

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Dr. J. M. Keene left Sunday night for Portland, accompanying the body of the late William Stewart. Hear Ashland's Choral Society Wednesday. C. E. Benedict of Jacksonville was a Medford visitor Monday. Fresh chocolates at De Voe's. Rodney Stone of San Francisco, is a Medford visitor for a few days. Dr. Helne, physician and surgeon. Specialty, eye, ear, nose, throat. Office over Meeker's. Glasses fitted. Mayor C. E. Gates hasn't lost faith in Medford, as a matter of fact, there are but very few who have. However, Mr. Gates has proven his faith by purchasing three lots on West Main street, and is going to further prove this faith by constructing a bungalow on each of the lots. These lots are on the north side of the street and are in the last block on the pavement. For the best insurance see Holmes, the Insurance Man. Anthony McCabe was a Medford visitor from Eagle Point Monday. Hear Ashland's Choral Society Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Burrell of Alameda, Cal., arrived in the city Monday morning. They will spend a few days inspecting ranch properties expecting to buy land and settle here permanently. Bakery goods at De Voe's. Miss Winifred Clark has as her guest, Miss Helen Winters of Eugene. Baths 25c. Hotel Holland. Marvin Scott of Berkeley, Cal., arrived in the city Sunday evening for a visit with Medford relatives. Buttermilk, 10c gal. De Voe's. Clyde H. Hanson of Roseburg spent the week-end in the city visiting friends. Hear Ashland's Choral Society Wednesday. George Eldon of Topeka was in the city transacting business Monday. Dr. E. Kirchgessner, Hotel Holland every Wednesday. Hours for consultation, 1 to 5 p. m. Fort Hubbard left Saturday for Portland, where he will attend the meeting of the state implement dealers' association. Dr. Hart, physician and surgeon, office Jackson County Bank Building. Miss Marie Mahoney and Miss Gertrude Spencer of Oakview spent Monday in Medford shopping. Hear Ashland's Choral Society Wednesday. John Smith of Eagle Point transacted business in Medford Monday. Gasoline and oil at De Voe's. Lyle Purdin spent the week-end at Eagle Point, returning to Medford Monday morning. Mrs. Leach, agent World Star Co. underwear, hosiery. Phone 638-J. A. C. Hubbard will leave Tuesday for Portland, where he will attend the sessions of the implement dealers' convention. Take that broken pump to the Pacific Highway; Garage, 298 Bartlett st. Davies Welds Anything. H. C. Chandler of Portland is spending a few days in the city attending to business matters. Hear Ashland's Choral Society Wednesday. Ross Edwards of Glendale spent the week-end in the city visiting friends and relatives. Oil Sprays. We are making up a car of Oil Sprays to be delivered as soon as possible. If you expect to use any Oil Spray this season, let us have your orders at once. Rogue River Co-operative Fruit Growers Association. J. A. Perry, Manager. Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Burrows of Weed, Cal., are spending a few days in the city. R. L. Wilson of Central Point spent Monday in the city. Frank Wheatstone of Topeka was in Medford attending to business matters Monday. Howard Bronson of Vancouver, Wash., is a recent arrival in the city. Mrs. I. L. Hamilton and son, Lorenzo, left Sunday morning for Los Angeles, where they will visit several weeks with Mrs. Hamilton's daughter, who lives in that city. Mrs. Harriet Hicks Miller, assistant superintendent of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society of Portland is in Medford in connection with work for the institution. She states that a home is wanted for a boy of 10 and a girl of 8 years of age, and that several other children can be had for adoption. JAPANESE STEAMER SUNK BY SUBMARINE LONDON, Jan. 22.