The Lincoln Parent-Teacher circle met Friday afternoon at the school building. There was a large attendance and a most enthusiastic meeting was held. Final plans were made for the planting of trees, shrubbery and flowers. Mrs. Seely gave an interesting and instructive report of the convention of Congress of Mothers. All southern Oregon Parent-Teacher circles are urged to increase their membership and thus be able to send a large delegation to Eugene for the next annual meeting and election of officers. Southern Oregon has selected Mrs. Usher of Ashland as her nominee for state president. There is no reason for the Parent-Teacher circles of southern Oregon not leading in these educational and civic movements if they will but organize and do more effective work. The ladies of the circle decided to give a Lincoln tea Friday, February 9, from 2 to 5, at the home of Mrs. A. J. Hanby, 726 Welch street. The program will be announced later. The mothers of the fifth grade pupils proved themselves delightful hostesses and their efforts were greatly appreciated by all present.

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bowne was the scene of one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season last evening, when they entertained with a ball for about eighty friends. The occasion was the formal opening of their new home Ayres-lean. The evening was delightfully spent with dancing, splendid music being furnished by a four-piece orchestra. Card tables were arranged for those who preferred cards to dancing. At midnight a beautiful supper was served and dancing followed until a late hour.

Many friends are interested in the announcement of the marriage of Mrs. Nina M. Egan of Chicago and Harold W. Bingham. The wedding took place in Chicago, Saturday, January 6. Mrs. Bingham is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McNally of Chicago. Mr. Bingham has made his home here for several years, where he has large property interests. Mr. and Mrs. Bingham will be at home to their friends in Medford after February 15.

The Golden Link bible class of the Baptist Sunday school met at the home of Mrs. Frank Loder, Wednesday afternoon. After a business session the remainder of the afternoon was spent in arranging papers which are to be sold. The class will meet again next Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Loder to finish this work. Mrs. Loder served delicious refreshments at the close of the afternoon.

The Lady Elks enjoyed a pleasant afternoon at the Elks' club Friday. The afternoon was given over to bridge and pool. Mrs. Jonas Wold won highest honors at bridge and Mrs. Jesse Honek at pool. The committee in charge were: Mrs. R. W. Doelling, chairman; Mrs. George Porter, Mrs. Bert Orr, Mrs. Wayne Leever and Mrs. Noe, Edward Soutter, Charles Gay and Mrs. Bert Orr.

Miss Lucy Gregg entertained a few friends last Wednesday night at her home on South Almond street. The evening was pleasantly spent with games and music, after which an exciting taffy-pulling contest took place.

Mrs. W. S. Hammond and daughter, Mrs. Vera Hamill, and granddaughter, Helen, left Monday for six weeks' visit with Mrs. Hammond's daughters, Mrs. F. O. Roberts, at Pocatello, and Mrs. W. W. Vail at Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Coffield of Minneapolis arrived in Medford Monday to spend the remainder of the winter visiting relatives. Mrs. Coffield is a sister of Mrs. George Corey.

Mrs. Darnelle delightfully entertained the senior ladies' Bible class of the Christian church Friday afternoon at her home on Riverside.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Dodge of Chicago arrived in the city Wednesday morning and will visit friends for a few weeks.

The Wednesday Sewing club met with Mrs. B. L. Kwang Wednesday afternoon at her home on Vancouver avenue.

Mrs. F. E. Merrick entertained the Monday Bridge club at her home on Monday afternoon.

The Parent-Teacher circle of the Washington school met at the school building Friday afternoon with about fifty mothers in attendance. An unusually interesting meeting was held with Mrs. Fred Meurs, the president, presiding. Short talks on the course of study were given by Professor Hillis and Professor Cramer. Following the business session, Mrs. J. Campbell took charge and the subject, "Does an Education Help a Woman to Become an Efficient Homemaker?" was discussed. Mrs. Bliton, Mrs. Boos, Miss Mitchell and Miss Van Meter spoke on "The Ideal Kitchen," "System and Education," "Concentration," "Food," and "How an Education Helps a Woman to Become an Efficient Homemaker From a Teacher's Standpoint." At the close of the meeting refreshments were served.

