of instruction and training is inadequate and the physical condition of the boys in attendance is subnormal, the report said.

Neither the board of control nor the superintendent of the school was blamed. "The present condition of the school seems to be a product of the sympathetic but empiric policy and to this we attribute its deficiencies," said the report.

LONDON, Jan. 13.—Lloyd's shipping agency announces the sinking of the British steamer Beaufort by a new vessel built in 1915 at New Castle, 255 feet in length.

No Money in Fruit

—unless you have the right kind of an orchard. I have the right kind; three and one-fourth acres of Newtowns and Spitzenbergs which yielded 3,300 boxes the past two years. The average price received was about $1.25 per box, or considerably over $4,000 for the two crops. Is $7,500 too much to ask for a farm that brings home as much bacon as that? Then why isn't the Wimer Cove Orchard worth the price, especially when it is well located in Ashland, the best residence city on the Coast? Think it over.

The location is 344 Wimer street, four blocks above Main street. Only ten minutes walk from the principal church and school, five minutes more to the stores. The house has five rooms and about $200 worth of improvements were made on it last year. Large packing house and two small poultry houses. Fine place to keep a cow and chickens, as the land is covered with clover and grasses, which have to be mowed twice each year, unless pastured. No cultivation needed.

Irrigation water is obtained from the city at a cost of $24 per year. Spraying costs about $85 more. After paying these charges and all harvesting and marketing expenses there was nearly $3000 left from the sale of the last two crops. Where can you buy a $7,500 farm with a better record? The trees are in fine condition and are getting bigger and better all the time. The last crop amounted to over 2,000 boxes, counting the culls, or a car-load per acre. The market has averaged about the same for the past eleven years: $1.25 per box.

No, I don't expect you to take my word for all these things. Investigate. Ask the men who gather the apples from this orchard and the dealers who buy them. Stop at Marsh and Bennett's and see some of them. Visit the orchard, first stopping at 260 Wimer St. Yes, the ground is steep, but a good crop is secured each year without the trouble and expense of frost fighting.

Reasons for selling are purely personal. Better write for terms and save agent's commission. Might consider a trade.