—Lloyd's announces that the Japanese steamer Kisanaga Maru III, 2608 tons, was being sunk. The British steamer Baron Semjill, 1907 tons, is also believed to have been destroyed. Ashland Choral Society Wednesday evening, January 24, at First Methodist church, Medford. Ashland's Choral Society will give a splendid rendition of Gaudi's "Hos City," which is the most used of any similar work, by the best choirs and choral societies in our largest cities. Ashland's best soloists will take the leading parts. Adults 25c; children, 15c. Benefit of First Methodist choir. J. F. McCarty of Portland is spending a few days in Medford looking after business interests. He at Methodist church Wednesday. James Riordon of San Francisco, Cal., is a Medford visitor. There were some bargains for you at the Final Windup Sale. Only 10 more days. Ahrens. Ed. C. Prentiss of San Francisco, Cal., spent Sunday and Monday in the city on business. See Dave Wood about that fire insurance policy. Office, Room 404 M. P. & H. Bldg. R. B. Struthers is a business visitor in the city from Boston, Mass. January Clearance Sale of odds and ends, overstock, etc., of electric appliances at Paul's Electric store. Articles on display will be reduced 25c a day until sold. See the bargains. Ed Walcott of Ashland spent Sunday in the city visiting friends. "You sure have put the knife into the prices." Those are the comments we hear every little while by enthusiastic customers. Ahrens. Herbert Alford left Monday morning for San Francisco, Cal. Be at Methodist church Wednesday. A. J. Vance returned to Medford Sunday evening from San Francisco, where he spent a few days on business. Big 5c milk shakes at De Voe's. Mylon Hodges of Yoncalla is spending a few days in the city, coming to attend the funeral of his father, the late Cliff Hodges of Yoncalla, Ore. "How can you sell such beautiful dresses and suits at such little prices?" we are asked. It is a case of get out as quick as possible. Only 10 more days. Ahrens. Forest Burch was given a preliminary hearing before Justice Glenn O. Taylor Monday morning on a charge of burglarizing a cabin, property of the government, located on the Siskiyou Highway. The complaint was filed by Perl Davis, who is in charge of the cabin. On account of the absence of prosecuting attorney Roberts, who is in Portland, the case has been postponed until January 25. The prisoner's bail was fixed at $500. Be at Methodist church Wednesday. C. L. Wilson of Glendale, Ore., is spending a few days in the city visiting friends and attending to business matters. Phone 927 Brownies for groceries. L. D. Hart of Klamath Falls is a Medford visitor. Sweet elder at De Voe's. A. J. Jackson of Oakland, Cal., is spending a few days in the city on business. You cannot afford to miss this final windup sale. Only 10 more days. Ahrens. W. S. Nell of Grants Pass spent the week-end in Medford. Be at Methodist church Wednesday. A. W. Morey of San Francisco, is among the out of town business visitors in the city. For your old home friends. "The Valley of the Rogue," 15c. Frank Farrell spent the week-end in the city, returning to the University of Oregon, where he is a student, Sunday night. Gates sells Ford cars, $200 down and $25 a month. Joseph Spencer was picked up Sunday night while drunk by police sergeant Pat Mena and placed in the city jail. He was brought before Police Judge Taylor Monday morning and was fined $5 and costs. It appearing that the prisoner was without funds, the fine was remitted. See the stock labels carried by the Medford Printing Co., if you are in a hurry. George M. Roberts left Sunday night for Portland, where he will attend to legal business for a few days. Be at Methodist church Wednesday.

