Miss Dora Smith of Medford is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jack Fungate of this place. Dr. Goble, an oculist of Medford, came up Tuesday and did business with some of the people returning to Medford Thursday. Frank Morgan left Thursday for Klamath Falls, where he was called in a witness in a trial there. Mrs. G. W. Barker and little daughter left Thursday for Lodi, Cal., where they will make a several months visit to Mrs. Barker's parents. Mr. Barker went with them as far as Medford. L. W. Jones left Thursday for Dead Indian trail. Dr. Emmerson's barn was broken down by the snow one day this week. Haven't learned the particulars as yet.

ROGUE RIVER

Dorothy Alexander spent the week end at the home of Lucy Carle on Footh Creek. The Ladies' Aid met with Mrs. Sandry Thursday afternoon. It was decided to give a social on Washington's birthday for the purpose of raising money. An attendance contest between Mrs. Hair's Sunday school class of girls and Miss Martin's class of boys was won by the boys and the girls paid their forfeit Saturday by serving a dinner to the boys. Rev. Dr. Morgan, of Glendale preached to an appreciative congregation Sunday night. Mrs. Martin Burkhardt is slowly improving from a recent illness. Mrs. Tracy Spencer has gone to McCoy, Ore., to visit her parents. Mrs. M. H. Jackson is reported ill. Miss Myrtle Williams of Salem is visiting her father, J. C. Williams, at this place.

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Scott Ball, well known Ashland people, whose home is at 345 Harrison street, and who have been absent for some time past on an extended visit to relatives in the central west, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary on February 19, 1917, at the home of their son's family, residing at Holden, Mo. Their daughter, Mrs. W. H. Wener, of this city, contemplates a trip east to participate in the anniversary observance. Pleading guilty to stealing a saddle from the McLean ranch in the Dead Indian country, Charles Watson was on Saturday bound over in justice's court to the grand jury. The saddle was sold to Fourth street junk dealers. Watson was caught near Medford. He had been employed by cattle feeders over on the range. The saddle was a prize trophy and had a history dear to the heart of several expert riders in this vicinity. Rebellious and runaway daughter from Oakland, Cal., apprehended here by police few days ago; destination,

Freckles and His Friends

Missoula, Mont. Restrained from continuing tourist trip pending arrival of mother from south. Tears and reconciliation, followed by return of mother and daughter to "home, sweet home," last Saturday morning. Names suppressed by censor.

Mrs. Sophie Sherwood and infant daughter of McClain county, and Mrs. Bessie Spaulsbury and two sons, of Power Lake, N. D., are visiting parents and grandparents in the family of Captain A. W. Thomas, residing at 903 1/2 the Boulevard.

Dr. Dwinell of Montague, came to Ashland last Saturday to attend a gathering of relatives at the home of W. W. Caldwell, 447 Rock street, previous to the departure of a contingent of Wisconsin visitors for southern California, where they will remain two months, having participated in a joyous family reunion with the Caldwell's here for the past few days.

Complicating over-enforcement of the bone dry law ever since as much attention as problems arising over the German situation. Rumors indicate that dry joyriders to and from Hornbrook will be supplied with wet original packages from caches located in out-of-the-way places across the line, this to be done to avoid the espionage of spotters who are expected to keep tabs of purchases openly made at either Hill or Hornbrook.

B. M. Heath, traveling man with headquarters at Roseburg, has purchased from Mrs. Effie L. Taylor eight acres of well-improved orchard on Terrace street. The place is at present occupied by W. J. Carpenter, late a member of the police force, and is located on one of the commanding sites overlooking canyon and valley. The sale was made by the Beaver Realty Agency. Mrs. Taylor has gone to Portland to reside, accompanied by her son.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the M. E. church met last Friday afternoon with Mrs. Tooker. Eighteen ladies were present and enjoyed an interesting program, led by Mrs. Howard.

Professor G. W. Milam of the Gold Hill schools was here Saturday, returning to Phoenix in time to participate in the meeting of the Schoolmasters' club, held there on the same day.

Mrs. M. C. Reed, president of the Woman's Home Missionary society activities of the Methodist church in the Klamath district, will have charge of a missionary gathering at Central Point on Tuesday, held at the home of Mrs. H. R. Stearns.

"By their fruits ye shall know them." Depredators broke into the warehouse of the Fruit & Produce association Saturday night. Stamped envelopes are missing from the office. A box of Ben Davis apples was left untouched.

Mrs. Will Dodge is expected to return home from Portland early this week from a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hunt, in Portland.

The Southern Pacific general offices in Portland will be moved about March 1 from the Wells Fargo building to the Yeon block, corner Fifth and Alder streets, occupying the seventh and eighth floors of that building.

Daniel Nicholson and family, who lived in Ashland some time ago, occupying the C. W. Holmes residence at 323 Almond street, are now located at 1119 North Central avenue, Glendale, Cal.

On Sunday evening, Rev. W. J. Douglass, local Methodist pastor, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church at Medford.

H. N. Stratton and family, living on Nutley street, are to remove to San Diego permanently, father and son having left for their new home on Sunday. The daughter, Marion, has anticipated graduation from the four-year high school course by virtue of winning in advance the system of credits which the course prescribes, followed by award of the coveted diploma, a circumstance which has won much praise for the diligent young student.

