ARKANSAS GOES "DRY" AMID GAY CELEBRATION. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Jan. 25.—While six hundred men sang "How Dry I Am" Governor Brough signed the Arkansas "bone dry" bill at the annual dinner of the Little Rock board of commerce tonight. All state officials and members of the legislature were guests at the dinner.

Express companies were rushed today delivering orders of liquor. One local telegraph company reported it handled 800 telegrams from Little Rock residents ordering liquor yesterday.

PRESIDENT WILSON AND DEMOCRATS MEET. WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Five democratic leaders of the senate, three of them members of the foreign relations committee had a long conference with President Wilson at the White House last night. Afterward all of them refused flatly to talk.

In the conference were Chairman Stone and Senators Pomerene and Saulsbury of the foreign relations committee and Senators Walsh and Hoke Smith. The president is much interested in the efforts of Senator Cummins and other republicans to force an open debate on his peace address and in some quarters, it was believed that it was in this connection that the senators were called to the White House.

It is understood the subject was discussed only generally and that no attempt was made to agree upon any plan of action.

The legislative program was talked over and the president is said to have urged the importance of passing water power legislation before the end of the session.

There have been suggestions that, in order to prevent interference with legislation by daily discussions of the Cummins resolutions, which would set aside next week for debate, the administration might favor either fixing a limited time for the debate now, or an agreement to postpone it until the senate holds its extra session after the fourth of March.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

Last Saturday night Henry Trusty, Joe Moomaw and Miss Claire Zimmerman gave a social dance, as Miss Claire said, just something to break the monotony, and it proved to be a success both financially and socially, for those who participated "chipped in" and made up enough to pay the rent of the opera house and the music, and I heard one young man remark that there were but two or three who showed signs of having been drinking. There was a number of the young men who attended the dance came into the Sunnyside about 1 a. m. Sunday, took breakfast and the most of them remained for dinner, among whom were Lyle Purdin of Medford, who remained until Monday morning; the two Haley brothers, Ed Cingcade, Harry Lewis, and later his brother Will; Orville Childreth, Al Clements and Mr. Reter of Jacksonville.

W. R. McLeod, our enterprising merchant, who has a store near the upper steel bridge on Rogue river, spent Saturday night with us on his way home with a load of supplies for his store.

Among the callers for dinner Sunday beside those already mentioned were George von der Hellen, one of our hardware merchants; Mrs. Wm. Perry and daughter, Miss Estella Betts, and stepdaughter, Miss Fay Perry, Joe Moomaw, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Hancey and Mrs. Arden Smith of Medford and Mr. Sitzer.

Last Saturday while Will Holman of Climax and Ray Harnish were feeding their cattle the team ran away, and the first jump they made threw Roy Harnish off the rear end of the wagon and knocked him senseless, and sooner than it takes me to write the account of the accident, the team ran over a precipice about twelve feet high, tearing the wagon over and landing the wagon bed on Mr. Holman, breaking his leg just above the knee, and otherwise bruising him very badly. That night Dr. Holt was called, reaching there about midnight. The doctor went as far as he could with his auto and then procured a rig and went on up. The place is up in the mountains on Antelope creek. He set the broken bone as best he could with the facilities he had and the next day brought him out to the Sunnyside, when Dr. Thayer was called from Medford, reaching here about 4 p. m. The two doctors then went to work to reduce the fracture and make Mr. H. as comfortable as possible. While this was going on here, Pete Stowell and wife were waiting at Pete's brother-in-law, John Smith's, with his stepson, about 10 years old, to have Dr. Holt come and reduce a fractured wrist for the boy. It appears that he was climbing on a fence and fell off, and thus had his wrist broken. But the doctor fixed him up all right so that his parents took him home the next morning. That makes two broken legs and a broken wrist that Dr. Holt has had to set in about a week, John Allen of Derby, Mr. Holman and the Stowell boy. It looks as though someone was unfortunate, to say the least.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Messer of Hastings, Mich., and Frederick Heath and his mother motored out Monday and went as far as Brownsboro. Mr. and Mrs. Messer were here about a year ago visiting Mrs. Heath. Mrs. Messer is a sister of Mrs. F. L. Heath, now of Medford, and since she was here she and Mr. Messer have been married. They are now on their way to the Hawaiian Islands to spend the winter.

Mr. Stewart, who owns a tract of land about two miles northeast of here, was in town Monday, and so was Mrs. Charles Terrell of Brownsboro. They were both doing business with our new merchant, T. E. Nichols.

