

DECISION RANK INJUSTICE SAYS MRS. MAURY DIGGS

OAKLAND, Cal., Jan. 23.—Mrs. Maury I. Diggs, known to the world as Marsha Warrington, the Girl Diggs took to Reno, Nev., issued a signed statement here today, giving her view of the decision of the United States supreme court, affirming the conviction of Diggs and F. Drew Caminetti under the Mann act. Since their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Diggs have lived quietly here and Diggs has built up a considerable business.

"We are defenseless before this sentence," Mrs. Diggs said in her statement. "If infractions of the moral code were punishable with prison terms, we would accept this judgment as eminently just. We do not wish to make any extenuation of our mistake. But we are not punished for the act which we have confessed. My husband is punished for a crime he did not commit. He is not now, and he never was, a white slave. We were of age and we went for reasons not immoral. There was no compulsion.

"We do not think we have been given an equal chance. The sentence carried out at this late date can benefit no one. We are already broken in fortune and reputation, in family, in spirit. From this punishment there is no escape, and it is enough."

HORN BROOK HIT BY REPRESENTATIVE THOMAS

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 23.—A public hearing on the "bone dry" prohibition bill was held last night by the joint committee on alcoholic traffic of the senate and the house of the Oregon legislature. Practically every interest affected by the proposed measure was represented but no voice was raised in objection to the "bone dry" feature of the bill. Provision for regulation of the sale of alcohol caused the most discussion.

A strong plea was made by C. M. Thomas, representative from Jackson county, which adjoins California, for more stringent regulations to prevent illegal shipments of liquor from California. He declared that a community composed of "the scum of the earth" has sprung up in the "mail order" town of Hornbrook, just across the line.

FIND ALIBI FOR BOOSTING GRAYSON OVER 100 OTHERS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—In a statement answering published criticisms questioning the legality of nominating Dr. Cary T. Grayson, his naval aide and physician, for promotion to the grade of rear admiral, over more than a hundred ranking officers of the medical corps, Secretary Daniels tonight disclosed the fact that before the five new staff rear admirals were chosen, the judge advocate general of the navy gave an opinion, concurred in by the attorney-general that it rested entirely within the discretion of the president to select the staff officers, whom he deemed best fitted for the advancement.

The statement points out that while in line of navy promotions are made by selections of a special board, congress provided no method for advancement of staff officers to the new rank of rear admiral.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—Charles E. Hughes was welcomed back to the practice of law in New York at a dinner given in his honor tonight by the Association of the Bar of New York, Ellhu Root, in his address of welcome, declared: "I am glad he is here, but I wish he were somewhere else."

NEW PRIMARY LAW DRAFTED AT SALEM

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 23.—If its constitutionality can be reasonably assured a bill will be introduced in the senate providing that when a candidate receives a majority of the vote cast in a primary election he shall be deemed elected, save as against independent candidates.

Primarily this measure will strike at democrats registering as republicans for the primary election with the view of nominating the weakest republican candidate, and then defeating him with a democrat at the general election. Republicans have complained much against this practice in the past, and have been unable successfully to cope with it, it is said. Under the proposed measure, however, a democrat voting for a republican in the primaries would also be aiding in electing him over a democrat, and it is believed that this would drive the democrats away from the republican primaries.

Tentatively the provisions of the measure have been decided upon, and if an examination of the constitution reveals that it will be valid, it will be introduced.

MURDER LAID TO TAUNTS OF GIRL, SOCIETY OUTCAST

W. H. WELLS

Columbus, O., police say Wells of Kansas City, Mo., has confessed to the murder of Mona Simon, former choir girl of Phillips, W. Va. Wells said, according to the police, the girl's taunts that she was a social outcast who sought to avenge her downfall on men, led him to shoot her. The body of the girl was found in a room in the fashionable Deshler hotel, which Wells says he and the girl occupied.

