

LODGE OPPOSES LEAGUE OF NATIONS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—Senator Lodge, ranking republican of the foreign relations committee, warned the senate today of dangers involved in the United States entering a league to enforce peace on conditions outlined by the president.

Senator Lodge also declared that one of the first things the United States should undertake at the conclusion of the war in Europe was the rehabilitation and re-establishment of international law, declaring that because it had been violated in this war was no reason for despairing and concluding that it must be abandoned.

ASQUITH SURE OF FINAL VICTORY

LONDON, Feb. 1.—In a speech at Ladybank today to his constituents, former Premier Asquith said that naval and military and economic resources of the entente allies assured them inevitable victory.

"A notion that the struggle is about to come to a squalid end—to result in a stalemate—is a mere dream," he said. "The fortunes of battle may fluctuate and shift but if all the influences at work are taken into comprehensive account, every month of the conflict becomes more unequal and the balance of success more and more in favor of the allies."

NO SUBMARINES IN PACIFIC WATERS

SEATTLE, Feb. 1.—Benjamin E. Wolf, United States radio inspector, with headquarters in Seattle, said last night:

"There are no submarines of the central powers in the Pacific, and it would be about fifteen days before there would be any need to warn vessels leaving Pacific coast ports and passing through the canal to Atlantic waters. No message of any kind in relation to commercial craft on this coast has been received."

MRS. BYRNE WILLING TO ACCEPT PARDON

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—Counsel for Mrs. Ethel Byrne announced today she would accept Governor Whitman's pardon, which will release her from prison on condition that she refrain from further dissemination of birth control information.

RIVERDALE

William Johns, forest ranger of Butte Falls, is visiting friends at Beagle. Gene Bellows, Perry Foster and Henry French were in Eagle Point on business lately. Jim Almick, who has been visiting with relatives at Beagle, has returned to his home in Northern California. W. Morgan and son, Thomas, have been hauling hay from Al Case. Robert Dawson of Trail was in Eagle Point on business Friday. Miss Lee Middlebush is visiting in Medford. The Central Point-Trail Telephone Co. held a special meeting last Saturday. Considerable business was transacted. Steve Smith moved the furniture belonging to Mr. Her to Agate, where Mr. Her will resume his former position on the Rogue River Land company's tract. The Eagle Point and Rogue River telephone line corporation held a special meeting Saturday for the purpose of reinforcing the poles on the line. In spite of the bad roads, several autos passed through here during the last week. Mrs. Rachel Wood of Eagle Point is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Grant Matthews. Frank Johnson is on a business trip in Medford and other points in the valley. Jim Johnson is getting ready to build a barn on his ranch on the river. Mr. Tom Rahn drove to Central Point last week. Mr. W. Hanscom of the Agate district was up here on business a few days since. Rev. E. Macdonald of the Elk-Rogue motored home from the valley Tuesday morning. Miss Helen Moore, the popular teacher of the Laurel school, after a five week's vacation, resumed studies last Monday. Norman Gage contemplates taking a journey to distant parts on Wednesday, if it doesn't rain. A hard-time social was held at the G. Harlowe ranch on Friday evening. It was agreed that anyone appearing in Sunday clothes would be fined $2.50. So far, it has not been reported how much money was taken in for the above-mentioned offense. Never explain—your friends do not need it—and your enemies will not believe it.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