At the regular weekly drill of the Seventh company at the armory Wednesday evening the men appeared in dress uniform. At the close of the regular artillery drill a social smoker was held in the parlors. A lunch of cider and doughnuts was served by Corporal Beveridge. The occasion was the tryout of several makes of phonographs. After the trial, during which speeches were made by Captain Vance, First Sergeant Hill and Q. M. Sergeant Powell, it was decided to buy a Victrola. This addition makes the club rooms of the Seventh the most complete of any company in the state, and the boys are very proud of the fact.

A very enjoyable affair of Thursday was the tea given by Mrs. Frank G. Owen in compliment to Miss Florence M. Schofield and Miss Elinor Fell, who addressed the meeting here in the interest of the fatherless children of France. Presiding at the table, which was especially beautiful with daffodils and freesias, were Mrs. S. Vilas Beckwith and Miss Louise Burke. The drawing room was attractively brightened with chrysanthemums, lilies and spring flowers. The guests included the members of the Colony club and a few others who are interested in this work.

Mrs. R. J. Conroy entertained most delightfully with an afternoon of bridge Wednesday complimenting her guest, Mrs. Campion, of San Francisco, who is spending a few weeks here. Four tables of cards were played, after which the hostess served refreshments. The guests were: Mrs. Campion, Mrs. C. W. Abercrombie, Mrs. Charles Brown, Mrs. Geo. Roberts, Mrs. A. L. Hill, Mrs. H. L. Walther, Mrs. J. W. Dunlop, Mrs. Ralph Bardwell, Mrs. Gus Newbury, Mrs. George Collins and Miss Fern Hutchison.

A most delightful progressive dinner party was enjoyed Friday evening by Misses Elsie Lawrence, Josephine Koppes, Isabell Burbidge, Arline Normile, Fern Wing, Vera Charley, Hilda Bundy, Marie Myers and Helen Brown. The first course was served at the home of Miss Helen Brown, the second at Miss Normile's, the third at Miss Koppes', and the fourth at the Shasta. After a theater party music, dancing and light refreshments were enjoyed at the home of Miss Burbidge. Mrs. Koppes and Mrs. Normile chaperoned the party.

Mrs. John Billings, 18 Myrtle street, entertained the junior choir of the M. E. church Sunday Saturday. After the choir rehearsal games were enjoyed. Mrs. Billings served refreshments during the afternoon. Those present were: Misses Nellie and Bernice Lining, Audrey Roberts, Faye Frirer, Jessie Stringer, Rose and Ruth Billings, Lillian Butterfield, Lola Bowman, Carrie May Frirer, Ray Stringer, Herbert Stephenson, Harold Roberts, Henry Saunders, Newman Billings, Stanley Rice Henson, Alvin Robinson, Ernest Lining.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Paul entertained the officers and teachers of the Christian church Sunday school on Tuesday evening. After the general business routine Mrs. Paul served dainty refreshments. Those present were: Mrs. A. J. Hanby, Mrs. E. B. Seely, Misses Caroline Leaders, Grace Perry, Marybell Henson, Sophia Pilcher, Messrs. Hurd, Kowar, Boyd and J. W. Shirley.

A baby test will be held next Tuesday, January 30, at 10 o'clock a. m. at the Medford hotel. All babies 6 months of age or older whose names have been given for registration at the parents' educational bureau may be tested at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts entertained informally at bridge Friday evening for a few friends.

The Roosevelt Parent-Teachers' circle met Friday afternoon. The opening numbers of the program consisted of a piano duet by Rose Billings and Georgia Redden and a song, "Sunbeams," by Ruth Billings, girls of the fifth and sixth grades. Following these, Mrs. Lange sang two numbers in a very pleasing and charming manner, which were appreciated by all. The Rev. Harry Tucker addressed the circle on the "Child Labor Laws." He surveyed the causes which lead to the child labor problem, the progress made in legislation on the subject, and the reconstruction necessary in school and civic life before the great problem can finally be adjusted. Many personal experiences in his study of the subject were given. The talk was both interesting and enlightening and the circle was very appreciative. Mrs. Kelly read a very interesting paper on "Mothers and Morals." She said the great need is character and the development of character the chief duty of the parent. She gave many helpful suggestions on the subject. Miss De Vere talked on the "School's Need of the Parent." That the parent recognize the great forward movement in education and aid in the readjustment that is necessary to make the schools meet the needs of the generation. The meeting was well attended.