PEACE MUST BE SECURED BY FORCE BASED ON EQUALITY

(Continued From page One.)

that does not include the peoples of the new world can suffice to keep the future safe against war, and yet there is only one sort of peace that the peoples of America could join in guaranteeing. Force is Essential. "The elements of that peace must be elements that engage the confidence and satisfy the principles of the American government, elements consistent with their political faith and the practical convictions which the peoples of America have once for all embraced and undertaken to defend. "I do not mean to say that any American government would throw any obstacle in the way of any terms of peace the governments now at war might agree upon or seek to upset them when made, whatever they might be. I only take it for granted that mere terms of peace between the belligerents will not satisfy even the belligerents themselves. Mere agreements may not make peace sure. It will be absolutely necessary that a force be created as a guarantor of the permanency of the settlement so much greater than the force of any nation now engaged or any alliance hitherto formed or projected, that no nation, no probable combination of nations, could face or withstand it. If the peace presently to be made is to endure it must be a peace made secure by the organized major force of mankind. The terms of the immediate peace agreed upon will determine whether there is a peace where such guarantee can be secured. The question upon which the whole future peace and policy of the world depends is this: Great Issue of the War. "Is the present war a struggle for a just and secure peace or only for a new balance of power? If it be only a struggle for a new balance of power, who will guarantee, who can guarantee, the stable equilibrium of the new arrangement? Only a tranquil Europe can be a stable Europe. There must be not a balance of power, but a community of power; not organized rivalries, but an organized common peace. "Fortunately, we have received very explicit assurances on this point. The statesmen of both of the groups of nations now arrayed against one another have said in terms that could not be misinterpreted that it was no part of the purpose they had in mind to crush their antagonists. But the implications of these assurances may not be equally clear to all—may not be the same on both sides of the water. I think it will be advisable if I attempt to set forth what we understand them to be. Peace Without Victory. "They imply first of all that it must be a peace without victory. It is not pleasant to say this. I beg that I may be permitted to put my own interpretation upon it and that it may be understood that no other interpretation was in my thought. I am seeking only to face realities and to face them without soft concealments. Victory would mean peace forced upon the loser, a victor's terms imposed upon the vanquished. It would be made in humiliation, under duress at an intolerable sacrifice, and would leave a sting, a resentment, a bitter memory upon which terms of peace would rest, not permanently, but only as upon quicksand. Only a peace between equals can last; only a peace the very principle of which is equality and a common participation in a common benefit. The right state of mind, the right feeling between nations, is as necessary for a lasting peace as is the just settlement of vexed questions of territory or of racial and national allegiance. "The equality of nations upon which peace must be founded, if it is to last, must be an equality of rights; the guarantees exchanged must neither recognize nor imply a difference between big nations and small, between those that are powerful and those that are weak. Based Upon Justice. "Right must be based upon the common strength, not upon the individual strength, of the nations upon whose consent peace will depend. Equality of territory or of resources there, of course, cannot be; nor any sort of equality not gained in the ordinary peaceful and legitimate development of the peoples themselves. But no one asks or expects anything more than an equality of rights. Mankind is looking now for freedom of life, or for equipoises of power. "And there is a deeper thing involved than even equality of right among organized nations. No peace can last, or ought to last, which does not recognize and accept the principle that governments derive all their just powers from the consent of the governed, and that no right anywhere exists to hand peoples about from sovereignty to sovereignty as if they were property. I take it for granted, for instance, if I may venture upon a single example, that statesmen everywhere are agreed that there should be a united, independent and autonomous Poland, and that henceforth in inviolable security of life, of worship and of industrial and social development should be guaranteed to all peoples who have lived hitherto under the power of governments devoted to faith and purpose hostile to their own. Must Guarantee Liberty. "I speak of this not because of any desire to exult in abstract political principle which has always been held very dear by those who have sought to build up liberty in America, but for the same reason that I have spoken of the other conditions of peace which seem to me clearly indispensable, because I wish frankly to uncover realities. Any peace which does not recognize and accept this principle will inevitably be upset. It will not rest upon the affections or the qualifications of mankind. The ferment of spirit of whole populations will fight subtly and constantly against it and all the world will sympathize. The world can be at peace only if its life is stable and there can be no stability where the will is in rebellion, where there is not tranquility of spirit and a sense of justice and freedom and right. "So far as practicable, however, every great people now struggling towards a full development of its resources and of its powers should be assured a direct outlet to the great highways of the seas. Where this cannot be done by the cession of territory, it can no doubt be done by the neutralization of direct rights of way under the general guarantee which will assure the peace itself. With a right equality of arrangement no nation need be shut away from free access to the open paths of the world's commerce. Paths of Sea Free. "And the paths of the sea must alike in law and in fact, be free. The freedom of the seas is the sine qua non of peace, equality and co-operation. No doubt a somewhat radical consideration of many of the rules of international practice hitherto sought to be established may be necessary in order to make the