Monday, Messrs. M. Marshall, D. Marshall, W. H. Korte and J. C. Herring of Central Point called in for dinner, and so did C. A. Neunstrom and a stranger from Lake Creek.

P. S. Anderson, one of our occasional boarders, who has been spending the past week in Ashland and Montague, Cal., returned to his room Monday evening, and Lee Grisson of Climax also spent the night with us.

Mrs. John Greb, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Medford, returned home Monday on the P. & E. Tuesday morning Ernest Smith and wife of Butte Falls, Harvey Smith and Mr. Berrian, the Butte Falls fish hatchery man, were on the P. & E.

At the P. & E. depot Tuesday morning I noticed that the agent, Amos Ayres, had a crate of fine chicks for the Medford market. Speaking of the chicken business here, he told me that he had paid out between September 1 and December 31 for poultry alone $911.94, beside all those who have shipped their own poultry.

I see that Thomas Farlow, one of our thriving farmers and stockmen of the upper Butte country, has shipped a quantity of alfalfa meal. He claims that it is one of the best things to build up a poor cow extant.

Herman Meyer, the mail contractor and carrier between here and Lake Creek, reported that his younger son Ed fell off a trestle Tuesday morning about five feet high and bruised himself up considerable. He was here to consult Dr. Holt on the subject.

Since my last report Amos Ayres has renewed his subscription to the D. M. T. and Plenny Lembo has subscribed for the D. M. T. I have a lot more of items to write, but have not time to write them this (Tuesday) evening, as I want to get this in the evening mail.

The longest and coldest weather that has ever been known in our community. George Buckley was in town Monday. Dr. Cameron was in Medford the first of the week. Mr. Nichols and Mr. Gilbank, accompanied by their wives, were visiting in Medford Friday.

Mrs. W. D. Peckham spent Monday night with Mrs. C. C. Pursell. Fred Brown of Medford was out on Applegate Tuesday.

Mrs. Combest was the guest of Mrs. Cronquist Tuesday. A constant party up Little Applegate Sunday was enjoyed by a large number of people.

Frank Randive was in Medford on Wednesday. Ernest Buck was in town this week. H. H. Taylor was up Big Applegate Sunday.

Charles Parcell is working for Wilbur Cameron. Mrs. Pat Swayne was in Medford Tuesday. Frank Cameron was in town last Saturday.

Hennan Offenbacher has purchased a fine new double-seated hack instead of a Ford. Hazel Hamilton spent a few days in Grants Pass recently. Harvey Rack was in Medford Wednesday.

A. S. Kleinhammer was in Medford on business the middle of the week. The dance at Goldsby's hall Saturday night was enjoyed by a large crowd. The best of music and a fine supper was had.

Perry Foster has been visiting with friends on the east side of the river. George Stacy, the new road boss, of the Beagle district, was operating the road scraper last week. Dave Walker was up from Medford for a few days calling on relatives and friends.

Dennis Zimmerley of Eagle Point is working for Dr. Kirchgesser this week. Mr. and Mrs. W. Zimmerley who have been visiting friends near Trail, have returned to Eagle Point.

Miss Mima Hanna has returned from a two week's visit with her sister, Mrs. T. Daily of Medford. B. Johnston has hauled several loads of wheat to the Eagle Point mills recently.

Alek Mathews has taken charge of the Central Point livery stable in place of Jeff Johnson, who recently died.

The roads have been in excellent condition until the recent snow and rain demoralized them again. Miss Jane Johnson is visiting her sister, Mrs. Zimmerly at Eagle Point for a few days.

M. Daily of Medford passed thru here en route from Prospect with several passengers. Mr. P. McDonald, also was Medford bound, and had a little trouble near the school house. However, J. Hanna's team helped out and no doubt the rest of the trip was made without further annoyance.

Miss Juanita Mathews recently passed her 21st birthday. Mrs. Ruby Jones and Amy Koester were the guests of Mrs. Mattie Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leace were callers in Gold Hill last week.

THE WILLOW SPRINGS GRANGE will hold its next session on Saturday, Jan. 27.

Grangers will arrive at 11 o'clock a. m. to prepare dinner in the school house. After dinner there will be an open meeting during which the officers will be installed in their respective offices. All are invited to come.

Miss Doris Bagley of Ashland, visited with Mrs. W. A. Thompson last week. Miss Lea Parker left last Saturday morning for Grants Pass to make her home with her grandmother, Mrs. H. B. Alverson for the rest of the winter. She will attend high school in Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. George Davis and family were dinner guests of the J. W. Elden family Thursday evening.