The Catholic church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 8:30 Thursday morning, when Rev. Father Powers united in marriage Miss Florence Scheble and Wendel Luckeroth. The choir sang "Ave Maria" at the offertory and Mrs. John Wilkinson sang "O, Salutaris Hostia" at the communion of mass. The couple entered the church as "Lohengrin" wedding march was played. The bride was beautifully attired in white and was attended by Miss Catherine Enig as maid of honor and Milton Lansing was best man. The church was prettily decorated, the altar being especially beautiful with white carnations and ferns. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Scheble, on Eleventh street, to relatives and close friends. Mr. and Mrs. Luckeroth will make their home on South Grape street and have the best wishes of their many friends.

The Lady Elks' dance to be given next Friday night, February 2, promises to be the best dance of the season. The ladies have full charge of this dance, asking for all dances and managing the affair from start to finish. Music will be furnished by Hazelrigg's six-piece orchestra. The dance begins promptly at 8:30, and at 11 o'clock a lunch will be served, which will be prepared by the committee in charge. Mrs. A. B. Cunningham, chairman, is assisted by Mrs. T. E. Daniels, Mrs. Arthur F. Hazelrigg, Mrs. Edison Jerome, Mrs. B. W. Gregory, Mrs. Jonas Wold, Mrs. J. J. Buelter, Mrs. W. F. Quizenberry and Mrs. O. O. Alenderfer.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church will meet at the home of Mrs. D. E. Phipps, 328 North Riverside, Friday, February 2, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Martha Gore will have charge of the program. This promises to be a most interesting meeting, as it closes a four months' contest of members. Every one interested is invited to attend. Mrs. Newton Tinker and Mrs. C. W. Whillock will assist Mrs. Phipps in entertaining.

Mrs. Robert Frirer, 214 Vancouver street, entertained the Rays of Light Friday afternoon. Sewing, games and music were enjoyed. Mrs. Frirer served dainty refreshments during the social hour. Those enjoying Mrs. Frirer's hospitality were: Misses Rose and Ruth Billings, Joyce Maddox, Georgia Redden, Lola Bowman, Faye and Carrie May Frirer and Irma Jennings.

Mrs. George von der Hellen and son, Donald, have returned from a visit with her sister at Corvallis. Mrs. von der Hellen's sister from Juneau, Alaska, who has been visiting at Corvallis, accompanied her to Medford, where she will visit for several weeks.

The Elective Study club met Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Clark, when the reading of "Justice" was completed, and later refreshments were served. The next meeting will be under the leadership of Mrs. E. E. Kelly.

Mrs. George Roberts entertained with a very pretty luncheon Wednesday afternoon at the Hotel Medford, honoring Mrs. Campion of San Francisco. After luncheon two tables of bridge were enjoyed.

Mrs. Frank Preston was hostess Thursday at a prettily appointed luncheon given at her home on Ross court in honor of Miss Elinor Fell and Miss Florence Schofield, who were here in the interest of the work of the fatherless children of France. The guests included, besides Miss Fell and Miss Schofield, were Mrs. Frank G. Owen, Mrs. Wm. Taylor, Mrs. Charles Schieffelin, Mrs. Stewart Patterson, Mrs. Lincoln McCormack, Mrs. Donald Clark, Mrs. Phil Hammill and Miss Margaret Hubbard.

Several dinner parties were given Friday evening preceding the dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bowne. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Clark entertained for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cowles, Mr. and Mrs. S. Vilas Beckwith, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Preston, Mrs. Stewart Patterson, Bondnot Conner, Corning Kenly, Mr. and Mrs. Conro Fiero also entertained with a delightful dinner party.

The monthly business meeting of the Greater Medford club will be held at the armory next Monday afternoon, January 29, at 2:30. Mrs. Schieffelin, the president, is very desirous of a large attendance, as matters of importance are to come before the club at this time.

Mrs. Howard Benzinger and little son, of Spokane, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Daniels. Mrs. Benzinger has been visiting in Pasadena and is now en route home.

St. Mark's Guild will entertain the ladies of Trinity Guild of Ashland at St. Mark's hall next Thursday, February 1, at 1 o'clock luncheon, after which cards will be played.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Merrick will entertain the Five Hundred club next Monday evening at their home on East Main street.