SPANELL DEVOTED TO WIFE HE KILLED

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Jan. 23.—Testimony to show that Harry J. Spanell was devoted to his wife and child occupied most of this morning's session at the trial of Spanell, who is charged with killing his wife and Colonel M. C. Butler. Counsel for the defense asked M. M. Miller of Mission, Tex., if he was acquainted with Colonel Butler's general reputation at Mission in regard to his relations with women.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

James Peyton, whose father owns a farm near Prospect, spent Wednesday night with us. George B. Brown of Brownsboro came out from Medford Wednesday evening, took supper at the Sunny-side and then Jud Edsall took him up home. While here he told me that he had discovered cimbar on his place, and that he pounded up about seven pounds of the rock and procured a lump of quicksilver as large as the end of his finger. He seemed to think that there is a large deposit of the ore that will be of value in the near future. There is no telling what may be found yet in this Butte creek country, for Messrs. Daley and Conley have been developing their copper mine on Lake creek, and if this cimbar proves to be a success there is no telling what may be the future of Eagle Point, for it seems to be the business center of this whole section, and with the prospect of the Pacific highway coming from near Canyonville, Douglas county, via the trail creek route, thus saving a distance of about forty miles, the whole geography of this country may be changed.

George West and Frank Carlson, when they had gone a little above the Russ Moore place, found that the stream was frozen over, but not hard enough to bear up the mules, but so hard as to be in danger of cutting their legs, so they unloaded the hay and retraced their steps as far as Mr. Moore's, spent the night there, coming out here the next day. They left men to fix a crossing so that they could cross on their return, so by this time they have their feed all up there and will try to get their dynamite up by the first of the week and then go to work in earnest on the road, to the joy of all travelers.

Jerry Bishop of Butte Falls came out on the P. & E. last Thursday and was taken to the Sunnyside and treated by our local M. D., W. W. P. Holt. His mother and sister, Miss Ida Bishop, are with him. I heard the doctor remark that he was improving.

It is strange how things do happen in this world. Yesterday Mrs. Howlett took a notion that she would put in a comforter in the frames and took it out at her leisure. Well, strange to say, she had hardly got it in the frames when Mrs. William Perry, Mrs. Charles Clark and her mother, Mrs. Newman, just dropped in, and later Miss Clara Zimmerman, one of the phone girls and a regular boarder, was off duty for a few hours, so she came in just in time to be handy, so they all together made an assault on the comforter, and in a very short time had it ready to bind, but before they were through with the job, Mrs. John W. Smith and her sister, Miss Pearl Stowell, dropped in and in a few minutes Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Penney and his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Port of Jacksonville, came in and altogether they had one of those old-fashioned social times. Mr. Port remained over night with us and the others went to Jacksonville. They were in a new car with O. V. Myers, who was trying to trade his car, a Maxwell, for Mr. Port's Ford. Mr. Port is one of the forest rangers and was on his way up to join Messrs. West and Carlson at Dead Indian Soda Springs, taking the Eagle Point-Lake Creek stage today.

T. S. Branson, of the New York Life Insurance Co., stopped here for supper Friday evening, then went on to Medford that night. This morning when I reached the P. & E. depot I heard a most unearthly noise and on inquiry learned that there were three cages of trained dogs in the depot that had been shipped to one of our townsmen, J. B. Jackson, by his brother, who had been using them in connection with a traveling show.

A. J. Mitchell, a Christian Science healer of Medford, and Arden Tyrrel were among the passengers who stopped off here Saturday morning. Mr. Mitchell was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Knighton and while here he visited your correspondent and family. If it was not that the lady who has recently been cured of sudden blindness and deafness has requested me not to give it publicity I could give another remarkable cure by him and others of his faith.

Lee Farlow, one of our enterprising farmers and stockmen of Lake Creek, came out Saturday in his car. W. H. Crandall and family drove in Saturday afternoon to do some shopping. C. A. Newstrom and Fritz Peck of Lake Creek came in Saturday after a load of piping for road culverts.

The weather during the past week being very fine made an improvement in the roads, so that it was much better for the people to get there in their autos. There will be a hard times dance the 22d of February. Every one is invited to come and have a good time.

Hurrah! How's This

Cincinnati authority says corns dry up and lift out with fingers.

Hospital records show that every time you cut a corn you invite lockjaw or blood poison, which is needless, says a Cincinnati authority, who tells you that a quarter ounce of a drug called freezone can be obtained at little cost from the drug store but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus. You simply apply a few drops of freezone on a tender, aching corn and soreness is instantly relieved. Shortly the entire corn can be lifted out, root and all, without pain. This drug is sticky but dries at once and is claimed to just shrivel up any corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. If your wife wears high heels she will be glad to know of this.

AN EXPERT ON COLDS

Comparatively few people realize that a cold is a sign of physical weakness. To treat a cold with weakening physics, alcoholic syrups or drugged pills, may smother the cold but they also reduce the body powers still further and invite more serious sickness.