seas indeed free and common in practically all circumstances for the use of mankind, but the motive for such changes is convincing and compelling. There can be no trust or intimacy between the peoples of the world without them. The free, constant, unthreatened intercourse of nations is an essential part of the process of peace and of development. It need not be difficult to define or to secure the freedom of the seas if the governments of the world sincerely desire to come to an agreement concerning it. "It is a problem closely connected with the limitation of naval armaments and the co-operation of the navies of the world in keeping the seas at once free and safe. And the question of limiting naval armaments opens the wider and perhaps more difficult question of the limitation of armies and of all programs of military preparation. Difficult and delicate as these questions are, they must be faced with the utmost candor and decided in a spirit of real accommodation if peace is to come with healing in its wings, and come to stay. Peace cannot be had without concession and sacrifice. There can be no sense of safety and equality among the nations if great preponderating armaments are henceforth to continue here and there to be built up and maintained. Must Plan for Peace. "The statesmen of the world must plan for peace and nations must adjust and accommodate their policy to it as they have planned for war and made ready for pitiless contest and rivalry. The question of armaments, whether on land or sea, is the most immediate and intensely practical question connected with the future fortunes of nations and of mankind. "I have spoken upon these great matters without reserve and with the utmost explicitness because it has seemed to me to be necessary if the world's yearning desire for peace was anywhere to find free voice and utterance. Perhaps I am the only person in high authority amongst all the peoples of the world who is at liberty to speak and hold nothing back. I am speaking as an individual and yet I am speaking also, of course, as the responsible head of a great government, and I feel confident that I have said what the people of the United States would wish me to say. May I not add that I hope and believe that I am in effect speaking for liberals and friends of humanity in every nation and of every program of liberty? I would fain believe that I am speaking for the silent mass of mankind everywhere who have as yet had no place or opportunity to speak their real hearts out concerning the death and ruin they see to have come already upon the persons and the homes they hold most dear. No Breach of Policy. "And in holding out the expectation that the people and government of the United States will join the other civilized nations of the world in guaranteeing the permanence of peace upon such terms as I have named, I speak with the greater boldness and confidence because it is clear to every man who can think that there is in this promise no breach in either our traditions or our policy as a nation, but a fulfillment rather of all that we have professed or striven for. "I am proposing, as it were, that the nations should with one accord adopt the doctrine of President Monroe as the doctrine of the world—that no nation should seek to extend its policy over any other nation or people, but that every people should be left free to determine its own policy, its own way of development, unhindered, unthreatened, unafraid, the little along with the great and powerful. Avoid Entangling Alliances. "I am proposing that all nations henceforth avoid entangling alliances which would draw them into competitions of power, catch them in a net of intrigue and selfish rivalry and disturb their own affairs with influences introduced from without. There is no entangling alliance in a concert of peace. When all unite to act in the same sense and with the same purpose all act in the common interest and are free to live their own lives under a common protection. "I am proposing government by the consent of the governed; that freedom of the seas which in international conference after conference representatives of the United States have urged with the eloquence of those who are the convinced discipline of liberty; and that moderation of armaments which makes of armies and navies a power for order merely, not an instrument of aggression or of selfish violence. "These are American principles, American policies. We can stand for no others, and they are also the principles and policies of forward-looking men and women everywhere, of every modern nation, of every enlightened community. They are the principles of mankind and must prevail." FIRM TO ENTER FIELD AS FRUIT SHIPPER C. E. Patterson, general sales manager of the Oregon Fruit Co., has been in Medford for a few days getting acquainted with conditions in the valley. It has been decided by the Oregon Fruit Co. since its affiliation with the Pacific Fruit & Produce Co. to enter this field as one of the big buyers and shippers. There has been no change in the policy of the Oregon Fruit Co. S. C. Dalton of Portland remaining as general manager of the Medford Fruit Co. Mr. Patterson's visit was made very pleasant by meeting many of the large growers and shippers of fruit. "Pat," as he is known by every fruit man in the northwest, is hurrying back to Portland so as to be on hand to receive the Medford delegation of Shriners when they arrive in their big special car for the big annual ceremonial. THOSE AWFUL CRAMPS Suggestions that may save Much Suffering Marysville, Pa.—"For twelve years I suffered with terrible cramps. I would have to stay in bed several days every month. I tried all kinds of remedies and was treated by doctors, but my trouble continued until one day I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it had done for others. I tried it and now I am never troubled with cramps and feel like a different woman. I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound too highly and I am recommending it to my friends who suffer as I did." —Mrs. GEORGE R. NAYLOR, Box 72, Marysville, Pa. Young women who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Thousands have been restored to health by this root and herb remedy. Write for free and helpful advice to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Only women open and read such letters. TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY FOR SALE—Eggs for hatching, from first prize winners at State Poultry Show. S. C. White Leghorn, $1.00 per setting. R. C. Silver Laced Wyandottes, $1.25 per setting. Order now for future hatching. P. E. Wynn, 829 West 12th st. Phone 204-W. 212