Mrs. C. A. Knight was hostess to the Thursday club at her home on East Main street Thursday afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Salade have returned to Medford after spending the first part of the winter in Honolulu.

Mrs. Ira Dodge was hostess Thursday to the Girls' Bridge club.

By BETTY BROWN.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—Do you know how to look at a fashion plate? If you can pick out at least eight items of spring style in this fashion plate you can count yourself a trained observer. The one first to be seen is, of course, the Paisley pattern of the blouse. Paisley figures put any costume in the center of the style camera. Old Paisley shawls make marvelous beach clothes—not drawn into bath robes, as might be expected, but cut up into very close fitting bathing tents. The waist of today's illustration shows a Paisley design printed on white satin. An experienced eye, dwelling on this fashion plate, will next pick out the line which the girdle or sash makes about the waist, and also the manner of looping it without tying, and the place of fastening it, almost in the center of the front; thus the sash alone has three new points. Probably the location of the huge pockets, exactly over the hip bone, will strike the observer next. Then the plaided strip of the skirt will be noted as new. Then the combination of the Paisley and the plaid strip in one costume will attract attention as an eccentricity now accepted as good style. The pumps are without buckles—doubtless one way the manufacturer takes to keep down the cost, if not the price of fine footwear.

at both services. The church welcomes all ages, races, creeds and classes of people. All seats are free, all are welcome.

THOMLINSON GETS JAIL TERM FOR KILLING DEER
James Thomlinson of Ashland creek was sentenced to thirty days in the county jail Friday by the recorder of Ashland for killing deer out of season. Unlike most sentences for crimes of this nature, no fine was attached, a term in jail being administered.
The killing occurred in a game refuge, 13 miles up Ashland creek. It was reported to Game Warden Driscoll and Walker, that seven shots had been fired in that neighborhood Wednesday, and by tracking and the return from the deer, Thomlinson's cabin was under surveillance. A search warrant was secured, and two hams found in the cabin. Thomlinson pleaded guilty.
Two years ago one of Thomlinson's brothers was killed for a deer in the same district, and it still a mystery, as to who fired the fatal shot.
Game Warden Walker tracked the deer through snow knee deep to secure the evidence in the case.

DRINK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD
Get a small package of Hamburg Breakfast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus driving a cold from the system.
Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB BACKACHE AND LUMBAGO RIGHT OUT
Rub Pain and Stiffness away with a small bottle of old honest St. Jacobs Oil
When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a 25 cent bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right into the pain or ache, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.
Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the ache and pain right out of your back and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.
Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica and lame back misery so promptly!

DR. BATES LECTURES ON DRAMA TONIGHT

With "The Christ Figure in Modern Drama" as his sensational chosen topic, Dr. Ernest S. Bates of the University of Oregon will give a public lecture in Medford tonight at the library, under the auspices of the local Drama League.

This evening's meeting will mark Dr. Bates' second address in Medford for the season, yet his course has been rearranged, and this is his first lecture under the new program. The subject of amateur play production and the "Little Theater Movement," originally chosen for the winter and considered in December with a talk on "The Choice of the Play," has been abandoned.

Dr. Bates starts his new course on modern dramatic literature tonight. Later in the spring two other lectures will follow, one on "The Magdalen in Modern Drama," and another on "The Devil in Modern Drama." Tonight's speaker is one of the few university professors in America who is also a producer of plays for the general public. The students in his classes at Eugene are trained in acting, interpretation, and playwrighting, rather than in the history and art of the drama. About once a month a play is produced before the public of Eugene by the college actors under Dr. Bates' supervision. Already this year Ibsen's Dolls House, an American play by August Thomas, and a program of modern one-act plays have been offered among others.

Proceeding the lecture this evening, City Superintendent of Schools Hillis will outline the work of the local public schools along dramatic lines. The public will be welcome.

LINCOLN BANQUET HELD FEBRUARY 12

The third annual banquet of the Lincoln club will be held at the Hotel Medford, February 12. A meeting was held last night, and the tentative plans for the occasion laid. Committees will be appointed today. It is intended to have both men and women participate in the honoring of the greatest American. Republicans from all over southern Oregon will be in attendance. Speeches will be made by leading orators, and an invitation will be extended to Governor Withycombe to attend. Other state dignitaries will be invited. It will be the biggest meeting of its kind in southern Oregon for the year.