At the high school debate here last Friday evening between Ashland and Central Point representatives, the local team, which included Priscilla Carnahan and Lloyd Turner, won decisively over a question involving the state's attitude regarding certain industrial features, upholding the affirmative.

New plate glass is to be placed in the windows of Harry Hosler's Ewauna cigar headquarters on the Plaza.

Ament the prevailing car shortage, Chairman Miller of the public service commission has "written a note" to President Sproule of the S. P., demanding a full and complete survey of the freight car situation and exacting a definite statement as to the future outlook for Oregon in the way of transportation. All of which means a resurvey of the rolling stock in the Ashland terminal yards.

The local W. C. T. U. is gathering up a cargo of old newspapers, magazines and clean rags and solicits contributions.

David F. Fox, well-known resident hereabouts for years at 244 Hargrave street, has removed to Portland for an indefinite stay.

C. M. Staples of Morenci, Ariz., son of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Staples, and who is in the employ of a Scotch syndicate operating big copper camps at Morenci, Coronado and Clifton, in that state, has been promoted as chief of the post accounting department of the three allied camps, the population of which is over 20,000. These Scotch interests have been developing copper properties in Arizona for forty years.

Methodism is doing its share in developing improvements along North Main street materially as well as spiritually. Rev. H. J. Van Fossen, district superintendent, has removed an unsightly barn from his lots and replaced it with a neat structure which fills the composite requirements of barn, workshop and garage, greatly adding to the civic improvement landscape in that locality. As yet the general superintendent has not invested in a family car, but the garage is ready for a tenant at any convenient season.

A hundred dollars was taken in at the band benefit dance, Armory building, last Friday night.

E. T. Staples, having vacated the Hotel Ashland, has removed to the family home at 118 Helman street.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Congregational church will meet on Wednesday afternoon this week with Mrs. W. O. Dickerson as hostess, at her home, 141 High street.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

Mr. Koenig who has an interest in the sawmill near Derby was a passenger on the P. & E. Thursday on his way home. He had been to Medford on business connected with his mill.

There was a carload of wheat come in Thursday for the Brandon Bros. Snowy Butte mill, and they expect to have two cars more here next week. In spite of the kicking of some of our professional kickers, you know that every little town have their kickers, and they predicted all sorts of trouble for the Brandon Bros. when it was learned that they had bought the mill, as it would be impossible for them to get wheat, but notwithstanding their predictions they have been so crowded during the winter that they run most of the time day and night and find a ready sale for all the product of the mill.

Ray and Carl Cobleigh of Butte Falls were here Thursday on business. They are preparing to put in a pumping plant on their place below Butte Falls and have been securing the necessary machinery.

Mrs. F. J. Ayres came out from the farm and spent Wednesday night with her son Amos and wife.

Mrs. F. J. Newport of Medford was a passenger on the P. & E. Thursday.

G. W. Ager, our county school superintendent, came out in his car Thursday and left it at the Sunnyside while he took the train for Edsall station where he visited the Crater Lake school, going from there to the John Higginbotham school, and from there to Butte Falls and Derby; walked in Saturday morning taking his car for home. He laughs at such little things as snow 18 inches deep and mud, but just goes right on through.

Harvey Stanley and wife were doing shopping in our town. His brother Thomas who was recently married, was with them.

Herbert Carlton of Wellen was doing business with Ray Ashpole, one of our hardware merchants Thursday. He reports that the stock is doing fine, so far, this winter.

Miss Sarah Singleton, daughter of one of our prosperous farmers, was shopping here Friday.

W. L. Jones, the forest ranger who has been around among the cattle men counting the cattle, was with us Thursday night taking the E. P. L. C. stage Friday noon. He was going to West and Carlson's road camp. While here he gave me his sub to the W. M. T.

Harris Gippert came out Thursday night with us.

Noble Zimmerman, who has been spending a few weeks in the hills, came in Thursday and is at the Sunnyside at this writing, Saturday.

W. T. Croft brought in a crate of fine Plymouth Rock hens Saturday morning and shipped them to Geo. Mansfield, who runs a fine farm on Rogue River above Trail. He had advertised for a lot of blooded hens and thus secured the fine lot.

John Shafer who is living on the old Benj. Higginbotham place just above McLeod, was a passenger on the P. & E. Saturday on his way home. He had been out to Medford on business.

Mrs. Edgar E. Smith of Butte Falls was also on the train going to her home. Miss Estella Betz was also a passenger on her way up to her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Ayres.

Mrs. Royal Brown, wife of one of the firm of Geo. Brown and Sons, who has been in Medford, returned this morning.

Word came over the phone this morning asking me to go this p. m. to the Antelope cemetery to officiate at the funeral of Thomas Stinson, but as I have been grappling with the grip I decided that it was not prudent to go. I did not learn any of the particulars of the death, etc.

Mrs. Sullivan, a sister of Grandma Klingler, came out on the L. C. E. P. stage; came to the Sunnyside, got a cup of hot tea and went on to Medford.

George Klugle of L. C. called in at the Sunnyside Saturday morning to see Mr. Holman. He seems to have a host of friends who are interested in him enough to come in to see him and help care for him.

I understand that C. E. Clark, who was foreman on the Tronson orchard is planning to open up a meat market here next week.

Since my last N. Garman, Eagle Point has renewed his sub. to the D. M. T. and W. L. Jones of Butte Falls has given me his sub. to the W. M. T.

Falls has given me his sub. to the W. M. T.