W. L. Jones, one of the forest rangers, who was around among the cattle men seeing how many they had to turn on the forest range this summer, spent the night with us Saturday and returned Monday for dinner. He said that the object in view in counting the cattle in advance was to see that the range was not overstocked. Lee Bradshaw, and wife, who went to Medford Friday, returned Sunday, stopping at the Sunnyside to see Wm. Holman, who is here nursing a broken leg. Among the passengers on the P. & E. motor Monday was C. V. Cummings, foreman on the Ala Vista orchard; Bert Peachey, one of the forest rangers; Dr. Goble, an eye specialist, and Mrs. Wallace Bergsman. Dr. Goble spent the day on business and spent the night at the Sunnyside, going on to Butte Falls Tuesday. Charles Klinge, one of our progressive farmers and stock growers, and Frank Nygren, son of another progressive citizen, both of Lake Creek, were here for dinner Monday, and so was Mrs. W. W. Taylor, Mrs. Lucinda Thomson of Climax and Mrs. M. S. Thomson of Medford. Mrs. Taylor is the mother-in-law of Mr. Holman and Mrs. Lucinda T. is grandmother to Mrs. Holman, and Mrs. M. S. Thomson is a daughter-in-law to Mrs. L. Thomson. They were all here to visit Mr. H. Mrs. M. S. Thompson spent the night with us, taking the train for Medford Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McNair, Mrs. W. H. McNair, Miss Helen Moore and Miss Gertrude Moore called for dinner Sunday. They were on the way up the country with Miss Helen, who is engaged teaching school in the Laurel Hill district, and was expecting someone to meet her between here and Laurel Hill school house, which is near the Ditsworth settlement. They were all of Ashland. O. C. Boggs, one of the Medford attorneys, came out on the P. & E. Tuesday on his way up into the hills, returning the same day. Robert Vincent and wife and her sister, Miss Gordon, of Trail, were on the car on their way home. They had been out to attend the funeral of Grandma Gordon, their mother. Mr. Brown, the man who hustles for the Mail Tribune, was also a passenger on his way to Butte Falls. John Rader, one of our farmers and stockmen, was in town Tuesday for medicine for a sick horse, and I am glad to say that the horse is greatly relieved and on the road to recovery. He is a valuable work horse. Eugene Bellows was here yesterday. He was hauling out posts to repair the telephone line running along Rogue river up the north bank. While he was here the subject of cows, milk and cream came up, and he said that he was milking six cows; feeding them on barley hay, and that he realized $40 a month for the cream and had the separated milk to feed his calves and pigs, and that he sold his steer calves this fall for $25 apiece. He said that when he had alfalfa hay to feed that it made a difference of $2 or $3 a month in the returns. Another case where it pays to keep a few cows to milk. Pete Betz and Bert Clarno were among the country visitors Tuesday. P. S. Anderson went up to his farm, the Vatchi place, on Rogue river, returning to his room Tuesday. Mr. Lewis, the Central Point sheep man, passed through here Tuesday with about 2000 sheep on his way to the Bear creek country. Mr. and Mrs. George Austin took a trip to Gold Hill last Saturday, and Mrs. Austin remained, visiting her mother. George is the mail contractor and carrier between here and Climax, so he had to return to his post. Mrs. Austin is an assistant in the telephone office here. George Owen and Tom Martin have just come in to see Mr. Holman. Tom Martin lives on the old Peter Britt place, near the mouth of Butte creek. Since my last report W. E. Hensley, owner of the Frank Nichols orchard, has paid up his subscription to the Weekly Mail Tribune, and George Given has renewed his subscription to the W. M. T.

FOOTS CREEK ITEMS

The Carle family had the misfortune to lose their cow last week by her swallowing a piece of baling wire in the hay. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Mathews were Grants Pass callers Saturday. They took a beef weighing 720 pounds, for which he received $70.16. Ed Koester was a Medford caller Saturday and Sunday. He purchased a mare from a Mr. Boardman in Sam's Valley. Mrs. Anderson and son Ed were callers in Rogue River Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Goble spent Saturday with the P. D. Hair family. Henry Woolridge was a visitor to the Mattison ranch Friday. Albert Mattis, Reuben Koester and George Woodcock and Victor Birdseye were callers in Rogue River Saturday. Bert Jones and family intend to leave for California. Fred Koester spent a few days on Applegate last week. Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Lance were callers in Medford Sunday. Ed Boling was a Medford caller Monday on business connected with the telephone line. Our mail carrier broke the springs on his car at Rock Point Saturday. Bert Koester spent Monday on Birdseye creek. Mrs. Han, one of our industrious neighbors, has a new way of passing the time—that of making six handles for the market.

MAKING IT PLAIN

The Pure Food and Drug Laws aim to protect the public by preventing mis-statements on the labels of preparations but some people continue to accept "extracts" of cod livers thinking they will get the benefits of an emulsion of cod liver oil. The difference is very great. An "emulsion" contains real cod liver oil, which has had the hearty endorsement of the medical profession for many years, while an "extract" is a product which contains no oil and is highly alcoholic. Scott's Emulsion guarantees the highest grade of real Norwegian cod liver oil, skillfully blended with glycerine and hypophosphites. Scott's is free from the false stimulation of alcohol and is endorsed by good physicians everywhere. Scott & Bowne, Manufacturers, N. Y.