PEACE MUST BE SECURED BY FORCE BASED ON EQUALITY

(Continued From page One.)

PEACE MUST BE SECURED BY FORCE BASED ON EQUALITY

(Continued From page One.)

PEACE MUST BE SECURED BY FORCE BASED ON EQUALITY

(Continued From page One.)

erned, and that no right anywhere exists to hand peoples about from sovereignty to sovereignty as if they were property. I take it for granted, for instance, if I may venture upon a single example, that statesmen everywhere are agreed that there should be a united, independent and autonomous Poland, and that henceforth in inviolable security of life, of worship and of industrial and social development should be guaranteed to all peoples who have lived hitherto under the power of governments devoted to faith and purpose hostile to their own. Must Guarantee Liberty. "I speak of this not because of any desire to exult in abstract political principle which has always been held very dear by those who have sought to build up liberty in America, but for the same reason that I have spoken of the other conditions of peace which seem to me clearly indispensable, because I wish frankly to uncover realities. Any peace which does not recognize and accept this principle will inevitably be upset. It will not rest upon the affections or the qualifications of mankind. The ferment of spirit of whole populations will fight subtly and constantly against it and all the world will sympathize. The world can be at peace only if its life is stable and there can be no stability where the will is in rebellion, where there is not tranquility of spirit and a sense of justice and freedom and right. "So far as practicable, however, every great people now struggling towards a full development of its resources and of its powers should be assured a direct outlet to the great highways of the seas. Where this cannot be done by the cession of territory, it can no doubt be done by the neutralization of direct rights of way under the general guarantee which will assure the peace itself. With a right equality of arrangement no nation need be shut away from free access to the open paths of the world's commerce. Paths of Sea Free. "And the paths of the sea must alike in law and in fact, be free. The freedom of the seas is the sine qua non of peace, equality and co-operation. No doubt a somewhat radical consideration of many of the rules of international practice hitherto sought to be established may be necessary in order to make the seas indeed free and common in practically all circumstances for the use of mankind, but the motive for such changes is convincing and compelling. There can be no trust or intimacy between the peoples of the world without them. The free, constant, unthreatened intercourse of nations is an essential part of the process of peace and of development. It need not be difficult to define or to secure the freedom of the seas if the governments of the world sincerely desire to come to an agreement concerning it. "It is a problem closely connected with the limitation of naval armaments and the co-operation of the navies of the world in keeping the seas at once free and safe. And the question of limiting naval armaments opens the wider and perhaps more difficult question of the limitation of armies and of all programs of military preparation. Difficult and delicate as these questions are, they must be faced with the utmost candor and decided in a spirit of real accommodation if peace is to come with healing in its wings, and come to stay. Peace cannot be had without concession and sacrifice. There can be no sense of safety and equality among the nations if great preponderating armaments are henceforth to continue here and there to be built up and maintained. Must Plan for Peace. "The statesmen of the world must plan for peace and nations must adjust and accommodate their policy to it as they have planned for war and made ready for pitiless contest and rivalry. The question of armaments, whether on land or sea, is the most immediate and intensely practical question connected with the future fortunes of nations and of mankind. "I have spoken upon these great matters without reserve and with the utmost explicitness because it has seemed to me to be necessary if the world's yearning desire for peace was anywhere to find free voice and utterance. Perhaps I am the only person in high authority amongst all the peoples of the world who is at liberty to speak and hold nothing back. I am speaking as an individual and yet I am speaking also, of course, as the responsible head of a great government, and I feel confident that I have said what the people of the United States would wish me to say. May I not add that I hope and believe that I am in effect speaking for liberals and friends of humanity in every nation and of every program of liberty? I would fain believe that I am speaking for the silent mass of mankind everywhere who have as yet had no place or opportunity to speak their real hearts out concerning the death and ruin they see to have come already upon the persons and the homes they hold most dear. No Breach of Policy. "And in holding out the expectation

FISH SCREEN MOVIES SHOW SCREEN NEED

The movies taken by A. C. Allen showing the workings of the Aitken fish screen, adopted by the State Fish and Game commission, aroused much interest at the Page Saturday evening, and did more to convince the spectators of the need of adequately screening irrigation ditches to preserve fish fry, than any amount of argument could. They were in three sections, one showing the unscreened ditch and what happens to the young trout, the other showing the old-fashioned stationary screens, which become blocked with debris, dams up and spills the fish, and the Aitken screen and its perfect work. Mr. Aitken will take the films along with a model of the screen to exhibit to the members of the legislature at Salem, to convince them of the need of adequate screen legislation.

FINLEY TO SHOW WILD LIFE MOVIES

State biologist W. L. Finley will lecture and exhibit new films of wild life to Jackson county school children this week, under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers circles. His dates are as follows: Tuesday, January 23, at Rogue River at 1:30 p. m.; at Central Point at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, January 24, at Medford at the Page, after the regular afternoon program, at about 4:30 p. m. Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock at Talent. Thursday afternoon and evening, at Ashland. If possible a date will be arranged for him at Eagle Point Friday.

Clears Blotchy Skin

Don't worry about blotches or other skin troubles. You can have a clear, clean complexion by using a little Zemo, obtained at any drug store for 25c, or extra large bottle at $1.00. Zemo easily removes all traces of pimples, black heads, blotches, eczema, and ringworm and makes the skin clear and healthy. Zemo is a clean, penetrating, antiseptic liquid, neither sticky nor greasy and stains nothing. It is easily applied and costs a mere trifle for each application. It is always dependable. The E. W. Ross Co., Cleveland, O.

Capital $100,000 1st National Bank MEDFORD OREGON

The Many Needs of an Auto C. E. GATES can all be had at this depot of auto accessories. No matter whether be a new motor, some new battery tools or a set of tires, extra spark tubes, we have what is wanted for your instant use. Keep other things in mind. The Rose City's world-famed hotel, occupying an entire block. All outside rooms. Superior dining and grill service. An atmosphere of refinement, with a service of courtesy. European Plan, $1.50 and Up RICHARD W. CHILDS, Manager

No Need To Rub! FOR stiff sore muscles apply Sloan's Liniment to the sore or ache, it quickly penetrates and soothes without rubbing. Rheumatism, gout, lumbago, sprains and bruises are quickly relieved. Cleaner and more promptly effective than musky plasters or ointments. Does not stain the skin or clog the pores. The family medicine chest in thousands of homes has a place for Sloan's Liniment. At all druggists, 25c, 50c, and $1.00.

Sloan's Liniment KILLS PAIN

AMUSEMENTS TONIGHT. Page Always Worth While Good Movies. BILLIE BURKE in the "MESH OF MYSTERY." And VIOLA DANA in her best screen offering, "THE COSSACK WHIP." Edison's marvel play. TOMORROW—The Jungle Club. Adults 15c; Children, 5c.

Attention, Farmers MEDFORD JUNK COMPANY 31-33 N. Bartlett St. Pay Highest Prices for HIDES! Green hides per lb. Dry hides per lb. Green calf hides, per lb. Dry calf hides, per lb. We Also Buy Sheep Pelts and Skins. Phone 283-J.

MADE IN MEDFORD SUITS TO ORDER $25.00 UP Also Cleaning, Pressing and Altering 128 E. MAIN, UPSTAIRS

How Money is Safe-Guarded SECURITY for funds deposited at the 1st National Bank—in either Savings or Commercial department—is three-fold: Government Laws and Supervision; Modern Time-locked Fire and Burglar Proof Vaults; and not least, Conservative Management. All of these are essential.

A Checking Account with us will afford you a safer and more convenient means of transacting business.

The Many Needs of an Auto C. E. GATES can all be had at this depot of auto accessories. No matter whether be a new motor, some new battery tools or a set of tires, extra spark tubes, we have what is wanted for your instant use. Keep other things in mind.

The Portland Hotel PORTLAND, OREGON The Rose City's world-famed hotel, occupying an entire block. All outside rooms. Superior dining and grill service. An atmosphere of refinement, with a service of courtesy. European Plan, $1.50 and Up RICHARD W. CHILDS, Manager